12-14-08: US President Bush "Shoed" in Baghdad by Reporter

U.S. President George W. Bush is known worldwide and specially in the Middle East as the main 9/11/01 Collaborator and the instigator of the unprovoked U.S. military attacks in Afghanistan and Baghdad starting the Iraq War that has resulted in the deaths of at least 150,000 Iraqi civilians and the destruction of the historical center of advanced knowledge of the world, their economy, agriculture, security, educational and medical facilities, under the false pretense of regime change, WMD's, democracy, and US security. [Its about control of oil for USD.]

Now, it is no surprise that, finally, U.S. President G.W. Bush was delivered the gravest insult of the realm by an Iraqi reporter: Muntazer Al-Zaidi threw his shoes at Bush during his unannounced trip [shrouded in secrecy] lame duck and final farewell press conference in Baghdad.

As Iraq Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki looked on, Bush ducked both shoes, ignored his unpopularity and insisted that his "military surge" of increased U.S. troops had put Iraq on the road to peace and progress.

Stop War on Drugs

Every day that goes by, 4,000 people are arrested for drug offenses, the vast majority of them minor, and half a million nonviolent drug offenders languish in the staggering number of prisons and jails the fascist Police State American government has very unwisely built.

It's time to stop this senseless tragedy and shocking injustice.
Stop the drug war -- visit <http://stopthedrugwar.org/donate> to donate to StoptheDrugWar.org today. Thank you!

What will Barack Hussein Obama do about What Happened on 9-11-01?

On September 11, 2001, we Americans were the victims of TREASON. By September 12, we Americans all became the suspects watched by FBI. Not one single U.S. citizen hijacked a plane, yet President Bush and DOJ, through powers seized and codified in the fascist USA PATRIOT Act, labeled 270 million of us for surveillance, for searches, for tracking, for prison without charges. Welcome to the New World Order! Police State USA!

So, what will Obama do to restor freedom if he is elected President?

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Obama's "Change" = Communism

Whether by revolution or by passive resistance, the only thing that has ever reduced oppression is a bunch of people refusing to do what "authority" told them to do.

When Obama paints the picture of hope, love, and happiness for all, how do they propose getting there? If merely WANTING those things would make them happen, they would have happened centuries ago. So what is the mechanism through which Mr. Obama proposes to achieve such things?

How do supporters of Barack Obama answer those questions? They don't want to hear it, and so will shut their eyes and ears, when someone breaks the news to them: Mr. Obama's proposed "change" is not unique; it is not new; and most importantly, it always results-- every single time--in increased suffering and destruction. Obama's "change" is decorated with rainbows and sunshine, and images of unity, love and happiness. But underneath the window dressing, the "change" proposed has a name: "communism." It does not promote unity, love or happiness; it is horrendously destructive, and utterly incompatible with human civilization. And when things go wrong, Obama doesn't even want you to be able to defend yourself and family with a gun, though he will have lots of guns and goons protecting him and his family from harm.

We've all seen videos of the cheering throngs at speeches given by Adolf Hitler. They were cheering because they believed his lies, and allowed their best virtues to be tested and exploited by the deceptive rhetoric of people who were driven entirely by love of dominion. Communism is about wealth redistribution by force: from each according to his ability, to each according to his need; the soul of the oppressive communist credo that sounds like charity.

Collectivists like Obama imagine themselves to be charitable, when they are nothing of the sort. In fact, the philosophy of collectivism is utterly incompatible with true charity. Charity is when a person chooses, of his own free will, to give his time, effort and/or money to someone else. To give away someone ELSE's property is not charity, especially when it is taken from them against their will. Furthermore, it is not charitable to be robbed, even if what is stolen from you is given to someone truly needy. There cannot be true charity unless there is free will--unless the giver VOLUNTARILY gives to someone else--and that is never how "government" works.

Because "need" is always a subjective concept, there can never be mutual agreement on exactly who "needs" what, even among a dozen people, much less six billion. And that is why every collectivist state quickly becomes a question of, Who gets to DECIDE who "needs" what? And the result is that a group of people wearing the label "government" declare themselves to be the ultimate deciders of who "needs" what, and therefore the deciders of who will have money, food, housing, etc., and who will not. In practice, therefore, the misguided ideal of everyone jointly owning everything (collectivism) always results in a very small group of people controlling and owning everything. The real-world results can be seen in the mass starvation, mass murder, and widespread oppression and poverty under the regimes of Stalin, Mao, Mugabe, and many other collectivist "leaders" who quickly became Tyrants oppressing free people "for the good of the community," and the end justifies the means!

Even Karl Marx, the most famous proponent of communism, acknowledged this, saying that free trade was needed to CREATE the wealth, after which collectivists would take over and fairly distribute it to those who needed it most.

Barrack Obama is an anti-gun rights collectivist, advocate for the idea that every individual-and all wealth--is the property of the collective, as represented by "government." In other words, he believes in communism. Mr. Obama makes the advocacy of widespread government violence, theft and oppression sound both noble and useful. It is not. Don't hide your advocacy for government sponsored oppression and robbery behind elections, legislation, and political rhetoric.

The OPPOSITE of collectivism: an uncompromising adherence to the concepts of individual rights and private property, i.e., the individual sovereignty promised by the Constitution for the united States of America.

"Rebellion against Tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Guns Preserve YOUR Sovereignty !

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

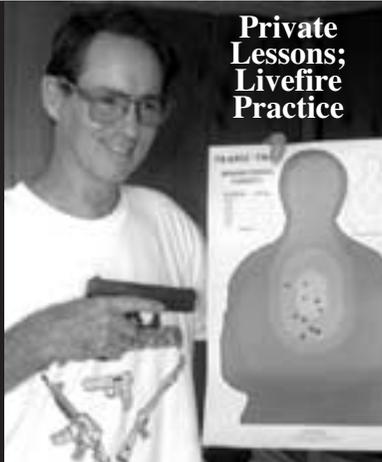

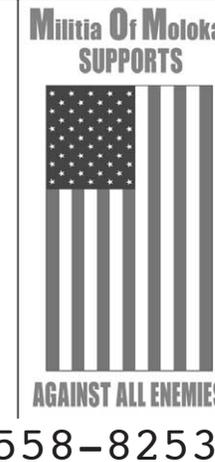

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

cont'd....Bush "Shoed" in Baghdad by Reporter

Bush's claims rang hollow to thousands of Iraqis who poured out their support for Al-Zaidi's shoe-insult, because they know that Bush's military surge was aimed at salvaging his unjustified war on Iraq, and pretending a victorious end to the war that even has growing opposition from American Citizens.

Iraqis are demanding Al-Zaidi's release from prison. He is reportedly being tortured by Bush's new democratic Maliki regime to force him to write a letter of apology to President Bush, and charged him with "insulting a foreign dignitary" [5-years prison] when he threw his shoes at President Bush and yelled "This is a farewell kiss, dog." [In Arab culture, hitting someone with a shoe is considered a grave insult.]

Iraqis burn images of U.S. President Bush, as they demanded the release of Iraqi journalist Muntazer al-Zaidi who threw his shoes at President Bush. Friends said he covered the U.S. bombing of Baghdad's Sadr City area earlier this year and had been "emotionally influenced" by the destruction he'd seen.

journalist Muntazer al-Zaidi

While US forces continue to build the world's largest Ambassador's building and 17 permanent military bases, Iraqis struggle to survive and resent the military occupation and destruction of their country US military and "Coalition Forces".

Bush's military surge brought clashes, violent death, and the virtual partitioning of Baghdad, once a city of mainly mixed neighbourhoods. "It was the most bitter and destructive time of ethnic cleansing for Iraq," says Michael Schwartz, author of War Without End. "To call it a success is a staggering claim."

There are some 2 million Iraqi refugees in neighbouring countries and another 2 million displaced inside Iraq. Many of the displaced are professionals, including engineers, teachers and doctors. The brain drain has reconfigured Iraq's population, with the poorest and least-skilled remaining, and few able to repair the ruined infrastructure, or run vital services.

Aid organizations say that more than five years after the invasion, conditions are grim and in many cases growing worse, as the country suffers widespread poverty, massive displacement, a crippling brain drain and a dangerous breakdown in infrastructure. "Neighbourhoods are flooded with sewage, households are without water or electricity and there's the threat of spreading disease," says Jennifer Abrahamson of the British-based charity Oxfam. "We are seeing that in the last year the situation has either stayed the same, or gotten worse."

In 2007, as the surge was taking effect, Oxfam and a coalition of Iraqi organizations found that nearly one-third of the 27 million population needed emergency relief, 70 per cent lacked adequate water supplies, 50 per cent were unemployed and 25 per cent of children were malnourished. In addition, 2 million internally displaced people have no means of support, living in absolute poverty.

Chief Justice Admits: No Failure To File Income Tax Law Exists

In the transcript of the Oral Argument, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court William Rhenquist and the United States attorney (Kent Jones) admit there is NO statute that makes it a crime for "failure to file" an income tax return! QUOTE: "I'm not familiar with a statute that makes that a crime by itself" ..."but the fact that you didn't file...frankly...it's my impression that that would not by itself be a crime". Transcript says on pg. 6 lines 20-25, Rhenquist said: "We'd better not let the word get out..."We'll keep it just among ourselves"... then laughing.

And they have the nerve to laugh about it, while Americans are being scammed by the fraud of the IRS. Where is your outrage? Do you owe the IRS any income taxes? Probably not! Get a free IRS-861-CD from The MAN: 558-8253
