Army Troops To Be Domestic PoliceFORCE: TREASON

Army Times (dated Tuesday, September 30, 2008), starting Oct. 1, 2008, the 1st Brigade Combat Team's mission is to be an on-call federal response force to be used domestically against Americans in America. The Army brigade will be called upon to help with civil unrest and crowd control, traffic control, as well as subduing so called "unruly or dangerous individuals." The Army brigade will be known as a Consequence Management Response Force, or CCMRF ("sea-smurf").

This is the first time an active unit has been given a dedicated domestic assignment to provide command and control for federal homeland defense efforts and civilian control outside of War; and, it is TREASON to assign domestic police duties to the U.S. military, violates the Posse Comitatus Act and the Insurrection Act, and is ultra vires to the Constitution for the united States of America. This turn of events, likely related to the current economic meltdown and expected civil unrest, is extremely disturbing and a threat to our freedom, our Republic.

Chuck Baldwin, candidate for President from the Constitution Party, wrote that "To understand my concern for this new "homeland Army brigade," it is important that we rehearse the principles of liberty as they relate to standing armies. One of America's most sacred principles has always been that the U.S. military was never to be used for domestic law enforcement. The fear of standing armies ran very deep in the hearts and minds of America's founders. The tyranny and misery inflicted upon the colonies by British troops weighed heavily upon those who drafted our Constitution and Bill of Rights. In their minds, the American people would never again be subjected to the heavy weight of army boots. Furthermore, they insisted that America would have a civilian--not military--government. And after the fiasco of the abuse of federal troops in the South following the War Between the States, the doctrine of Posse Comitatus was enacted into law."

The Posse Comitatus Act prohibits members of the federal uniformed services from exercising state law enforcement police or peace officer powers that maintain 'law and order' on non-federal property. The statute generally prohibits federal military personnel and units of the United States National Guard under federal authority from acting in a law enforcement capacity within the United States, except where expressly authorized by the Constitution or Congress.

The Posse Comitatus Act and the Insurrection Act substantially limit the powers of the federal government to use the military for law enforcement. The Posse Comitatus Act was passed in 1878 and is universally accepted as being a very just--and extremely important--law of the land, to protect freedom and liberty.

Congress renewed the restrictions of the Posse Comitatus Act when it passed the 2008 National Defense Authorization Act against the wishes of Pres. Bush. When President Bush signed the Act into law, he attached an Executive Order against the restrictions of the Posse Comitatus/NDA Act 2008.

Now, just a few months later, President Bush has authorized an Army brigade under his command that is assigned the new role of dealing exclusively with domestic law enforcement and related duties against American Citizens. [Does anyone remember those big empty prison camps Bush created past few years?]

Congress Votes NO Bailout!

For once, Hawaii's Democrat/Socialist Party congress Reps. Mazi Hirono and Neil Abercrombie did the right thing: they voted NO on the $700 Billion bailout for WallStreet banksters, inspite of the fact that the Hawaii State pension plan serving state and county workers has lost about $600 million in assets in just two weeks as stocks have plummeted. Maybe they finally learned what our Founding Fathers warned about banksters? "I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around [the banks] will deprive the people of all property until their children wake-up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered." Thomas Jefferson

Monday, September 29 marked a day that will go down in history, when Congressional Democrats and Republicans alike took on full responsibility to protect the interests of taxpaying Americans, and defeated the deceptive bail out bill, defying the dictates of the Administration, the House Majority Leadership, the House Minority Leadership and the special interests on Wall Street.

Unfortunately, Senators Inouye and Akaka will likely vote for a bailout for WallStreet today, but it won't solve the problem or help the average people. We are told that we must stabilize the WallStree markets in order for the people to be protected. That is false. I think we need to protect average peoples' homes, bank deposits, investments, and pensions, in order to stabilize the market.

The $700 billion bailout would have added to our existing unbearable load of national debt, trade deficits, and the cost of paying for the war. It would have been a disaster for the American public and the government for decades and maybe even centuries to come. The legislation did not regard in any meaningful way the plight of millions of Americans who are about to lose their homes. It did nothing to strengthen existing regulatory structures or impose new ones at the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Reserve in order to protect investors. There were no direct protections for bank depositors. There was nothing to stop further speculation, which is what brought us into this mess in the first place.

Here is a very quick explanation of the $700 billion bailout within the context of the mechanics of our corrupt and unsustainable monetary and banking system:

Under the failed $700 billion bailout plan, Wall Street's PROFITS are Wall Street's profits, and Wall Street's LOSSES are the TAXPAYER'S LOSSES.

But another way: Profits are capitalized. Losses are socialized by democracy. Spread the message: NO BAILOUT; GO DIRECTLY TO PRISON!

When the people own the real gold and silver money, they control the government. When the government owns the money as paper, it controls the people.

Waialua Beach Access or Naehu/Simms' Private Land?

report by George Peabody for The MAN

For more than 30 years, this little piece of highway shoulder land has been used by fishermen as a Waialua Beach access where two cars can park parallel to highway while diving, fishing, beach recreation. But can a public beach access be private property that can be posted and public excluded?

Yes. In this case, this small triangle of land with the new removable fence posts in the photo above is the parcel used as a Waialua Beach access, tmk# 5703-40 owned by the Arthur Naehu T/E, and now being posted by grandson Simms. Often the fence posts are removed so the parking area is open from the highway. Simms is also building a rock wall on the makai side of the property, and there are a lot of kiawe tree cuttings dumped toward the public beach below his rock wall.

At first, confusion reigned when the Maui County RPT office could not locate this speck of land on their tax maps, but the next day found it and Dawn Matney sent this message: "Our records show parcel 5703-40 as 0.29 ac, as shown on the map, owners Naehu." Based on that, it appears this Waialua public beach access is allowed by Naehu's permission, or access can be denied by Naehu et al.

The recorded size of this land [0.29 ac=12760 sq.ft.] is obviously erroneous, though it may have measured that much sometime before the highway was built.

The investigation started after someone broke part of the cemented rock wall next to the boundary marker near highway, but Simms said it fell down by itself.

State Water Commission Met on Maui, but Molokai Streams Need restoring too

The State Commission on Water Resource Management held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, September 24, 2008, in Ha'iku, Maui, to hear community' recommendations on eight east Maui instream flow standard petitions for: Honopou; Hanehoi and Puolua (Huelo); Pi'ina'au; Palauhulu; Waiokamilo; Kualani; Waikani; and East and West Wailuanui.

The Commission has the responsibility of establishing instream flow standards to protect the public interest in streams statewide, so Molokai residents can start calling for a Molokai meeting to restore our streams being robbed by Molokai Ranch's surface water collection system.

Instream flow standards are essentially the amount of water required to flow in a stream for the protection of native fish and wildlife, recreation, scenic views, and other beneficial stream values which are being violated with MPL taking so much water for their residential/hotel developments at Kaluakoi. The Commission must also balance these instream uses with non-instream uses, such as water for drinking and home use, cultivation of taro, and agriculture.

The streams on Maui that under consideration have been diverted by East Maui Irrigation Company for more than 100 years to provide water for sugar in the central Maui plains, and recently to Upcountry Maui residents for domestic use and to farmers in the Kula Agricultural Park.

Commission staff will present their findings and recommendations at the upcoming meeting. This process is a considerable improvement from previous efforts, and is the first time that such measurable standards have been developed outside of a contested case hearing. "The process we've applied in east Maui provides a framework to consistently and transparently assess and balance competing stream uses," he said.

Anyone with special concerns about water on Molokai should call (808) 587-0214 or toll free from Maui 984-2400 ext. 70214 to give your mana'o for a Molokai meeting on our streams and water situation. Also, visit the Commission's website at <http://hawaii.gov/dlnr/cwrm>.

State Thrill Craft Rules Prohibit Operations around Molokai and Lanai

Jetski aka Thrillcraft rules enforced by DLNR are being called unclear by operators on Molokai who have recently been informed that their jetski operations are prohibited on Molokai and Lanai by the Ocean Recreation Management Area [ORMA] laws. The ORMA areas are ALL ocean waters out to 3000 feet from shore, within which some specific areas are assigned for jetskis/thrill craft.

But most large ORMA areas have NOT been assigned a specific recreational use such as jet skis operations, therefore jetskis are NOT prohibited providing they operate at least 500 feet from shore or outside reef areas whichever is greater distance from shore, or outside of the ORMA area completely.

Molokai and Lanai ORMA waters out to 3000 feet from shore and between the islands carry a total prohibition on all jet ski/thrillcraft operations. Hmm, seems simple to understand.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Dictator Bush Commands Federal Troops vs America

President Bush issued a treasonous Executive Order against the restrictions of the Posse Comitatus/NDA Act of 2008, and now has assigned federal Army troops to deploy against American Citizens in civil domestic law enforcement.

It is plain and simply TREASOUS!

What will the rules of engagement be? Remember WACO, 1993? Who will be considered "unruly" and "dangerous" then targeted by Bush's Consequence Management Response Force, or CCMRF army ? Is this martial law?

For several years, the federal government has been usurping more powers and authority that Constitutionally belong to the states and local communities. And, our police departments have taken on the image and tactics of the armed forces, and conspiring with FBI, CIA, etc [Where is Cap. Jody Sinksank now? Training at the FBI on east coast!]. The rights and liberties of the American people are being sacrificed on the altar of "national security."

To assign civil law enforcement duties to the U.S. Army is TREASON, and it proves that America is fast approaching police state status instead of a free republic, land of the free and home of the brave. If Hurricane Katrina is the template that our federal government is using as a model for future events, Heaven help us! Do readers remember how National Guard troops were used to confiscate the personal firearms of isolated and vulnerable civilians shortly after that hurricane devastated the New Orleans area? Do you remember how representatives of the federal government were calling upon pastors and ministers to act as spokesmen for gun confiscation?

Is this what the new Army brigade is preparing for? Does President Bush and his military planners envision an even broader role for military troops on American soil? Does anyone remember those big empty prison camps Bush created past few years? And, for what are the thousands of plastic caskets--along with thousands of portable prison cells--being shipped and stored across the country? Exactly what is it dictator Bush and his troops planning?

What exactly will members of our armed forces do if and when they are commanded to seize Americans' firearms, arrest us at gun point, or even fire upon us? How many soldiers and Marines love liberty and constitutional government enough to resist such orders? And how many officers would resist issuing such orders? Past studies evidence they will follow orders to kill us.

Remember, it is the job of the armed forces to kill people and blow up things, not to do police work. Then again, Presidential administrations from both major parties have been using the U.S. military as U.N. "peacekeepers" for decades now. So, was all of this preparation for what is yet to take place in the United States, e.g., a War on Americans by U.S. Army soliders ?

God forbid that any of the above should actually take place in our beloved land, but I believe it would be naïve to not see that the actions and attitudes of the Bush regime and too powerful federal government employees over the past several years do nothing to assuage such fears. Lock and Load ! Makaala !!

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

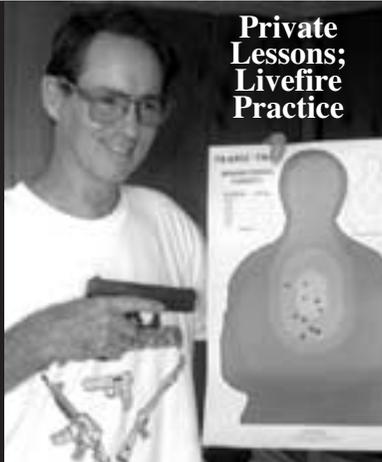

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Chuck Baldwin for President The Constitution Party's Candidate

Chuck Baldwin is a candidate for President of the United States on the Constitution Party ticket. His official campaign web site is located at: <http://www.baldwin08.com/>

"As President, I will enforce Constitution-based sound money policies. I would seek to eliminate the Internal Revenue Service, and disband the Federal Reserve. I would lead the charge to return America to sound money principles. I would seek to reduce federal spending to constitutional levels by eliminating the Departments of Education, Commerce, Energy. I would demand that Congress pass a balanced budget and that we stop deficit spending."

Neither John McCain nor Barack Obama will do any of the above.

Chuck Baldwin has a blueprint for America's survival as a free and independent republic that the Constitution for the united States of America was designed to perpetuate in order to insure the blessings of liberty to all American Citizens regardless of race or creed. [Note: Everybody in our constitutional republic is an equal Citizen with authority to exercise the law, rather than just obey a dictator's military. ALL CITIZENS are Civil Officers and a constituent element of the state having equal right to administration of affairs of government; Sovereign Citizens self-govern.]

Why haven't you heard of Presidential candidate Chuck Baldwin? The national sycophant media won't mention Chuck Baldwin, Constitution Party.

However, if you support the constitutional Republic of the united States of America, you CAN vote for US Presidential candidate Chuck Baldwin of the Constitution Party, the only real conservative candidate for the presidency. Baldwin understands and supports the limitations on the powers of government servants defined in the Constitution for the united States of America. Lets save the Republic from socialists and fascists and traitors Obama/McCain.

"Because I take my oath to the Constitution for the united States of America seriously, I would never send troops to invade and occupy a foreign country without a Declaration of War by Congress. In dealing with rogue terrorist organizations such as al Qaeda, I will seek letters of Marque and Reprisal from Congress, which would give me the authority to use whatever special and/or private forces are necessary to seek out and destroy those who desire our hurt."

I also share Dr. Ron Paul's commitment to the sanctity of life.

I know my Vice Presidential running mate, Darrell Castle (a former Marine Corps officer and Vietnam veteran), joins me in inviting all of Dr. Paul's supporters to help us take the message of constitutional government into the general election on November 4. "

Thank you.
