La'au Meetings Continue January 31

Meetings on Laau issues continue, and as long as Lingel is governor, and supports development of Laau and Molokai Ranch, the chances are very good that Laau will be developed as proposed by Molokai Ranch regardless of opposition.

Collette Machado and Claude Sutcliff's seats will be vacant on the EC Board. Bridget Mowat and Leila Dudoit Stone are on the ballot, and both are supported by Hui Hoopakele Aina or Save La'au 'Ohana that opposed the Laau development.

Elections will be held on Wednesday, January 31, 2007 from 7:00 am to 6:30 pm at Mitchell Pauole Center Conference Rm. Be sure to bring proof of residency like a driver's license or utility bill so you can vote.

EIS MEETINGS for JANUARY

EVERY TUESDAY NIGHT meetings at Kulana Oivi QLCC conference room, starting at 5:00 p.m.

PLEASE COME AND HELP. CALL 558-0111 FOR MORE INFO.

Mission Accomplished in Iraq! So, Get out NOW !!

The United States has already won in Iraq. The original intention of Operation Iraq was to prevent the use of Weapons of Mass Destruction against that region. We never found any Weapons of Mass Destruction. Then Bush changed the mission into deposing Saddam Hussein. Saddam Hussein has been hanged.

These stated missions have been accomplished. American should ask this: WHAT WOULD HAVE TO HAPPEN BEFORE WE WOULD CONCLUDE THAT WE SHOULD LEAVE IRAQ? [Pssst! Bring the troops home now!!!—The MAN]

NOW Bush is hinting that we must resolve all of the internal disputes in Iraq. How did the internal disputes in Iraq become our problem? What gives us the RIGHT, or the DUTY, to resolve all of the internal disputes in Iraq? Iraq is accustomed to conflicts lasting longer than USA has been a country!

The President's spokesman, Tony Snow, made the statement to a press conference that the President would not shape the USA's foreign policy based upon American opinion. That means the President no longer believes in representative government in the USA; instead, he chooses a dictatorship.

Americans made it very clear about their opinion concerning a continued Operation in Iraq. They said, "No more war." Congress heard the people with the recent election. The message was very clear.

American lives are at stake. Our economy is at stake. End this war now!

If we are defending freedom, we should ask: Which freedoms are we defending? Would that be the right of Habeas corpus? Would that be the right to keep and bear arms? Would that be the freedom of religious expression? Would that be the freedom to travel without carrying papers; which will be inspected at police checkpoints? Would that be the freedom to criticize the President, or other government officials, without being accused of violating the Patriot Act, and considered a possible terrorist? Would that be the freedom to mention the Constitution in any district court without being held in contempt? Would that be the freedom to be secure from warrantless searches, according to the fourth amendment? Would that be the freedom to be secure from warrantless telephone tapping, or email monitoring, or censorship of the internet? Would that be the freedom to move about in public places without being monitored by hundreds of federal agents? Would that be the freedom not to have your property seized under "civil forfeiture" laws; which make it possible to take anything that you own, by alleging that it was "intended" to be used for the commission of a crime? Would that be freedom from oppressive taxation? Would that be freedom to have a trial by jury instead of before an "administrative law judge"? We hope this message gets past the Department of Homeland security approved internet filter.

Now, let us get out of Iraq, and start to defend freedom in U.S.A. from President Bush and Linda Lingle and their cabal of crooked treasonous attorneys !!

Mistake: US Bombs Intended Kill Nomads and their Animals instead of Terrorists

January 12, 2007: The herdsmen had gathered with their animals around large fires at night to ward off mosquitoes. But lit up by the flames, they became latest victims of America's war on terror.

It was their tragedy to be misidentified in a secret operation by special forces attempting to kill three top al-Qa'ida leaders in south-ern Somalia.

Oxfam yesterday confirmed at least 70 nomads in the Afmadow district near the border with Kenya had been killed. The nomads were bombed at night and during the day while searching for water sources.

Meanwhile, the US ambassador to Kenya has acknowledged that the onslaught on Islamist fighters failed to kill any of the three prime targets in Kenya. [Justice ?]

Bush says Iraqi's Owe US mahalos?

"On 60 MINUTES, President Bush was asked, 'Do you think you owe the Iraqi people an apology for not doing a better job?'

Bush eventually answered 'Not at all. I am proud of the efforts we did. We liberated that country from a tyrant.'

If Bush stopped there, all he would have been was arrogant. But he kept going: 'I think the Iraqi people owe the American people a huge debt of gratitude.'

That is inhuman. In our name, President Bush destroyed a nation under the false pretense of weapons of mass destruction. Between the US military invasion and the ensuing civil war, at least 53,000 Iraqi civilians and over 3,000 American soldiers have been killed. Nearly 23,000 US soldiers have been wounded, and several hundred thousand Iraqi's badly injured. And the land scape is contaminated with deadly radioactive depleted uranium dust from DU ammunitions used by USA.

Tyrants are being hanged, and tyranny is still in the streets. And the Iraqi people owe us a debt of gratitude?" President Bush et al should face trial and death by hanging for war crimes against humanity, and TREASON, just as did Saddam!

Watada Court Martial: UPDATED

Nearly two weeks after hearing arguments in the January 4 pre-trial phase of Lt. Ehren Watada's court martial for refusing to deploy to Iraq, and explaining his refusal to the press, military circuit judge Lt. Col. John M. Head issued brief, tersely worded rulings January 16, 2007. In summation, The defense motion for a hearing on the Nuremberg defense is DENIED. The government motion to prevent the defense from presenting evidence on the legality of the war is GRANTED. The defense motion to dismiss the four political speech charges was also DENIED.

Lt. Watada's civilian attorney Eric Seitz of Honolulu declared, "These rulings exemplify the fact that this is a military disciplinary proceeding, and apparently not an actual trial in which concepts of justice apply. Now let someone ask me if I think Ehren can get a fair trial in a military court. In summation, These rulings are about as horrible and inept as I could have imagined," added Seitz.

Citing the military courts 1967 conviction of Lt. Henry Howe for attending an anti-war protest with a picket sign that read, "Let's have more than a choice between petty ignorant fascists in 1969," military Judge Head dismissed out of hand any inherent protections of political speech for members of the military.

If the [political speech] charges leveled in this case are allowed to proceed, it would mean that service members are completely barred from voicing their honest opinions on political subjects of significant public concern. Silencing speech like Lt Watada's violates the Constitution while it also harms the military and the public at large.

Lead prosecutor Capt. Kuecker says there are two separate prosecutions going on. The first is for Lt. Watada missing movement to Iraq where his MOTIVE is so irrelevant that it needs to be barred from the military jury. The second prosecution will be for Lt. Watada publicly explaining his MOTIVE! [This passes for military justice?]

Lt. Watada is scheduled to go on trial at Fort Lewis, Washington on February 5. He will face two years imprisonment for missing movement, and four additional years imprisonment for his public statements critical of the Iraq War.

Supporters of Lt. Watada are asked to write Lt. General James Dubik, Commanding General Fort Lewis, 1 Corps Building 2025 Stop 1, Fort Lewis WA 98433. Please request that General Dubik Dismiss all charges, and grant Watada's resignation.

Molokai's Forum For Freedom Individual's Sovereignty vs Slavery

by George Peabody ph. 558-8253 email: molokaiman@flex.com

"We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God." —James Madison

Martin Luther King Day was January 15

"Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter."
—Martin Luther King Jr

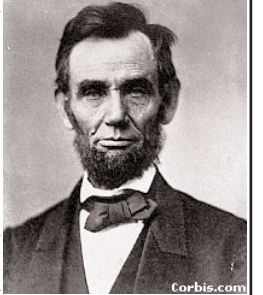

How different American History would have been, had Abraham Lincoln read the entire US Supreme Court decision in Dred Scott v. Sandford:

<http://www.supremelaw.org/decs/dredscot/excerpt1.htm>

I realize that Lincoln was not an elected official when that decision was issued by the U.S. Supreme Court; but, history tells us that he was an up-and-coming lawyer who should have known the Law in America. The Law to which I refer is Article I in the U.S. Constitution:

<http://www.supremelaw.org/ref/whuscons/whuscons.htm#1>

And, notwithstanding Chief Justice Taney's political bent circa 1856, he was entirely correct when he argued that the U.S. Supreme Court had, and still has, NO authority to make law or to amend the U.S. Constitution: If any of its provisions are deemed unjust, there is a mode prescribed in the instrument itself by which it may be amended; but while it remains unaltered, it must be construed now as it was understood at the time of its adoption.

In other words, the writing was definitely on the wall for slavery in that year, and Taney's long and detailed opinion made it rather obvious that apartheid was the "law of the land" at that time, because it was recognized by the organic U.S. Constitution: "three fifths of all other Persons."

Now, if Lincoln had taken Taney's advice, the future President should have taken steps to draft and promote the proper constitutional amendment, one which we now have no difficulty drafting for him: "The status of Citizen of one of the United States of America shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State of the Union, on account of race."

Such a simple solution to the crisis created by Black slavery in America would have conferred upon all Blacks the fundamental Right to become, and remain, State Citizens. Instead, however, Congress commenced to make a legal mess of the situation then, by offering Blacks a choice: either become subjects of D.C., or go back to Africa. The 1866 Civil Rights Act did NOT extend a fundamental Right to Blacks, which would have occurred had the U.S. Constitution been properly amended as proposed: see <http://www.supremelaw.org/ref/1866cra/>

A "civil right" is one that is created by Congress and, as such, "civil rights" fall into the same class of legislation as Acts of Congress creating federal corporations: those "civil rights" are "privileges and immunities" NOT the inalienable God given "Privileges and Immunities" first protected by our Constitution for the United States of America! Surely, you now argue: the lawyers would NOT be so crafty as to create deliberate confusion by making hair-line distinctions between "Privileges" and "privileges". Ha! Read on!! In stark comparison, "fundamental Rights" are those which issue from the fundamental Law, and a Right in that class cannot be touched by Congress under any circumstances:

<http://www.supremelaw.org/fedzone11/htm/chaptr10.htm>

If the life and death of Dr. Martin Luther King are to be fully appreciated, we will surely prolong the errors of past history if we refuse to confront the "fundamental" errors which have been made in his name, before and after his tragic death.

Long live the fundamental Law in America!!

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:

"A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor." (Decl. of Indep.)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke

"Those who make peaceful change impossible, make violent change inevitable." -- Robert F. Kennedy

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." Thomas Jefferson

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

God Help Us !!

John Warner Defense Authorization Act

This act passed by Congress and signed by President Bush allows the President to declare a "public emergency" and station troops anywhere in America and take control of state-based National Guard units without the consent of the governor or local authorities, in order to "suppress public disorder." Linda Lingle will certainly cooperate!

President Bush seized this unprecedented power on the very same day that he signed the equally odious Military Commissions Act of 2006. In a sense, the two laws complement one another. One allows for torture and detention abroad, while the other seeks to enforce acquiescence at home, preparing to order the military onto the streets of America. Remember, the term for putting an area under military law enforcement control is precise; the term is "martial law."

The only thing you can do is to start buying guns and prepare to die using them! Train, practice and encourage others to buy weapons. I suggest high power long range. the 50 cal is good for shots by those trained up to a mile away. As far as the media is concerned and why they haven't picked up on it...all this couldn't have come to pass without their active suppression of truthful news. The people who sit on the boards of these mega-media companies are the same as those who sit on the boards of the oil companies and the military industrial complex. They are politicians and attorneys. They are the rich and powerful. They have been manipulating and dividing (as in divide and conquer) the citizens of this country for many years.

They are also one in the same with the lobbyists who work for them. Follow the money...it's "the root of all evil"!

Are we ready NOW to take our country back and re-establish a Bill of Rights culture?

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man. Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
