Has US War against Iran Already Begun? US Drone Sentinel captured by Iran

The US Drone Sentinel was raido controlled by Iranian military to land and be captured, and US Airforce lost radio control of the multi million dollar snoop. Now, the U.S. Air Force is sending a brand-new stealth drone to Afghanistan, Iran, and Pakistan. It joins squadron of older model U.S. killer drones. Why? Something ominous is becoming clear: a covert war against Iran. The downed drone is the latest in a series of mysterious events, including explosions and assassinations targeting Iran's nuclear scientists and its ballistic missile program.

War without the American people's knowledge? It wouldn't be the first time. by Sheldon Richman

The U.S. government lost a spy drone over Iran. Is it part of an ongoing covert war? Either Iranian forces shot it down or it fell out of the sky. We may never know which, but now the Obama administration wants it back. Iran says no. It is apparently studying the craft's advanced stealth and other technology — and perhaps attempting to reverse engineer it.

This is not analogous to playful kids who accidentally throw a baseball into a neighbor's yard and ask for it back. The U.S. government has been making war sounds in Iran's direction for years, and these belligerent noises have grown louder in recent months. While there are grounds for believing the U.S. military does not want to attack Iran, which is far larger and more populous than Iraq and would require a long, bloody involvement throughout the region, President Obama and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton insist that "all options are on the table."

Those who insist that the U.S. government is a benevolent force in the world ought to take note that the Obama administration has not excluded nuclear weapons from the list of options. [Israel is also supplied with US nucks !]

But the present trouble only scratches the surface. For years the U.S. government has menaced Iran with a military presence in the region, including warships in the Persian Gulf. Indeed, Iran is virtually surrounded by American military bases. The invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq put thousands of troops just across Iran's east and west borders. Other close U.S. allies in the region include Turkey, Saudi Arabia, and Israel.

Admittedly, the Bush administration's overthrow of Iran's nemesis, Saddam Hussein in Iraq, seems to have introduced an incoherent note in an otherwise consistently anti-Iran policy. The now Shiite-ruled Iraq is closer to Iran's regime than Saddam's Sunni Ba'athist regime was. (The U.S. government supported Saddam when his military attacked Iran in 1980.)

Moreover, U.S. troops are leaving Iraq, as called for by the agreement negotiated between the Iraqi regime and the Bush administration. But the troops are not going far. As the Department of Defense puts it, the forces are simply being "repostured," that is, moved elsewhere in the region, including Kuwait. Iran surely has noticed.

The U.S. government wants the American people to believe that there are sound reasons for this belligerence, namely, that it is defensive and preemptive. Nonsense. As many have pointed out, U.S. intelligence agencies say Iran dropped its nuclear-weapons program over eight years ago, and the International Atomic Energy Agency has regularly certified that Iran has complied with its obligations under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. Every speck of Iran's uranium is accounted for by the IAEA — none has been diverted to weapons production.

Of course, U.S. regimes have portrayed Iran as aggressively anti-American since its 1979 Islamic revolution. But that narrative conveniently leaves out the fact that the CIA helped overthrow a democratic government and install the brutal Shah in 1953. Iran did not start the hostilities.

So is war against Iran ahead? Who can say for certain? The economic sanctions the U.S. has long maintained against Iran, which have been intensified of late, already constitute an act of war under international law and could be the prelude to overt war. The sanctions are apparently supposed to persuade the Iranian people, who unlike their rulers suffer privation, to overthrow their government. The problem for the U.S. policy is that sanctions more often than not have the opposite effect: they prompt the people to rally around the government to counter the external enemy.

Orly Taitz Report: Obama Ordered to Appear at Trial and Provide Birth and I.D. records under all his names: Soetoro, Soebarkah, Obama

Judge Malihi in Georgia has signed the subpoena on request of attorney Orly Taitz. It is issued from that court to compel Obama to appear at trial and provide certified vital records from Hawaii and elsewhere under all of the names he used: Soetoro, Soebarkah, and Obama.

Obama re-election 2012 is Americans Greatest Fear.

A New Year's poll says Americans, by a margin of 2:1 fear the 2012 re-election of Obama to the highest office in USA as commander of the US Military and nuclear weapons. And, nearly half of Americans 65 and older said Obama's reelection was their top fear. [Relax, Obama just wants to set the record for the most golf games played by any head of the White House. So far, he has 92 games.]

31 percent of all Americans said they feared higher taxes as their 2nd fear. Nearly 38 percent of younger Americans, 18-24, said their biggest fear was higher taxes.

Obama is a Dictator! A King?

Barack Obama defied long-standing precedent by appointing Richard Cordray as director new proposed federal agency while the Senate is not in recess. Appointments of this nature not only allow the President to bypass the confirmation process, they also jeopardize Congress' ability to check excessive executive power. Everything Obama does is for a single purpose, consolidation of power, all power, in the Federal Government Obama regime.

"In this hour I was responsible for the fate of the German people, and thereby I become the supreme judge of the German people." - Adolph Hitler

Obama said: "When Congress refuses to act and as a result hurts our economy and puts people at risk, I have an obligation as president to do what I can without them." [Editor: By that logic, I demand Obama's immediate resignation!]

Every day that goes by without a curb upon his quest for a statist utopia is a day further away from a resolution to this looming Constitutional crisis peacefully by either impeachment or at the ballot box.

The mere fact that Obama could make such an utterance alluding to governing WITHOUT the consent of Congress because they are hampering him should scare the HELL out of EVERY American!! Add it up: Obama care + Senate bill S 1867 + SOPA + a narcissist in the white house+ No I.D. + illegal wars + a media that has forsaken the truth + an economy that has been completely wrecked = DICTATORSHIP. Dictators get their powers by their ability to convert internecine plotting to gain political power, and Dictator Barack Obama is GOOD at that. Had Obamacare been publicly debated, it would never have passed. Obama, Pelosi and Reid all knew that, so they made certain: in Nancy's immortal phrase, "We have to pass the bill so that you can find out what is in it."

Obama's homo U.S. Navy

This picture speaks a thousand words about how Barack Obama has changed the US Military. Once a conservative institution focused on protecting America, Obama has twisted it with social experiments and the promotion of his left-wing agenda.

Once Sodomy was illegal, now homosexuality is actively encouraged. This report from the LA Times tell the story. This kiss was staged for the media. We all should be deeply saddened: A public sexual display between two female sailors from California is being hailed as "the kiss heard 'round the world" by activists who fought for a repeal of the ban on gays and lesbians serving openly in the military.

Petty Officer 2nd Class Marissa Gaeta from Placerville shared a kiss with partner Petty Officer 3rd Class Citlalic Snell of Los Angeles as Gaeta's ship, the amphibious landing ship Oak Hill tied up. Wake Up America! STOP IT !

Obama's Illegal Aliens Get Cell Phones ?

Obama's Illegal aliens now quite possibly can call a toll free government number, 1-800-259-0957, to get a free "Obama Phone." The program, conventionally known as Safe Link Wireless, is available to those are on food stamps or Medicaid. Applying for work permits that give them drivers' licenses provides illegals proof of identity. With that, they enter America's entitlement class and even become enabled to vote in our elections — for Obama, Democrats.

The Obama administration has set up a cascading series events, beginning back in August when deportation of tens of thousands of illegal immigrants was suspended, pending reviews. "A review of about 300,000 deportation cases currently before the immigration courts," will be done by the DOJ and Homeland Security to "halt deportations of longtime residents with clean police records who came here illegally when they were children," according to a New York Times article.

According to Latino publications, Obama regime is urging Hispanic illegals to be sure to get their work permits, so they can get drivers' licenses, so they can register to vote. In the Chicago community organizer way of socialism, are we seeing the Obama campaign begin now to pad their Democrat voter lists by providing illegals incentives to vote for Obama by paving the way to sidestep those onerous voter ID rules states have enacted?

Beginning back in August the media reported, "Manuel Guerra, an illegal immigrant from Mexico living in Florida and fighting a five year deportation court battle told a New York Times reporter the news was like something from above, from heaven." He added, "I don't want to go back to Mexico."

We learn about the effort of U.S. Rep. Barbara Lee who claimed that states are passing voter identification laws with the goal of preventing minorities from voting in elections. Al Sharpton was pontificating on his MSNBC show that our seniors won't get to vote because of these voter ID rules. Lies. Lies.

Once again, we see that the Democratic voting machine operates behind a smokescreen of virtue while actually working to elect Democrats no matter how illegal the route.

Hey, why not, a free phone, free medical care, free food, and free citizenship for any babies I can get born in the U.S.A.? That might make me awfully grateful — grateful enough to remember these kind gestures at election time.

Corrupt Congresscrittes....

When public office is used specifically for private gain, [like Pelosi et al] we have a problem.

After all, politicians are sent to Washington with a mandate to promote the will of the people. However, America's politicians often end up serving the wishes of their corporate masters, as well as other special interest groups.

Here's a few hard facts on the matter...

1. Talk about the 1%. Over half of the members of Congress, who are sent to Washington on the behalf of the common man, are millionaires.

2. Legal Insider Trading? There is currently no accountability or oversight to prohibit members of the U.S. Congress from profiting in the financial markets based upon the inside information they obtain in the course of their daily work. (The news program, 60 Minutes, recently blew the lid off of the Congressional insider trading scandal. Video: www.youtube.com/watch?v=x95uC_wzUX4.)

I do not favor new laws on this matter. Why create new laws when existing laws already specifically define and outline the illegality of insider trading. All Congressmen should be expected to abide by the same insider trading laws that already exist and that apply to all Americans. Why should they be exempt?

3. Federal Employees Everywhere. As of 2010, over 80,000 federal workers held jobs that earned $150,000 or more a year. That number has soared tenfold in the past five years, has doubled since Obama regime, according to USA Today.

I have had enough of the Federal government's overreach into our wallets and into our personal lives.

The failed Keynesian economic policies — and the welfare state that it has helped create — coupled with the warfare state that has resulted from the failed foreign policy disasters promoted by Zionist NeoCons and other war profiteers, has driven America to utter bankruptcy.

As the bombs drop and the government handouts continue, our financially corrupt political leaders continue to sell this nation out to the highest corporate bidders. Meanwhile, excessive power in the Executive branch continues to create a national police state as the fraudulent Federal Reserve system keeps the American Titanic afloat as our nation's lender of last resort.

Its time to end the Federal Reserve which props up the current warfare state and return to a sound monetary system.

Its time to stop the American police state in its tracks.

Its time to end the broken welfare state that creates needless dependency on the Federal government.

Its time to get the corrupt Federal government out of our wallets, our bedrooms, and our educational system and return to the states their rightful sovereignty. Its time for a real revolution.

Obama's Banana Republic?

The decision that Barack Obama is making, is acting like a dictator of a banana republic. It's absolutely irresponsible what Obama is doing to get behind measures to increase spending to such a level that we're going in to debt, $1.5 trillion every year.

Compare Obama's annual, trillion-dollar deficits with Bush's 2007 deficit of $160 billion. Some of Obama's monthly deficits have exceeded that. Obama once called this behavior "unpatriotic," uh, before he usurped the White House.

Clearly the shackles of debt slavery Obama's free-spending policies have forged threaten to collapse the economy. Former Sen. Judd Gregg, whom Obama invited to serve as his Commerce Secretary, said, "This nation is on a course where if we don't do something about it, get federal situation, the fiscal policy [under control], we're Greece. We're a banana republic."

Dear Editor: Hawaiian Inmates Arizona?

Arizona houses 1,742 Hawaiian inmates in the middle of the desert at the Saguaro and Red Rock prison facilities due to overcrowding and lack on funding to build new prisons in Hawaii. The state of Hawaii has extended the $45.5 million a year contract to house inmates in Arizona with Corrections Corporation of America (CCA) another three years until June 30, 2014.

According to www.hawaii.gov/icis Recidivism Update 2010, Hawaii recidivism rate averages above fifty percent, which is a problem for the state budget and community. The report from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Service titled From Prison to Home: The Effect of Incarceration and Reentry on Children, Families and Communities, "A social investment in prisoners, families and children will require the adoption of more positive views of prisoners, families and family relationships, better understanding of family needs and societal responses, and dedicated attention to changing the prevailing system responses." Following the recommendations from the report will have the following positive effects: 1. It reduces recidivism; 2 Strengthen the community and family bonds; 3 It reduces the state budget housing repeat offenders.

Los Angeles County Jail, the largest jail system in the world with more than 30,000 active inmates in the system, reduced the rate of call to lower recidivism. An article titled "Jail phone calls ring up big bills" states the following: "The amount of money charged is controversial because studies show that maintaining strong family contact during incarceration through phone calls, correspondence and visits can aid parole success and reduce recidivism."

Just Talk Communications is solving these problems today by reducing recidivism by making communication affordable and reachable.

The Hawaiian inmates in Arizona are in trouble. They do not have family members that can visit them due to the distance and high cost of travel. Inmates only make $0.12 per hour and phone calls cost $0.25 per minute plus a $2.00 connection fee. The cost for a 21-minute phone call is approximately $8.00 with tax. Family members are typical lower income and cannot afford to maintain frequent communications that keeps family members bonded with Hawaiian inmates in Arizona due to the high cost of phone calls.

19-Year Old Mother Shoot and Kills Home Invader

A young Oklahoma mother shot and killed an intruder to protect her 3-month-old baby on New Year's Eve, days after the baby's father died of cancer.

The young mother was Sarah McKinley, who told reporters that a week earlier, on the day of her husband's funeral, a man named Justin Martin came to visit, saying he was a neighbor. The 18-year-old mother refused to let him in that day.

Martin returned with a friend and a 12-inch knife on New Year's Eve and the two men began trying to break into Ms. McKinley's house. McKinley put a bottle in the baby's mouth, got a 12-gauge shotgun and a pistol and called 911.

It is a pretty remarkable scene:

"I've got two guns in my hand -- is it okay to shoot him if he comes in this door?" the young mother asked the 911 dispatcher. "I'm here by myself with my infant baby, can I please get a dispatcher out here immediately?"

The 911 dispatcher confirmed with McKinley that the doors to her home were locked as she asked again if it was okay to shoot the intruder if he were to come through her door.

"I can't tell you that you can do that but you do what you have to do to protect your baby," the dispatcher told her. McKinley was on the phone with 911 for a total of 21 minutes.

When Martin kicked in the door and came after her with the knife, the teen mom shot and killed the 24-year-old. Police are calling the shooting justified.

I concur with Sarah Palin, who said of McKinley in an email to National Review Online: "I love that young woman. I'm all in favor of girls with guns who know their purpose. She fulfilled a purpose of the Second Amendment. I'd advise my own daughters to do the same. This mom protected an innocent life. Kudos to the 911 radio telephone operator, too.

Sarah McKinley was inside her own house so some of the regulations discussed in Anna's story were not germane. Still, this is still a story about how guns in the hands of decent people can be used to fend off bad people.

I am from a part of the country where people are fond of hunting with guns. But I've never liked them, never been comfortable around guns. I do know, however, that people who advocate ever-tightening restrictions on guns, including the kinds of restrictions Anna wrote about, don't do much to help good citizens. Too stringent rules could ultimately take the right to own a gun from law-abiding people like Sarah McKinley who defended herself and her baby.

Taking away a woman's access to effective means of self-defense makes her an even more attractive target. As a woman and a concealed-carry permit holder, I should not have my right and my ability to protect myself and my family depend on what state issues my permit. 2nd Amendment: NO PERMITS NEEDED!

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment: "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up! Enforce the Bill of Rights!

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

Letters to Editor: Obama's AG Eric Holder Accused in Oklahoma bombing Murder

"You need to know that Eric Holder...played a key role in covering up the torture-murder death of my brother, Kenneth Michael Trentadue."

This is what Salt Lake City attorney Jesse Trentadue wrote in December 2008 to prospective incoming chairman of the Senate Justice Committee, Patrick Leahy. The newly elected Barack Obama had made Holder his choice for Attorney General and Trentadue was going to do everything in his power to stop this shameful appointment from going forward.

Kenneth Trentadue was murdered in Oklahoma City on August 21, 1995, four months after the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah building. He had been taken into custody by the FBI and placed in an isolation cell at a federal facility in El Reno, Oklahoma.

Unable to get satisfactory information from government officials on what had happened to his brother, in 1997 Jesse Trentadue filed a federal wrongful death lawsuit against the Department of Justice. In it, Trentadue made the extraordinary claim that the Department had hidden and "destroyed evidence that would have exposed my brother's murderers."

The official government report on cause of death presented to Trentadue's family stated that Kenneth had hanged himself in his cell. But massive bruises and lacerations all over his body compelled even the Oklahoma City medical examiner to state "very likely he was murdered."

As a result of that lawsuit, in 2001 the Trentadue family was awarded $1.1 million, and the federal judge indeed later ruled that "the FBI had lied in court...and destroyed evidence."

Using e-mails and handwritten notes acquired in that lawsuit, Trentadue demonstrated in his correspondence to Patrick Leahy that then-Deputy Attorney General Eric Holder had engineered a scheme to sidetrack any investigation into Trentadue's brother's death in order to "deflect congressional oversight and media attention."

Calling their agenda the "Trentadue mission," members of Holder's DOJ team compared their efforts to "coordinating the invasion of Normandy." They referred to "meeting with [Holder] to discuss 'Trentadue-does' and 'Trentadue-don't'," concerning a carefully crafted press release designed to announce that a federal grand jury had just concluded its work and found no reason to charge a crime.

Of course that October 9 press release failed to say the grand jury had actually, secretly concluded its business in August, having been supplied with only the "evidence" the Department of Justice saw fit to provide.

The lengths to which Eric Holder and others went to stifle any investigation of the Trentadue affair make it clear that it was not simply a federal prisoner interrogation that went too far. CoachIsRight.com will present the known history of this extraordinary Clinton administration affair and cover-up through the coming days.

AMERICA'S FORSAKEN PROMISE

Part VII: But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a Design to reduce them to absolute Despotism... Take ACTION !

Persecution for profit naturally worsens until the beneficiaries of the persecution are savaged by their outraged victims. If enforced respect for unalienable rights cannot be accomplished by peaceful redress, then, as in 1776, redress by force of arms is morally justified.

It is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such Government and to provide new Guards for their future Security.

Unalienable rights are not favors won in elections. They are the natural power that never lawfully changes, and every American is morally obliged to respect and defend it.

Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies...And today, such is the sufferance of informed Americans not favored by the regime du jour.

And such is now the Necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. Americans need only reject the existing system of unlawful powers that have supplanted the legitimate Law of the Land. A Republican form of government is guaranteed by Article IV, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution.

The History of the present King of Great Britain is a History of repeated Injuries and Usurpations, all having in direct Object the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.

Today, freedom loving Americans have more to fear from their own secretive, faction and lobby-corrupted government than the Colonists ever had to fear from their King and his Parliament.

He has obstructed the administration of Justice.

An ordinary Citizen choosing to report a violation of his unalienable rights to the Justice Department by way of its investigative organization, the F.B.I., will quickly discover that the primary concern of government agencies is the maintenance of the imperial status quo.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the Tenure of their Offices, and the Amount and Payment of their Salaries.

In the endless Power versus Liberty struggle, the record of the judges is worse than merely disgraceful—some of it is intrinsically criminal. Federal judges and Supreme Court justices serve life terms in office, although some should be banished for life to some remote atoll for the lives they've unjustly ruined. Ruthlessly creating and imposing bad law upon the common folk, legislators and judges systematically violate the genuine

Law of the Land for the financial benefit of themselves and the establishment they serve. Once America's worsening Legal Holocaust is exposed, informed grand juries ought to issue the Presentments* necessary to order their individual indictments for their systematic crimes against humanity.

* See: Fifth Amendment. If employed by informed grand juries, the little known presentment power is a legal weapon that could all but eliminate corruption in government. Merely being the target of a grand jury investigation can end a scoundrel's political career.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither Swarms of Officers to harass our People, and eat out their Substance.

Freedom is being incrementally submerged into a political cesspool brimming with regulations, prohibitions, and punishments. The Judicial Industry systematically impoverishes—and often imprisons—harmless citizens made “criminal” by legislative license and judicial ukase.

For imposing taxes on us without our Consent.

With unlimited power to tax* and spend, so-called representatives arrogantly betray the taxpayers among their constituents by squandering huge sums of money on patently unlawful programs.

*Formally educated parasites cash in on complexity where simplicity would work much better for the general population. Fairness and justice are not synonyms. The only just system for tax collection is a pay as you purchase, single sales tax collected without exception or consideration for the purchasers' expressed ability to pay. The legal terror apparatus referred to as the IRS should be replaced by something called the RDA, or Revenue Distribution Authority.

For depriving us in many Cases, of the Benefits of Trial by Jury.

Those arrested are at the mercy of the Judicial Industry, which, by virtue of its usurped control of grand juries and its exclusive license to inflict severe consequences for the disobedience of laws whether good or bad, has monopoly control over justice—or the absence of it. Since constitutional due process is an impediment to quick profit, the Judicial Industry dispenses with it whenever possible. Even if an accused has the financial power to defy the threat/bribe of a plea bargain, he will risk a jury that has not been informed of its unalienable right to follow Conscience and vote to acquit in righteous defiance of bad law.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated Injury. A Prince whose Character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the Ruler of a free People.

Repeatedly trying to elect away what is essentially a legal problem that should be remediable in a court of law simply won't work. For that, Americans must find the resolve and muster the solidarity necessary to ruthlessly enforce the genuine Law of the Land.

Multiculturalism Assumes USA Lacks a Unique Culture

By Frosty Wooldridge

In Suicide of a Superpower, Patrick Buchanan said, “We have accepted today the existence in perpetuity of a permanent underclass of scores of millions who cannot cope and must be carried by society—fed, clothed, housed, tutored, medicated at taxpayer's expense their entire lives. We have a dependent nation the size of Spain in our independent America. We have a new division in our country, those who pay a double or triple fare, and those who ride forever free.”

The accelerating masquerade of multiculturalism manifests itself solely in first world countries. People who promote it assume that the cultures of Canada, Europe, Australia and America are not complete in themselves.

Mexico, Somalia, Congo, India, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Afghanistan, Japan, Korea, China and most other mono-ethnic and mono-religious societies do not allow multiculturalism. In many such societies, their cultures do not allow women to vote, think, become educated, enjoy equal rights or choose whom to marry. Citizens suffer a litany of limitations and discriminations.

Yet, somebody dreamed up the idea that multiculturalism must be thrust upon America and Canada as if it would improve on their freedoms of religion, free thought and free expression. Any fool can witness that it does not work in Norway, Sweden, France, United Kingdom, Germany, Holland, Belgium and any other country overrun by third world immigrants.

United Kingdom's Prime Minister Cameron announces, “Multiculturalism has created complete separation in the UK.” Two generations of students have been taught to believe that all cultures are created equal, that we do not have a legitimate made-in-Canada or made-in-America cultural identity deserving of protection.

My friend Tim Murray brings the hammer down on the pretention that “multiculturalism” is the end all and be all for enhancing another country's own culture.

After 70 years of “White Australia” policy, we are meant to feel guilt and thus we need to have open borders and open minds and allow “diversity” and multiculturalism as an ideal. Patriotism for Australia is considered racist, yet other settlers are encouraged to cherish their national/cultural identities.

“Multiculturalism assumes that Australia doesn't have a culture. Our early poets, bush-ballads, traditional songs and dances, folklore, visual arts, indigenous culture, colonial and Federation architecture is undermined by modern-day celebration of “Harmony” and “Diversity”. How many school kids would recognize or recite one of Banjo Patterson's poems now?

“Multiculture” is not a culture itself, but a salad of mixed ethnic identities. It's been used to justify mass immigration. There's no “glue” to hold together any common ideals - and there are sanctions against any discussion or criticism of it.”

Anyone living in New England states where Somalian immigrants wreak terror in the local schools and ride the welfare rolls, understands the horror of multiculturalism. The latest stems from a Muslim teen that beat up a young American teen because she wouldn't have sex with him. He broke her front teeth out and said, “I'm going to mess up your pretty face.” And he did, big time!

“Even the ANZAC Day memories are becoming of little significance, but for a few who remember their fore-fathers who fought in the two world wars, it is being embraced as a symbol of our past,” said Murray.

“One by one, our traditions and symbols are falling like bowling pins. The Socialists are willing to see Canada and America colonized by cultures from across the globe, and are gleeful by the exponential increase in the number of “ethnic” (that is foreign) enclaves in both countries' urban centers.

“The British, the French and the indigenous peoples are not mere fragments of a Canadian “mosaic” but “Founding Peoples” in a distinctive Canadian culture. Apologists for multiculturalism often remark, “What is a Canadian anyway?”

Canadians of my father's generation, the ones who stormed Juno Beach in Normandy or flew in the RAF, RCAF or served in the “Royal” Canadian navy as my uncles did know what a Canadian was.

“In just 30 years I have witnessed the deliberate and calculated demolition of a nation. A nation that our founding peoples created long before the immigrants joined the party. My great grandparents—the first of my family to make Canada their home—were Scandinavians—and they were proud to salute the Red Ensign (with its Union Jack), make an oath of allegiance to our CANADIAN head-of-state (Queen Victoria), obey British-based laws and speak one of our official languages (English) without aid or encouragement.

Who then is behind this policy of official multicultural-schism? Answer—those who harness and mobilize ethnic voters as a bloc vote in support of the growth lobby. And those cheap labor employers who want a large pool of unskilled labor to draw from and more consumers to sell to.

“It is time that the ideology of multiculturalism be exposed for what it is. It is the corporate agenda of growing the labor pool under the guise of “diversity and tolerance.” Multiculturalism, aka “Diversity”, is destructive Population Ponzi Scheme. When will “left wing” see it for the scam it is? When will environmentalists understand that mass immigration has a profoundly negative ecological impact, and that in effect, more “cultural diversity” comes at the expense of “biological diversity”, as new housing sprawls over our best farmland to accommodate immigration-driven population growth, putting 500 species-at-risk?”

America is being watered down, dumbed down and subjected to our cultural poverty—imported by the cultures brought to this country. Our culture is being obliterated. We must stand for America's unique culture, our ability to vote for our leaders, for women's rights, for children's rights and for the freedoms guaranteed by our Constitution. We must engage a total moratorium on all immigration and stop the destruction of America's culture, language and way of life.

YOU CAN KEEP THE “CHANGE!”
