School Kids Investigate Water

Learning about the water and local environment by Kaunakakai School fifth and sixth graders during a field trip to Waialua Stream last week actually seemed to be important enough that being at the beach was not a distraction from measuring dissolved oxygen levels in the stream, noting turbidity, and discovering the dynamic environment, flora and fauna of the estuary where ocean and freshwater stream meet.

Photos below show students sampling water and making notes of their finds, as teacher David Gonzalez and Clint and assistants direct the experiments. Water contained oxygen level measured at 22, much higher than expected says one student, while others learned to use other scientific instruments to measure quality and quantity of the water resources here.

Waialua beach resident George Peabody visited with them and described how the natural sand bar builds up across the Waialua river mouth and serves as an effective filter of silt, mud, and human waste rubbish from entering the ocean. Unfortunately the sand bar also causes flooding of some properties mauka of the estuary when heavy rains cause too much water to overflow the stream and wash out the sand bar. When that happens, the coral reefs get polluted with silt and mud that kills the coral that is important fishing habitat, he said.

Supreme Court says Navy Can Blast Sonar at Whales

Paul Achitoff, Earthjustice, 808-599-2436

A Supreme Court ruling today regarding harm to whales and other marine mammals caused by the US Navy's use of mid-frequency active sonar off the California coast will have no immediate affect on a similar Earthjustice effort to protect whales in Hawai'i. The high court struck down two of six mitigation measures imposed by a California federal district court intended to protect whales and dolphins from the harmful affects of mid-frequency sonar during Navy training exercises. The Navy uses the sonar to detect submarines.

The Court's ruling is narrowly tailored to the specifics of the California case and affects only certain provisions of the district court's injunction. A preliminary injunction issued by federal district judge David A. Ezra in Hawai'i earlier this year forcing the Navy to take protective steps in the use of sonar there has successfully provided protection for whales, and likely will continue to do so notwithstanding the Supreme Court's decision.

The US Navy blasts the sonar at extremely loud volumes underwater. This has been closely associated with the deaths of marine mammals, and in particular, beaked whales, at locations throughout the world. These animals use sound waves to locate food, detect food and predators, and communicate with others of their species. Exposure to extremely loud sonar appears to cause deep-diving beaked whales in particular to ascend too rapidly, resulting in a condition similar to the "bends" that has been fatal.

There have been many cases of whales washing ashore dead in areas where US Navy sonar exercises have been conducted, and both the National Marine Fisheries Service and the Navy have acknowledged that mid-frequency sonar can contribute to these incidents, such as one in 2000 when at least 16 whales died in the Bahamas. A beaked whale washed up and died on a Moloka'i beach during Navy sonar exercises in July 2008, and the government found sonar to be a "plausible, if not likely" contributor to the embayment of some 200 melon-headed whales near Kaua'i during 2004 exercises, after which a juvenile whale died. The Navy acknowledged that the California exercises could cause permanent injury to some 500 beaked whales and temporary deafness to at least 8,000 whales. The two provisions of the California court's preliminary injunction the high court struck down were one requiring sonar to be shut down if a marine mammal were sited within 2,200 yards during sonar transmission, and another requiring the Navy to reduce the sonar level during an oceanographic condition known as surface ducting, when sound travels farther under water

What will Barack Hussein Obama do about What Happened on 9-11-01?

On September 11, 2001, we Americans were the victims of TREASON.
By September 12, we Americans all became the suspects watched by FBI.
Not one single U.S. citizen hijacked a plane, yet President Bush and DOJ, through powers seized and codified in the fascist USA PATRIOT Act, labeled 270 million of us for surveillance, for searches, for tracking, for prison without charges. Welcome to the New World Order! Police State USA!
So, what will Obama do to restor freedom if he is elected President?

Molokai's Forum For Freedom

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Cross Dominant Shooters

10% of the Gun Owning Population are Cross Dominant in vision. But many don't know it. Cross dominance is when your dominant eye and dominant hand are not on the same side of your body, i.e., you are right handed, but left eye dominant, or left handed and right eye dominant.

Once diagnosed, it is very easy to work around with proper training techniques. Unfortunately, many people who are cross dominant, have never been made aware of it and get frustrated in their inability to shoot accurately.

Here is an easy diagnostic test to determine your dominant eye and what to do if you are among the 10% who are cross dominant...

You already know your dominant hand. It is the one you write with, throw a ball with, hit a baseball with. Here is how to determine your dominant eye:

1. Punch a pencil through the center of an 8 x 11 inch sheet of paper.
2. Hold the paper with both hands at arms length.
3. Keeping both eyes open, look through the small hole at a specific object across the room, then, keeping both eyes looking at that object through the small hole, slowly bring the paper back to your face.
4. When the paper touches your face, the hole will be centered over your dominant eye.

If your dominant eye is the same as your dominant hand, then you are like 90% of the other gun owners in this country. However, if your dominant eye is opposite of your dominant hand, then you are Cross Dominant and will need to make some decisions before embarking on serious gun training.

So here is what you do:

With a long gun: Shoot with your dominant hand and keeping both eyes open until that fraction of a second when you need to shift the focus on your eye to the front sight, then simply close your dominant eye. Your non-dominant eye is now the dominant image forcing your brain to use the non-dominant eye to focus on the front sight.

With a handgun: You can use the same technique or simply tip your head a bit and focus on the front sight with your dominant eye.

Those two techniques above are the easiest fix for Cross Dominance.

In my particular case, when I started gun training, I chose to train with my non-dominant hand (right hand) using my dominant eye (right eye). So even though I write left handed and throw left handed, I shoot right handed because of my dominant right eye. Of course it was more difficult initially, but like with anything you practice, I became very good with my non-dominant hand. It also made me naturally good with a gun in my left hand, but that is another story.

Now we must protect our 2nd Amendment: Barack Obama, with his career of supporting every gun control scheme he's ever encountered, would be the most anti-gun president in American history if he can prove he is a natural born American Citizen as required by Constitution for the united States of America.

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Guns Preserve YOUR Sovereignty:

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Molokai High School News

Board of Education Meeting on Molokai hosted by Mary Cochran, Maggie Cox and Herbert Watanabe, on Monday, November 17, 2008 at Kaunakakai Elementary School, from 5pm to 7pm.

This is a town-hall style public meeting without a fixed agenda. The purpose of the meeting is to receive public questions and input on any subject affecting public libraries and public schools.

Course Registration for the 2009-2010 School Year

Molokai High School students will be registering for courses for school year 2009-2010 from October 20, 2008 through November 14, 2008. Registration packets will be distributed to students on October 16, 2008. Parents, please discuss schedule possibilities with your child. The registration packet will also be posted on the Molokai High School website at www.molokai.k12.hi.us. Any questions regarding registration can be directed to Julia De George at 567-6950, ext 229.

MHS Accreditation in February 2009 Three years ago, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) visiting team identified some areas to concentrate on for overall school improvement. To address these issues, the staff conducts a self-study using the "Focus on Learning" approach. All of the school stakeholders are included in this process by participating in focus groups and providing input. Molokai High School has been working diligently to make the recommended changes and soon, it will be time to share this progress with the WASC visitors.

REMINDER: Juniors should sign up for the December SAT and ACT.

Obama's Anti-Gun Rights Record Exposed, Citizenship Challenged

<http://www.goapvf.org>

The presidential election is over and Barack Hussein Obama got the most votes, so now the Electoral College will decide if he will become President of USA. Members have a duty to determine if a candidate is qualified. Several legal challenges to Obama's citizenship status, but rejected because there are procedures available under the 12th and 20th Amendments to the Constitution to challenge a candidate's qualifications when electoral votes are counted, not before. "Judicial review — if any — should occur only after the electoral and congressional processes have run their course.

Limiting self-defense, Obama voted to allow the prosecution of people who used a firearm for self-defense in their homes. (Illinois Senate, S.B. 2165, 3/25/04)

Senator Barack Obama refused to sign the brief supporting an individual Second Amendment right in the Heller case.

Obama against Right-to-Carry. (Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, 4/2/08; Chicago Tribune, 9/15/04)

Ammunition ban supporter. Obama voted to ban almost all rifle ammunition commonly used for hunting and sport shooting. (United States Senate, S. 397, vote 217, 7/29/05)

The Brady Campaign Hoping For Expanded "Assault Weapons" Ban Under An Obama Administration: With the prospect of Sen. Barack Obama being elected President, the Brady Campaign is trying to rejuvenate a ban on all detachable-magazine semi-automatic firearms, a vast expansion of the federal "assault weapon" law of 1994--2004. As Brady notes in a new propaganda paper, "Senator Barack Obama supports banning assault weapons."
