Happy Presidents Day Weekend?

We should Celebrate the Idea of Presidents Obeying the Law.

But we can't because Obama, the Usurper of Office who is also an illegal alien, is Gutting the 287(g) Program for Local Immigration Enforcement

Last week, Obama's DHS head Janet Napolitano told Congress that she doesn't want to do the "exit" part of the entry/exit system for the 45-million-a-year foreign visitors because she has illegal immigration under control already. Apparently, no visitor is overstaying visas any more. Napolitano also is refusing to deport about 300,000 illegal aliens who already had their day in court and were ordered deported, including Obama's illegal alien welfare scamming drunk driving relatives from Kenya.

And now the Obama has submitted a budget that allows Napolitano to gut the 287(g) program that trains local and state police to arrest illegal aliens, detain and transfer for deportation. Obama's open-borders groups have been demanding an end to this program for years, and Obama's budget would give it to them.

I want to tell our Hawaii Congress critters that I am outraged at this latest example of Office Usurper Obama and Secretary Napolitano trying to nullify congressional immigration laws. I am on fire with rage that the Obama is cutting funding for the 287(g) program in his FY2013 budget request. He obviously doesn't believe that saving American lives is important.

The 287(g) program is incredibly important and needs to be fully funded so that individuals who have broken America's laws and have no right to live and work in the United States are identified and placed into deportation proceedings. Sadly, it seems that President Obama wants these illegal aliens to remain in the country so they can continue to break the law and take jobs from American workers. You would almost think that he's trying to establish a way for illegal aliens to vote in November's elections, too.

Even if the illegal alien occupant of the White House Usurper Obama is unwilling to protect Americans and legal aliens from illegal alien criminality, I hope you and your Congressional colleagues will. Obama can request the defunding of 287(g) all he wants, but that doesn't mean that Congress has to go along with it. Please make sure that 287(g) is fully funded. Indeed, I urge you to find a way to increase funding for the program so that more localities can apply and join.

Obviously, you in Congress have not yet removed Obama for cause! How much more will it take before you IMPEACH and Prosecute Obama and send him and his gang of thugs to prison for TREASON? Do your damn job and keep your Oath of Office! Remove Obama! The we can celebrate Presidents' Day!

Dear Governor Neil Abercrombie: it is clearly demonstrated with prima facie evidence and expert testimony that the candidacy of Barack H. Obama II aka Barry Soetoro is rife with voter fraud, and that Obama has no valid identification required to be ballot listed as a candidate for Office of President. Obama does not meet the requirements to be on the ballot, and he has submitted possible false documents in support of his eligibility. REMOVE OBAMA!

Tree Planting Is Celebration of Life: Miles Chikara Muraoka April 4, 1934-January 2, 2012

Miles Chikara Muraoka was an educator for more than thirty years. He and his wife Rose Yamada have been instrumental in the development of innovative education programs for the students of the State of Hawaii. Miles passed away on January 2, 2012.

Friends and colleagues celebrated the life of the easy-going, well-liked, animal lover's life at a special Kukui Tree Planting on Monday, February 20 at the entrance to the Old Pau Hana Inn, now the Molokai Community Health Center.

The choice of the Kukui tree was made because of its use in ancient times and modern times as a source of light, food, symbol of enlightenment and it's meaning for the life of Miles Muraoka. Kanoe told of the use of the pure water from the freshly opened coconut and 'olena to purify the new home of the kukui tree.

His wife Rose Yamada, son Curtis Muraoka, Miles' daughter-in-law and granddaughter were the first to put spade to the soil. They were followed by friends, neighbors and many of Molokai's teachers, paying tribute to the educator who made contributions to the field of science, established the Hawaii State Science Fair. At a brief program, Joyce Iwane Bellino, Assistant Superintendent of Education spoke of "Footprints in Education" the contributions made to the state through the forward looking programs Miles Muraoka had planned, such as recycling oil long before it became commonplace. He was known also to the Hilo community for his work establishing the Tsunami Museum, gathering oral histories about the April 1, 1946 tragedy.

Obama's Military OKs Animal Sodomy & Homosex New Law

Recently passed Senate legislation makes sodomy and sex with animals legal under military law, ending long-standing prohibitions and triggering cries of perversion from natural born moral centered American citizens.

Obama's Senate passed 93-7 repeals Article 125 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice that states any person who engages in "unnatural carnal copulation with another person of the same or opposite sex or with an animal is guilty of sodomy." Those found guilty of sodomy would be subject to court martial.

Conservative groups angered by Obama's repeal of the ban on gays serving openly in the military were again outraged by the repeal of the sodomy law.

Now, in its rush to accommodate the left, to make gay sex an official part of military life, the left is repealing the ban on bestiality too.

Dear Editor: The Constitution vs. Congress

Welcome the passage of Senate Bill 1867 and the police state. No hearings were held and this passed under the guise of "our security." Our government now has the right to detain and imprison American civilians indefinitely WITHOUT charges or due process. Guilty until proven innocent is now the American way. This bill is the final step necessary to strike down any remaining Constitutional protections.

We have fusions centers all over the country gathering information on all citizens from all different sources. These fusion centers have no oversight. Everything you do and own is tracked, including your financial transactions. We fear the IRS whose power is unrestrained in attaching citizens' resources. We have FEMA camps that have been built all over the US, with barbed wire, guard station, restricted access, cameras, and plenty of coffins. Sounds ominous, doesn't it?

We have failed ventures (Solyndra) and illegal activities (Fast & Furious) being covered up, government officials taking advantage of insider information to enrich themselves. All this is being done with OUR money. These actions are all worthy of impeachment proceedings.

Where is the outrage? Nothing will change unless we clean out Congress and create TERM LIMITS to get rid of them. We should be asking ourselves why does hardly anyone know about the Get Out of Our House (goooh.com) movement and why isn't the press reporting on it to do just that?

K. Burson Houston, Texas 281-933-5219

Dear Friends of our Constitution for the United States of America

Last week Obama trampled upon our Constitution---once again---when he made four executive branch appointments without Senate approval, a constitutional requirement when the Senate is in session!

What's our Imperial Obama going to do next? Make laws on his own without Congressional passage?

We cannot let our Constitution be ignored without any repercussions or before long liberals like Obama will have made it a completely irrelevant document, a mere historical artifact. Tell Congress to defund these four bureaucrats' offices until they are confirmed by the Senate!

Now that we are in an election year, the Obama Administration has decided that it doesn't need Congress anymore, will bypass them whenever possible such as this unconstitutional power grab, and then campaign against them as a do-nothing Congress. So much for working together to rebuild America.

Although they might not always act like it, Congress is our voice in Washington. When their voices are ignored, our voices are ignored, and it's just wrong. Thanks in advance for your help in this important fight.

Sincerely, Colin Hanna

Molokai's Forum For Freedom

Obama/Clinton Push For U.N. Treaty Against 2nd Am.

A preparatory committee at the United Nations concluded a series of meetings on the Arms Trade Treaty (ATT). The most comprehensive treaty of its kind, the ATT would regulate weapons trade throughout the world on everything from battleships to bullets. The ATT will, at the very least, require gun owner registration and microstamping of ammunition. And it will define manufacturing so broadly that any gun owner who adds so much as a scope or changes a stock on a firearm would be required to obtain a manufacturing license.

It would also likely include a ban on many semi-automatic firearms (i.e., the Clinton gun ban) and demand the mandatory destruction of surplus ammo and confiscated firearms.

Anti-gun rights officials from abroad and the Obama/Clinton administration, view arms control as protecting human rights, rather than seeing civilian disarmament for what it is -- the favorite tool of despots, dictators and tyrants to maintain power by engaging in mass murder and genocide.

I agree with Gun Owners of America that this treaty favored by Obama is dangerous to our Second Amendment rights and violates U.S. sovereignty.

I urge everyone to oppose any UN Treaty that in any way infringes on my right to keep and bear arms, and to write a letter to our Congresscritters and to Barack Obama opposing any anti-gun treaty.

Furthermore, with Obama and Clinton et al supporting the UN gun grab ultra vires to our 2nd Am and Constitution, they must be removed from office immediately and put into prison at GITMO!

Sincerely,
George Peabody

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
"A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Congress Pushing Homosexual Agenda into public Schools

Dear Pro-family American,

The Radical Homosexuals infiltrating the United States Congress have a plan: Indoctrinate an entire generation of American children with pro-homosexual propaganda and eliminate traditional values from American society.

Their ultimate dream is to create a new America based on sexual promiscuity in which the values you and I cherish are long forgotten.

I hate to admit it, but if they pass the deceptively named "Student Non-Discrimination Act," (H.R. 998 & S. 555) that's exactly what they'll do.

Better named the "Homosexual Classrooms Act," its chief advocate in Congress is Rep. Jared Polis, himself an open homosexual and radical activist.

And it's dangerously close to becoming the law of the land.

H.R. 998 already has 150 co-sponsors in the House!

And S. 555 already has 34 co-sponsors in the Senate!

That's why I need you to act quickly to protect our nation's youth.

I have prepared the official "Protect Our Children's Innocence" Petition to Congress for you to sign.

You and I must defeat this disastrous legislation.

You see, the Homosexual Classrooms Act contains a laundry list of anti-family provisions that will:

 Require schools to teach appalling homosexual acts so "homosexual students" don't feel "singled out" during already explicit sex-ed classes;

 Spin impressionable students in a whirlwind of sexual confusion and misinformation, even peer pressure to "experiment" with the homosexual "lifestyle;"

 Force private and even religious schools to teach a pro-homosexual curriculum and purge any reference to religion if a student claims it creates a "hostile learning environment" for homosexual students.

In fact, it will set them up to ram through their entire perverted vision for a homosexual America.

My friend, I'm sure I don't have to tell you this is not a fight we can afford to lose. That's why Public Advocate is leading the fight against this immoral legislation. The Homosexual Classrooms Act will turn America's schools into indoctrination centers and its classrooms into social laboratories.

You see, the Obama gang has disguised the bill's wicked purpose behind an innocent name: "The Student Non-Discrimination Act."

The Homosexual Lobby knows that if the public knew the truth about their radical agenda, they'll have no hope of success.

H.R. 998 already has 150 co-sponsors in the House!

And S. 555 already has 34 co-sponsors in the Senate!

You and I need to take action right now to stop the growing momentum of this disastrous legislation. Unfortunately, this agenda is nothing new.

In fact, other countries like Britain are already experimenting with this kind of legislation, such as mandating public schools inject pro-homosexual content into every aspect of education.

Word problems in math classes are now to include homosexual characters. History classes will document the "civil rights" struggle against the "oppressive" pro-family establishment.

And it's even started to infiltrate our state governments.

In California, lawmakers want to "require schools to portray lesbians, homosexuals, transsexuals ... as positive role models to children in all public schools."

Please sign the "Protect Our Children's Innocence" Petition to Congress.

Your action will make all the difference.

Sex Changes Operations for Children on the Rise?

A growing number of teens and even younger children who think they were born the wrong sex are getting support from parents and from doctors who give them sex-changing treatments, reports the medical journal Pediatrics.

It's an issue that raises ethical questions, and some experts urge caution in treating children with puberty-blocking drugs and hormones.

An 8-year-old second-grader in Los Angeles is a typical patient. Born a girl, the child announced at 18 months, "I a boy" and has stuck with that belief. The family was shocked but now refers to the child as a boy and is watching for the first signs of puberty to begin treatment, his mother told The Associated Press.

The Daily Mail <<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2043345/The-California-boy-11-undergoing-hormone-blocking-treatment.html>>reported about yet another example of this back in September:

The lesbian parents of an 11-year-old boy who is undergoing the process of becoming a girl last night defended the decision, claiming it was better for a child to have a sex change when young.

"If you open the doors, these are the kids who come. They're out there. They're in your practices," Spack said in an interview.

Thomas Lobel, who now calls himself Tammy, is undergoing controversial hormone blocking treatment in Berkeley, California to stop him going through puberty as a boy.

Pediatricians need to know these kids exist and deserve treatment, said Dr. Norman Spack, author of one of three reports published Monday and director of one of the nation's first gender identity medical clinics, at Children's Hospital Boston.

Switching gender roles and occasionally pretending to be the opposite sex is common in young children. But these kids are different. They feel certain they were born with the wrong bodies.

Some are labeled with "gender identity disorder," a psychiatric diagnosis. But Spack is among doctors who think that's a misnomer. Emerging research suggests they may have brain differences more similar to the opposite sex.

Spack said by some estimates, 1 in 10,000 children have the condition.

Offering sex-changing treatment to kids younger than 18 raises ethical concerns, and their parents' motives need to be closely examined, said Dr. Margaret Moon, a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics' bioethics committee. She was not involved in any of the reports.

Some kids may get a psychiatric diagnosis when they are just hugely uncomfortable with narrowly defined gender roles; or some may be gay and are coerced into treatment by parents more comfortable with a sex change than having a homosexual child, said Moon, who teaches at the Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics.

It's harmful "to have an irreversible treatment too early," Moon said.

These children sometimes resort to self-mutilation to try to change their anatomy; the other two journal reports note that some face verbal and physical abuse and are prone to stress, depression and suicide attempts. Spack said those problems typically disappear in kids who've had treatment and are allowed to live as the opposite sex.

Guidelines from the Endocrine Society endorse transgender hormone treatment but say it should not be given before puberty begins. At that point, the guidelines recommend puberty-blocking drugs until age 16, then lifelong sex-changing hormones with monitoring for potential health risks. Mental health professionals should be involved in the process, the guidelines say. The group's members are doctors who treat hormonal conditions.

Those guidelines, along with YouTube videos by sex-changing teens and other media attention, have helped raise awareness about treatment and led more families to seek help, Spack said.

His report details a fourfold increase in patients at the Boston hospital. His Gender Management Service clinic, which opened at the hospital in 2007, averages about 19 patients each year, compared with about four per year treated for gender issues at the hospital in the late 1990s.

The report details 97 girls and boys treated between 1998 and 2010; the youngest was 4 years old. Kids that young and their families get psychological counseling and are monitored until the first signs of puberty emerge, usually around age 11 or 12. Then children are given puberty-blocking drugs, in monthly $1,000 injections or implants imbedded in the arm.

In another Pediatrics report, a Texas doctor says he's also provided sex-changing treatment to an increasing number of children; so has a clinic at Children's Hospital Los Angeles where the 8-year-old is a patient.

The drugs used by the clinics are approved for delaying puberty in kids who start maturing too soon. The drugs' effects are reversible and Spack said they've caused no complications in his patients. The idea is to give these children time to mature emotionally and make sure they want to proceed with a permanent sex change. Only one of the 97 opted out of permanent treatment, Spack said.

Kids will more easily pass as the opposite gender, and require less drastic treatment later, if drug treatment starts early, Spack said. For example, boys switching to girls will develop breasts and girls transitioning to boys will be flat-chested if puberty is blocked and sex-hormones started soon enough, Spack said.

Sex hormones, especially in high doses when used long-term, can have serious side effects, including blood clots and cancer. Spack said he uses low, safer doses but that patients should be monitored.

Gender-reassignment surgery, which may include removing or creating penis, is only done by a handful of U.S. doctors, on patients aged at least 18, Spack said. His clinic has worked with local surgeons who've done breast removal surgery on girls at age 16, but that surgery can be relatively minor, or avoided, if puberty is halted in time, he said.

The mother of the Los Angeles 8-year-old says he's eager to begin treatment.

When the child was told he could get shots to block breast development, "he was so excited," the mother said. He also knows he'll eventually be taking testosterone shots for life but surgery right now is uncertain.

The child attends a public school where classmates don't know he is biologically a girl. For that reason, his mother requested anonymity.

She said she explained about having a girl's anatomy but he rejected that, refused to wear dresses, and has insisted on using a boy's name since preschool.

Olson said the journal reports should help persuade more doctors to offer these kids sex-changing treatment or refer them to specialists who will. WTF !!!!!

Part XII Severly Limited Power

No Power that contravenes the Principles underpinning the July 1776 Action of the Second Continental Congress has Lawful Authority. Such Powers should be systematically repealed because they should never have been created.

Lawful and Legal are not synonyms. There is an ethical element in Lawful that is absent in Legal. It is therefore quite possible for Unlawful Laws to exist and be ruthlessly enforced. The People need only acquiesce in them.

Sadly, a Legal System that provides income for an ever-growing number of parasites has supplanted the legitimate Law of the Land which is philosophically constrained by the Unanimous Declaration.

Americans in general and especially White Americans*, have greater cause for rebellion than did the Patriot Colonists in 1776.

*In a misguided effort to rectify past racial abuses, Whites have been victimized by such legal nonsense as Affirmative Action. See the all but forgotten: Regents of the University of California v Baake

We hold these Truths...

PHILOSOPHER KINGS

I believe there are more instances of the abridgment of the freedom of the people by gradual and silent encroachments of those in power than by violent and sudden usurpations. —James Madison

Judges have become philosopher kings who routinely support morally unacceptable power in the service of politics and plundering. The legal absurdities they support have emasculated the Bill of Rights. The interpretive removal of Bill of Rights protection for the Individual is a moral abomination. The Supreme Court's numerous split decisions prove beyond a reasonable doubt that they serve a political agenda and that they surely know precisely what they are doing. Compounding their legal treachery, when their posturing concerning probable cause demanded by the Fourth Amendment was exposed, they constructed the good faith exception to the exclusionary rule, thereby giving police a virtual Writ of Intrusion*. These elitist criminals are as spiritually alien to the common folk as were antiquity's worst despots.

*Writ of Intrusion originated with the author and is fictitious. It was inspired by the Writ of Assistance which was instrumental in bringing about the American Revolution. Drug agents routinely trample the Bill of Rights and then cover their crime by TESTILYING when necessary.

The systematic nullification of the Bill of Rights today is essentially a product of unlawful prohibition. This witch-hunt; this fabricated crisis; this monstrous now institutionalized instrument of unbridled police power and judicial extortion has cost America's taxpayers billions, while costing some unfortunates their lives as well. Government creates crises to justify its excesses while urging folks to surrender their liberties for the sake of "our" children. But the Drug War is only a politics and profit motivated persecution of persons who choose self prescribing and/or recreational alternatives to alcohol. Like prostitutes, they're an easy target. The horrible excesses of America's legal system only make sense when the system is recognized to be the color of law racket that it really is.

Sadly, a legal System that outrageously provides income for an ever-growing number of parasites has supplanted the legitimate Law of the Land.

Americans in general, and especially White Americans, have greater cause for rebellion than did the Patriot Colonists in 1776.

We hold these Truths...THE JUDICIAL INDUSTRY

The Judicial Industry will continue to grow and its excesses will remain unchecked as long as Americans depend on nothing more than the ballot for control and accountability. The ballot alone will afford the People precious little of either. Beginning with the Controlled Substances Act and unjust statutes derived therefrom, all power that contravenes the principles underpinning the Unanimous Declaration should be repealed outright. Timidly begging for the so-called legalization of marijuana merely concedes to government the unlawful power to prohibit selfmedicating and chemical self-pleasuring with alternatives to ethyl alcohol. Philosophically, the Legalizers' actually do more harm than good.

If marijuana prohibition were repealed, I wonder how many of the Marijuana Legalizers would continue to acquiesce in the persecution of persons who use other drugs. Even worse, considering the human capacity for hypocrisy, I wonder how many would actively support it?

THE LAW PERVERTED

The law perverted! And the police powers of the state perverted along with it! The law, I say, not only turned from its proper purpose but made to follow an entirely contrary purpose! The law become the weapon of every kind of greed! Instead of checking crime, the law itself guilty of the evils it is supposed to punish! —Frederic' Bastiat (c. 1850)

Bastiat's powerfully enlightening work, THE LAW can be downloaded free. Every concerned American would be wise to have a copy among his study and reference works.

At this stage of American history, candidates should be asked which laws they intend to repeal. They must somehow be made to publicly commit to it.

When it comes to making new law, the first law that should be ratified is a law requiring an expiration date for statutes involving arrest for nonviolent offenses. Office holders could simply let sumptuary laws expire unchallenged with little or no political risk.

IMPEACH OBAMA Tell Congress

Barack Obama is indeed succeeding in his plans to "transform America," but not in the way voters expected on Election Day in 2008. The number of the president's actions that arguably qualify as impeachable offenses is staggering.

DEAR EDITOR, & Comment

Many Americans believe that God will not bless America if we elect Mormon Mitt Romney for president because Mormons believe that Elohim is their heavenly father who lives with many wives on a planet near a mysterious star called Kolob, where through endless celestial sex, produced billions of spirit children including their eldest sons Lucifer and Jesus. During the battle between brothers Satan and Jesus, those who remained neutral in the battle were cursed to be born with black skin. Those Mormons who are sealed in the eternal marriage ceremony in LDS temples expect to become polygamous gods in a Celestial Kingdom, rule over other planets, and spawn new families throughout eternity. Web search "Mormonism" and these names and terms together or go to <http://www.saintsalive.com>http://www.saintsalive.com to learn about Mormonism for yourself. Many Americans also believe that God will not bless an America led by Newt Gingrich, who has shown multiple times to be incapable of upholding his sacred marriage covenant between himself, his past wives, and with God. When he was cheating on his first wife, he was running for Congress on the slogan, "Let Our Family Represent Your Family;" how disgusting (Web search "High Infidelity Gingrich" to learn more). We must not elect a president who can not uphold his sacred marriage oath of fidelity and trust to his past wives and to God, as this clearly shows that he can not uphold his oath of office to us, to protect us and instill our trust in him.

Dear Neil Abercrombie re Obama fraud and office Elections COMPLAINT:

Complaints of voter fraud filed with Office of Elections chief Scott Nago are apparently being ignored. The requirement for public hearings on the complaints against Obama's apparent voter fraud and complicit acts by other State officials of DOH and others are not scheduled, and Nago is never available, and his staff say they can only state that Nago is not available and they know nothing about any complaints of voter fraud by Obama, DNC, DOH, et al.

This is an official complaint and demand that you enforce the law immediately to address the complaint of voter fraud against Obama et al; and, furthermore, to hold accountable all those people at DOH et al who are complicit in the obstruction of justice and coverup of the complaints of voter fraud by Obama et al.

Please reply to me asap by email.

ps: We need in Hawaii a Bill of Rights Day December 15, but the legislators refuse to pass such Resolution past years I have submitted requests and English / Hawaiian translations of Bill of Rights to them. They passed a Mullim Day?!! but Nooo, no pass a Bill of Rights Day?!!

I just read a copy of your email to O R L Y and copied your email address for this missive. First, I want to thank you for becoming involved in this fight-to-the-death for our nation.

Second, My view, and I am sure the view of others, of the State of Hawaii has dropped precipitously. The treasonous corruption that we are observing from the mainland is hard to believe; especially, the dogged commitment to lie and deceive at the risk of destroying a nation to save the ego and reputation of another liar and deceiver. Truly the sins of the revolutionary communist fathers relocated to this then rogue territory are readily apparent and raging in the hearts of their sons (and daughters).

The elite flaunt their self-confessed superior knowledge and curse the illiterates as the Bible said that it would cause them to do unto error. However, your state's leaders look to the rest of us as demonstrative fools, only to possibly be joined or surpassed by the leaders of the State of New Hampshire.

George, be bold and unrelenting in your pursuit of righteousness and truth in the Faith, and no man will be able to stand against you.

With Kind Regards, James Simmons

P.S. If Nago is not at work or disability, then he should be fired and/or jailed.
