Fascist Government Charges Man and Woman For Refusing to Show Your Papers!

Anyone astute enough to be reading this paper is well aware that a police state is being erected right in front of their eyes: it is a repeat of Nazi Germany under Hitler.

Two more clear examples: John Gilmore, a sovereign American Citizen, refused to show I.D. at the Oakland International Airport even though he already had his travel ticket in hand. He asked to see the law that requires him to "show his papers" and was told by Airport Security forces that the law was secret, and no he would not be allowed to read it. Gilmore was not allowed to board his flight, and now he sees the critical need to protect and defend the Bill of Rights in our Constitution for USA.

On December 8th, 2005, oral arguments in Gilmore v. Gonzales will be heard before the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals. At stake is nothing less than the right of Americans to travel anonymously in their own country -- and the exposure of 'secret law' for what it is: nothing more than an abomination, no law at all.

Deborah Davis [photo above], has a son fighting for freedom in Iraq, and he is also a grandmother of 5. On Sept. 26, she was reading a book while riding to work on a public bus in Colorado. When her bus stopped outside the gates of the Denver Federal Center in Lakewood, Colorado, a guard climbed aboard the bus and demanded that all the passengers produce identification. Several things bothered her about the ID checks. She wasn't entering a federal building or even leaving the bus. The officers barely glanced at the passengers' ID cards and didn't check them against a master list. The whole exercise struck her as "just Big Brother watching you," she said. Mrs. Davis refused: "I told him that I did have identification, but I wasn't going to show it to him. I knew that I wasn't required by law to show ID and that's why I decided I wasn't going to. The whole thing seemed to be more about compliance than security. One of them asked me if I had my ID with me, and I said, 'Yes.'. Then he asked me if he could see it and I said, 'No. One of them grabbed my cell phone and threw it to the back of the bus," she said. "The next thing I knew, two big policemen jerked me out of my seat, handcuffed me and threw me in the back of the police car by Federal Protective Services officers," she recalled. Now, she faces a maximum of 60 days in jail at her hearing Dec. 9 in U.S. District Court.

These fascist-stooge guards obviously have no understanding of the Bill of Rights Mrs. Davis' son is in Iraq fighting Bush's war, while his mother is being subjected to the same treatment as those who died under Hitler's Nazi regime.

Open your eyes America. Mrs. Davis was on a public bus, she was not on federal property. This guard had no right to demand any American produce papers of any kind whether they are riding a bus or walking. YOU maybe NEXT!

Furthermore, under the Constitution for the United States of America, Congress has the power to make criminal only four types of conduct: treason, piracies and felonies on the high seas, counterfeiting, and offenses against the laws of nations. Just because Congress has been getting away with passing a zillion laws with all kinds of "offenses" does NOT make it legal. They have only gotten away with it because the American people have refused to hold their elected public servants accountable.

Could the above happen if we had a Bill of Rights culture?

"A bill of rights is what the people are entitled to against every government on earth, general or particular; and what no just government should refuse, or rest on inferences." --Thomas Jefferson to James Madison, 1787.

Celebrate Your Sovereignty December 15 ----- Bill of Rights Ratified December 15, 1791

The "Bill of Rights" are the first ten amendments to the Constitution for the United States of America.

"A bill of rights is what the people are entitled to against every government on earth, general or particular; and what no just government should refuse, or rest on inferences." --Thomas Jefferson to James Madison, 1787

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment II

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Amendment III

No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Amendment IV

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment VI

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

Amendment VII

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise reexamined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment VIII

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Amendment IX

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Amendment X

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

Don't show your SOCIAL SECURITY # ?

The ONLY time that it is "required" by law to show or provide your private Social Security number, is when you are dealing directly with the Social Security Administration (SSA) in regard to your private SSA records. The rest: buzzoff!

You do not have to give your number to anybody outside of the SSA and if someone demands that you use it or "tries" to compel you to use your number on some form, then show them a copy of this federal law and demand they fully comply:

US Code Title 42, Section 408

(a) In general Whoever -

(8) discloses, uses, or compels the disclosure of the social security number of any person in violation of the laws of the United States; shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be fined under title 18 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

Constitution Proscribes Licenses

The Constitution essentially proscribes all license laws with: "No state shall pass any law impairing the obligations of contracts", [see Art. 1, Sec. 10 of the Constitution for the United States of America]

Do we uphold and enforce the U.S. Constitution or don't we?

Free, sovereign people don't have license laws as their master.

Art.1, Section 10 determines who is master and who is servant, depending if it is upheld by The People, or ignored. It's been ignored far too long.

You Can Protect Freedom: Question Authority!

"Where Rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them."

Do you need a loan?

If you are searching for the best home equity loan, ask these three questions:
1) Will you guarantee the lowest rate in writing? We promise the lowest in writing. We won't merely match your lowest rate. If we can't heat it-even after you've gone through the entire loan process with us- we will pay you $250 just for applying with us.
2) Will my interest rate increase, if I have a low credit score? To other loan companies, you are just a faceless credit score. The lower your score, the higher your interest rates. At Honey Mae Home Loans, we don't let a computer tell us what to do. We can give you a loan when others say no even if you have a low credit score.
3) What are the chances my loan will be approved? We approve 6 out of 7 applications. And some of these people have credit scores below 530. We can give you a quote over the phone, in complete privacy, without obligation-no matter your financial situation.

Ho'okena Treasure II: "Lei Pulamahia"

Lei Pulamahia represents treasured songs that Ho'okena has recorded over the years. Whether for places, people, events or emotions, these musical "lei" are worn with pride and shared with much aloha. As they approach their 20th anniversary in 2006, this release in October marks a decade-and-a-half since their debut recording, "Thirst Quencher." Ho'okena, a district in South Kona, means "to satisfy thirst."

This re-mix of Ho'okena standards and originals breathes new life into mele considered favorites by group members. Featured originals by Manu Boyd, Horace Dudoit, Anuenue Punua,

Kihe de Silva, as well as classics by Keliana Bishaw, Henry Waia'u a and Lot Kauwe. Guest artists are Maila Gibson-"The Prayer" and Robert Cazimero- "Aloha Honaunau."

Group members are Manu Boyd (leader), Horace K. Dudoit, III, Chris Kamaka and Glen K.K. Smith. Group members put full-time effort into their music and recording business, but each has his own career outside of the group.

On the cover, Nani Dudoit-hula stylist and wife of Horace-wears strands of her favorite pikake. Nani has been a part of Ho'okena from day one, and is a former dancer with the Brothers Cazimero at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Her unequalled hula performances, elegant demeanor and support are a treasure to the group.

Ho'olohe mai i ka nahenahe o na mele o ko kakou 'aina nui 'ia Hawai'i nei. He lei pulamahia no ia no kakou a pau e lei mau ai. Listen to the gentle sounds of songs from this beloved land, Hawai'i. They are like treasured lei for us all to wear always...

Lei Pulamahia is exclusively distributed by Mountain Apple Company.

"We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God." —James Madison

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:

"A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor." (Decl. of Indep.)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

The Government Hoax

Written by Marc Stevens

The government hoax is probably the oldest, most pervasive and stubborn of hoaxes. It's the belief in non-existent "states" and "nations" and that "government" is both legitimate and necessary. In the geographic area of the North American continent commonly referred to as the "United States," it's claimed only "government" can provide the service of protecting "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness." This is nonsense if only for the reason "government" has no duty to protect anyone and their property.

Another reason is: no service or product should be provided at the barrel of a gun. It's that simple. There are no exceptions unless one believes people have no rights. If one believes people have no rights then "government" is not "necessary" to "protect" what doesn't exist. If you believe people have rights, then you don't "protect" them without their freely given consent. Also, protection is not submission to the violent unaccountable control of another nor is violent domination a legitimate method of doing business. Would you hire people who don't acknowledge you have property, to protect your property? Americans have been duped: "The ultimate ownership of all property is in the State; individual so-called "ownership" is only by virtue of Government, i.e., law, amounting to mere user; and that use must be in accordance with law and subordinate to the necessities of the State." Senate Resolution #62, April 1933.

What exactly is "government?" Have you ever seen a "government?"

While there are varying degrees, "government" is one man violently controlling the life and property of another man. In some places this violent control is "decreed" to be for the latter's "own good" and "protection" and hailed as the "best system in the world." Because it's based on violence, there are no "states" or "nations," "states" being "voluntary associations." You may recognize that violent control over a man's life and property is what we like to call slavery. Slavery is a form of "government," and in most cases, if not all, synonymous with "government." Govern means control, not protect. Notice that the word "protect" is mysteriously NOT included in any definitions of govern!

"govern. To direct and control; to regulate; to influence; to restrain; to manage. State v Ream, 16 Neb 681, 683." Ballentine's Law Dictionary, page 530.

In "democracies" and so-called "democratic republics," slaves are given the false choice of choosing new masters. The old plantations can be seen as "political subdivisions" such as "cities," only smaller: "nations" have "presidents," "states" have "governors," "counties" have "commissioners," "cities" have "mayors" and plantations have masters.

"Government" has become a group of men and women providing the service of enhancing "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness" at the barrel of a gun. We have no choice in accepting and paying for their wonderful services. Their services are so valuable we're compelled to accept and pay for them. And, we are called extremists?

To keep this short, I'll use statements from politicians themselves i.e., their sacred "law" that's worshipped, revered and most important, feared. Compare the following:

"tax. A forced burden, charge, exaction, imposition or contribution assessed in accordance with some reasonable rule of apportionment by authority of a sovereign state upon the persons or property within its jurisdiction to provide for public revenue for the support of the government, the administration of the law, or the payment of public expenses. 51 AmJ1st Tax § 3." Ballentine's Law Dictionary, page 1255.

"The organized use of threats, coercion, intimidation, and violence to compel the payment for actual or alleged services of arbitrary or excessive charges under the guise of membership dues, protection fees, royalties, or service rates. United States v McGlone (DC Pa) 19 F Supp 285, 286." Ballentine's Law Dictionary, page 1051.

The first is a "kinder, gentler" way of describing the second. Both are accurate descriptions of how men and women pretending to be "government" operate. I like the second one because it's actually the definition of "racketeer."

The government hoax is that "government," a racket, is legitimate and necessary. That's absurd. Maybe if you believe a service should be provided at the barrel of a gun then yes, you'd think "government" is legitimate and necessary.

The government hoax is exposed with nothing more than no service or product should be provided at the barrel of a gun. If the service men and women doing business as a pretended "state" is so valuable, then people will voluntarily accept and pay.

Some attack this saying, "What's the alternative?!" That's easy: Anything done under the guise of consent can be done by consent.

Men and women pretending to be "government" only have to do one thing differently: provide their services on a voluntary basis like everybody else.

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." Thomas Jefferson

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man. Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !
