Obama Increasingly Lawless Oil, Health; Borrow More Debt above $14-Trillion

Democrat Obama wants to raise the federal debt ceiling to borrow more money. John Boehner, Speaker of the House responded in support: "In order for the debt ceiling to rise, Congress must approve taking on more debt, which currently is growing by more than $4 billion per day," said Boehner. "If it doesn't approve raising the ceiling, then the U.S. will default on its loans and lose its standing as the globe's most reliable bet."

Joseph Farah, editor of WND counters with "Shock the Washington establishment by participating in the "No More Red Ink" campaign and shut down all new plans for bailouts, "stimulus" spending and the funding for Obamacare."

Farah is appealing to Boehner and his Republican colleagues in the House to recognize the simple principle that you cannot solve a debt problem by continually borrowing more money. "There is no reason we can't pay the interest on the money the federal government has borrowed and still keep that government functioning," says Farah. "What Boehner is preaching here is true voodoo economics. The US does not have to default on any loans simply because the government decides to stop borrowing and digging a bigger hole for itself," says Farah. "Living under the debt ceiling doesn't prohibit serving the debt. It merely prohibits any more borrowing."

We must immediately persuade the House Republican majority to say no to raising the debt limit – the only action that will force Washington to stop unsustainable spending.

Radio host Rush Limbaugh is warning that the Obama administration might continue to force implementation of its health-care law that was ruled unconstitutional yesterday, saying, "We have an increasingly lawless president."

"What you see is a lawless, statist mentality, in this case unconstitutional behavior if the regime does not comply with the court, plain and simple. ObamaCARE has been voided. It has been ruled unconstitutional."

Limbaugh said the Obama administration is "saying they'll continue to implement this law. ... For the gazillionth time, the judge did not say that they can continue to implement it while it's appealed."

"I think there is abject panic over this ruling," he continued. "This is the linchpin. This is the foundation of the new America. They were hoping to sneak in this ability [that] the federal government mandate people [buy insurance]."

"We do know that this regime violated and ignored a federal court order on their drilling moratorium in the Gulf of Mexico. So we have an increasingly lawless president," Limbaugh said.

Obama the Deceiver: SOU lies

We have reached the mid-point of the Obama Regime and heard this evening his second State of the Union address.

The substance was contradictory and insulting to the intelligence of the American People. Obama acknowledged the great debt our nation is under and the need to reduce our deficit. His plan to rectify that deficit is more of what he has been doing for the last two years, which has amounted to more than 3 Trillion dollars in our deficit, and that is increased spending. Only this time he is not calling for bailouts, or stimulus, it is now called "investment." By any definition what he is telling us is that he plans to spend even more of the American taxpayer's money, and Obama offered that if inovators come to the government with their ideas he will make it possible for them with free money.

Obama supports building more roadways and high speed rail. This sounded very much like the Trans-Texas Corridor of the Bush administration. He spoke of digital infrastructure where information on 98% of Americans would be available to government agents, for whatever purpose.

Obama also hinted at his desire for Amnesty for the children of illegals and the potential for educating them all the way through college as part of our future; again at a cost to the American taxpayer.

According to President Obama things are strong for our Union yet he talked of our Democracy multiple times never once acknowledging our Republic.

He spoke of the new rules he put into place to prevent another financial crises. How quickly we forget our own history. The central bank and the Federal Reserve were put into place to prevent financial crises and we ended up with the great depression - I shudder to think what we have in store for our future.

His plans to freeze the Annual Domestic Spending. He spoke of this "cut" as a necessary step to reduce the deficit. But a freeze is not a cut it is merely staying where you are. If you are driving a car and you are approaching a cliff you don't set the cruise control you hit the brakes. The Deceiver is on cruise control!

He spoke of the same old rhetoric that every President has uttered during hard times - streamline the government, tighter budgets, control the deficit, and this year he promised to really veto any bills that had earmarks in them. Perhaps saying that in his campaign really didn't count because he wasn't President then - I expect he really means it THIS time? Haaahaaaaahaa!

Finally Obama spoke of foreign affairs, ending the war in Iraq, and starting troop drawdowns in Afghanistan in July. Actually not a bad idea but, didn't he already promise to end the wars back in 2008-9?

Obama missed the mark of what the American people have been telling him since he took office. We do not want more government we want less. We remember his promise of openness, he lied. We do not want more spending we want less. We do not want more taxation we want less. All in all we want to be left alone.

Mr. Obama, who ever your are, if you are serious about wanting to control government spending and doing the right thing - let's start with these:

Discontinue all programs that do not fall under the powers of Article 1, Section 8 of the Constitution - Start with department of Education and Department of Energy and return them to the states

Cut the personal income tax from federal law and leave the money with the people who earned it.

Immediately remove all American military troops stationed overseas. We can defend any spot on the face of the earth, with pinpoint accuracy, from our war planes, ships, land based missile. We do not need a physical presence there.

Take those returned troops and place them on the border. 90% of all illegal traffic across the border would cease overnight. Your job is to protect our borders - now would be a good time to start. DONTCHATINK?

Phase out Social Security and return that to the rightful party - the individual. Cut off all Social Security withholding from paychecks for anyone above the poverty line and then only on a volunteer basis. Create an actual fund that Congress cannot touch to cover these payments. Within a generation the Social Security deficit would be solved.

Repeal all unconstitutional laws and return control over those items to the states where they rightfully belong - starting with the massive unConstitutional expansion of the interstate commerce clause and intrastate firearms manufacture and sales. Delete the DEA, TSA, and your BrownShirt Corps.

Move the government back toward a policy of sound money and return the responsibility of that currency to Congress by repealing the Federal Reserve Act.

In short, stop what you are doing and return our Republic back to the sound principles upon which it was founded.

MAKAALA, Hawaii! Governor Neil Abercrombie and his attorney general are filing amicus briefs in support of Obama health care law that was already ruled ultra vires, UNCONSTITUTIONAL, VOID!

In December, U.S. District Court Judge Henry E. Hudson struck down the individual mandate and all "directly dependent provisions". Hudson ruled that "despite the laudable intentions of Congress in enacting a comprehensive and transformative health care regime, the legislative process must operate within constitutional bounds."

Yep. Hell with the Constitutional right of the People to freedom of choice for health services is the apparent policy of Hawaii's governor and attorney general who are without our consent opposing a judge's ruling that the mandatory purchase requirement of the new healthcare law is unconstitutional. Abercrombie/Obama are enemies of the Constitutional limits on government.

Who is Barack Hussein Obama? He has not produced any proof that he is qualified to be President. Much evidence exists that Obama is an illegal alien born in Kenya. Radio host Christ Matthews said, "I don't understand why doesn't just say send me a copy right now ... let's get this crappy story dead."

Abercrombie later said a long form BC for Obama doesn't exist in Hawaii DOH records, and expressed concern that the controversy will be a major issue for Obama during his planned 2012 presidential re-election campaign.

SPEECH CODES in America? It's like something out of "1984."

In George Orwell's dystopia, "thought police" monitored citizens to make sure that they didn't disparage The Party. In today's world, college students all over the country face restrictions on speech in the form of "speech codes." These dicta include harassment policies, "free speech zones," "tolerance" policies and outright bans on "hate speech." The aim of these policies is noble -- to prevent discord and foster respect on campus -- but in the culture of political correctness run amok, such proscriptions often eclipse students' rights to express themselves freely.

Speech codes are regulations prohibiting speech that is otherwise protected by the First Amendment. They are pernicious on college campuses.

How are student bodies affected by this wave of political correctness? Is it helping campuses maintain civility or causing deeper harm?

Speech restrictions no longer have to be issued from on high. After being immersed in a culture that values political correctness over First Amendment rights for long enough, students are learning to censor each other with two words: "I'm offended."

Greg Lukianoff calls it "unlearning liberty." As the president of FIRE, he has watched students trend away from discussion and towards policing one another. In an interview with the website Spiked, he points out that students are learning to let offense trump discussion, ending conversation: "There's a very predictable result, which is that if you allow the ultimate trump card against free speech to be a claim that 'I'm offended,' then people learn very quickly to say they are offended." As Lukianoff notes, students learn to call on campus administration to quiet voices that they would rather not hear. What role will they expect the government to play in their lives after graduation?

Indeed, many students advocate speech codes today, a product of learning that they have a right not to be offended and that that right can be violated by someone else's thoughts. Campus policies such as "Stop Bias" are adding fuel to the fire. It asks students to find and report instances of bias anonymously (including bias surrounding "actual or perceived" marital status). The school's website even encourages students to report political differences as a form of bias, saying that Barack Obama or Sarah Palin can be listed as the "victims." This is not an example from Stalinist Russia, but Syracuse University. Such programs are ostensibly meant to create a safe space for discussion. But will encouraging students to police each other accomplish that goal?

Programs like these teach that the right response to offense is not debate, but censorship, and that it is appropriate to turn to university administrators to remedy the supposed harm. Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words can never hurt me -- until I get to college.

Dear Editor Molokai Advertiser-News: Stop the War

Thank you for your coverage of the debate on cutting federal spending. Many of our leaders agree that this action is necessary, yet much of the debate is focused on cuts to domestic programs. . In an era when our states are facing terrible financial problems, I hope that our representative and senators will take a hard look at Pentagon spending.

Former Secretary of State Colin Powell, who also is a former Chairman of the Pentagon's Joint Chiefs of Staff, and many members of Congress from both parties have said that cuts in Pentagon spending must be on the table to address the budget deficit. Last year, Reps. Barney Frank and Ron Paul got the signatures of more than 50 members of Congress on a letter supporting cuts to Pentagon spending. Credible proposals have been put forward to cut up to $1 trillion in Pentagon spending over the next decade.

I hope that our representative and senators will look seriously at these proposals. Sincerely, david bohn 808-621-6062

No Compromise with Evil ! Government Agents with Obama are Enemy #1

"What if the American government ever "goes bad" and becomes a police state? That tyrannical government, IF it could enlist the willing support of every American soldier and every American cop (which is thankfully doubtful), could field perhaps a total of 1.5 million armed personnel. These duped soldiers and cops would have to go to their jobs each day facing a bare minimum of 10 MILLION very, very motivated and angry armed American citizens. The other 55 million would sit on the fence waiting, with their guns, to see which way the tide was flowing.

Additionally, you must logically ask WHY the present government is so obsessively committed to "gun control". If our government has become so overpowering, so omnipotent, and it's a waste of our time to even imagine resisting tyranny, then why do "They" even worry about the citizens being armed?

And why did the political regimes that committed genocide though the history of the 20th Century, first REGISTER and then CONFISCATE firearms before marching unarmed masses off to killing fields? If an armed government is so omnipotent, why have so many armed governments gone to the effort and expense of gun confiscation?

The Turks did it to the Armenians. Lenin did it to Russians. Hitler did it to many Germans and all Jews. Stalin gave Russians a horrific double dose. And Mao, the world record holding mass murderer, did it to Red China."

Amidst all the hysterical screaming of leftist politicians, pundits, and the mind controlling Obama socialist media in the wake of the Tucson lunacy of Jared Loughner, it is easy to lose sight of the "elephant in the room".

The Second Amendment has nothing to do with "hunters' rights". It is not even to protect us from burglars, rapists, muggers, or even lunatics like Jared Loughner. These uses of a firearm for food or self defense are actually "spin offs" of the original intent of 2A.

An armed citizenry is a polite citizenry, this is true. However, an armed citizenry is the ONLY way to insure, to guarantee, that the potentially megalomaniacal egos of politicians, authoritarian police hierarchs (like Sheriff "Dimwit" Dupnik of AZ) and the military leadership are kept under a quiet, and yet very emphatic, restraint.

An armed citizenry whispers into the ears of every politician, soldier, and cop: "Steady there. Think again. Remember, if you get too far out of line, and come to enslave us, 'We the People' have retained the power to kill you."

After all, these tax consumers all blithely refer to themselves as "public servants" don't they? Then that makes "We the People" the masters, doesn't it?

Don't misread my words. All those hysterically added leftist mind manipulators out there secretly know this is true. They hate it. But they know it is true, even through the fog of their gun phobic mental illness. Read "Raging Against Self Defense".

If someone wants to accuse me of "hate speech" they'd better first begin by indicting, in absentia, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and virtually the entire cast of our Founders. I'm just an ordinary American who cherishes the liberty they created for me and my loved ones to enjoy. I, and millions of others, take this stuff very, very seriously.

A friend of mine once said it rather succinctly, right to the face of a 2A sympathetic police officer, a righteous and loyal American cop: "Obey the Constitution, and we won't shoot you."

The police officer was stunned...at first. And then he smiled and offered his hand to my friend. As these two patriotic Americans (my friend was a Marine Corp veteran) shook hands, the police officer said: "You got a deal."

Want to learn more about these outstanding American police officers and soldiers? Go to the "Oathkeepers" website.

In closing: Friends, if you don't own a gun, get one immediately (with at least 100 rounds of ammunition). Learn to use it well. And then pray that you never have to use it for the true reason our American Founders intended.

And one final suggestion: The more they tell us to "turn down the rhetoric", the louder we must become. History teaches that this approach, and nothing else, will preserve our freedom. We cannot compromise with evil.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”
Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."
 (Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

The Heavy Decision to Carry Your Gun for Self Defense

When you make the decision to carry a gun for personal defense, you must also come to terms with this fact: Your firearm may someday end the life of another person who is a serious threat to you or loved ones.

Though I've had a license to carry a concealed weapon for a number of years, I still remember my first training class as clearly as if it happened yesterday. Our two instructors were retired policemen, and one explained that during his almost 30 years in law enforcement he had been forced to use his weapon twice, with one incident resulting in the death of the individual who was shot. After he had finished telling us some of the details of that fatal shooting, our instructor made this statement to the class; "Kill another human being, for whatever reason or however justified, and your life as you know it is over forever."

When you make the decision to carry a gun for personal defense, you must also come to terms with this fact: Your firearm may someday end the life of another person. Since receiving my concealed carry permit, I have become acutely aware that I carry something capable of forever changing not only someone else's life but my own, and there are times when it is a burden that is tougher to carry than the gun itself. Before you ever make that decision to carry a weapon for self-defense, you must first make the commitment to use that weapon - with potentially deadly consequences - if it ever becomes necessary. If you cannot make the conscious decision to shoot one human being in defense of another's life, if you aren't 100% sure you have the will to use it if the time comes, then you should not be carrying a weapon!

Most of us carry a weapon not because it is vital to have it "just in case". With very few exceptions, the need to defend ourselves with deadly force is thrust upon us with almost no warning and with only moments to react. We are then required to make a life or death decision. If I am ever forced to use my gun against another person it will be because (1), my life or the life of an innocent bystander is in immediate danger and (2), another person has both the desire and the means to end my life or cause serious bodily harm, and I have no reasonable alternatives to prevent it other than the use of deadly force. This possibility, as remote as it may be, is the reason I own a firearm and carry it. It's why I practice regularly at my local gun range and train myself in self-defense.

Terrorism can come in the form of a crazed killer walking through a shopping mall or college campus randomly shooting anyone he encounters. It could also assume the face of the burglar who breaks into your homewho won't hesitate to take both your property and your life if it serves their purpose, often violently.

It's for those times that both my wife and I carry a gun. Like the Boy Scouts, we believe in being prepared. If the unthinkable does happen and we are someday placed in the position of using deadly force, I'm confident we have the train-

20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights! Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Health Center Worked Stopped Funding $$ Not Forthcoming?

If you have not already heard, the Molokai Community Health Center (MCHC) recently came to the difficult decision to shut down its renovation project at the former Pau Hana Inn. The decision came with many tears from the staff and community board. Especially sad is the loss of work for the construction workers and their families.

The MCHC needs your help. Please join the community in calling upon our new Governor to do what is right, to approve the immediate release of $1 million appropriated by the 2009 Legislature for the critical renovation project. (See below for how you can help).

Former Governor Lingle refused to do it, knowing very well that the success of the project hinged on the release of these funds in 2010... and a sound reason for the hold-up was never given.

The immediate release of these funds will put the project back on its feet, will put Molokai construction workers back to work, will help move our community toward a future of improved health care and wellness opportunities, and will show us Governor Abercrombie's true commitment to Molokai.

We humbly ask for your support. Here's what you can do:

Personalize and mail the attached letter to the Governor (please feel free to rewrite it to express your personal feelings). If possible, email the MCHC a copy of your letter as well (dpuhi@molokaichc.org) or drop a copy off at the MCHC. If you're up to it, you can also send copies to Rep. Mele Carrol, Senator Kalani English, and Danny Mateo.

You can also take your testimony and submit it to the Governor online at: <http://hawaii.gov/gov/contact/contact-gov>

And/Or... call the Governor's Office (808-586-0034) and ask him to "please save an important community project by releasing the Molokai Community Health Center GIA funds immediately."

Finally, please help spread the word and plan on attending a community rally on February 16th at Kulana O'iwi, 5:30pm-7:30pm.

Freedom Is NOT FREE

Where's the birth certificate? Abercrombie promised to show us Obama's BC...Make A!

Acknowledging that Barack Obama, Jr., has not produced a long-form, doctor-witnessed, birth certificate, Hawaii governor Neil Abercrombie recently said that he intends to produce and release Mr. Obama's long-form, hospital issued, birth certificate from Kapiolani Maternity & Gynecological Hospital. Governor Abercrombie added that he is upset, because several States are enacting legislation that will force Presidential candidates to document that they are eligible to run before their names can be placed on the ballot for the office of President of the United States.

Remember: there was a reason why Barack Hussein Obama has spent a reported $2 million to conceal the history of his identity. All that the American people want is the TRUTH, not $2 million in rhetoric, "spin," and legal "mumbo-jumbo."

Without his original birth certificate, the available evidence shows that Barack Obama cannot legally serve as President of the United States. That means that everything that he has signed--laws, nominations, Executive Orders--in the past two years is NULL AND VOID!

In fact, at the very least, the American people have a right to demand the truth, as the 1st Amendment to the Constitution of the United States guarantees us--We, The People--the right to address our grievances to the government of the United States. Thus far, our government officials have violated the Constitution by refusing to listen to that grievance... and require that Barack Hussein Obama produce the documentation that the United States Constitution requires of him.

Sadly, it appears that the federal court system will continue to shield the truth. The lawsuits filed by a myriad of plaintiffs, including those that USJF has filed, funded, or otherwise supported (6 in all), demanding that the government listen to our grievance in a court of law, have run into "judicial roadblocks" in every case. The United States Justice Foundation has filed legal brief after legal brief, funded suit after suit (6, so far, including two that we are currently handling), yet the federal government continues to stonewall us.

Please help us use Governor Abercrombie's faux pax get to the bottom of this issue. It is VERY possible that Mr. Obama is ILLEGALLY sitting as the "President" of the United States.

Three Unanswered Questions:

Was Barack Obama Born in Kenya?

Is He Really a Citizen of Indonesia?

Does the Constitution still Matter?

We the People

OBAMA IS A USURPER!

U.S. Constitution, Article II, Section 1, Clause 5 . . .

No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

DEFINITION

The natives, or natural-born citizens, are those born in the country, of parents [both] who are citizens.

Emer de Vattel, "The Law of Nations and Principles of Natural Law," Vol. 1, Chap. 19, Sec. 212

ILLEGAL!

"Citizen" of the U.S. if he was physically born in Hawaii, not born elsewhere and falsely registered as born there after the fact.

At birth, Barack Obama acquired dual citizenship through his British non-U.S. citizen father. Our Founders excluded dual citizens from eligibility to the Presidency for national security reasons. Every military order Barack Obama gives as Commander-in-Chief, every bill he signs into law, and every executive decision he makes while unconstitutionally seated in the Office of President, are unconstitutional, and hence illegal. Obama is NOT a "natural born Citizen" of the USA. The U.S. Courts and Congress MUST address the merits of the charges for this constitutional issue, and constitutionally remove Barack Obama in order to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States. This is their sworn Oath to the Constitution and to the American people.
