Medical Marijuana Hawaii Senate Passes Three Reform Measures

from Drug War Chronicle, Issue #623, 3/12/10

On March 2, the Hawaii Senate overwhelmingly approved three separate marijuana reform measures, two relating to medical marijuana and one that would decriminalize the possession of up to an ounce. The bills now head to the House.

[Looks like step in right direction, but WAKE UP: The Only Answer is Untaxed, Unregulated Self Cultivation]

SB 2213 would allow counties to license medical marijuana dispensaries. It passed with a large margin at 20-4, with one member excused.

SB 2141 would increase the number of plants and amount of marijuana patients could possess. Under current law, they can possess three plants and one ounce; under this bill, they could possess up to 10 plants and five ounces. The measure would also increase the number of patients a caregiver can provide for from one to four. It passed 24-1.

SB2450 would decriminalize the possession of up to one ounce of marijuana. Under current law, small-time pot possession is a misdemeanor punishable by up to 30 days in jail and a $1000 fine. Under this bill, there would be no criminal penalties for possession of under an ounce, but offenders would face a $300 fine for a first offense and a $500 fine for subsequent offenses. The bill also makes possession of less than an ounce by a parolee not a reason to force him into drug treatment or violate his parole.

"These votes show that Hawaii's Senate supports sensible marijuana policies that will serve the best interests of state citizens," said Eric McDaniel, a legislative analyst with the Marijuana Policy Project (MPP). "Hawaii's most vulnerable citizens deserve safe and reliable access to their medicine, and no Hawaiian deserves to go to jail simply for using a substance that is safer than alcohol. If House members agree, I would strongly encourage them to pass these measures as well."

The overwhelming margins of approval for the measures in the Senate is important because Hawaii Organized Crime head Linda Lingle is an avowed foe of marijuana and is likely to try to veto any reform measures coming out of the legislature. Now only if the House can pass these bills by similar veto-proof margins.

ObamaCARE = Anti-privacy + Taxes Increases + Rationing + Gun Rights infringement

Letter and report by George Peabody

The real view of Obama's CHANGE.

The Obama Regime's takeover of the health care industry and our loss of medical freedom and subjecting Americans to socialized medicine mandates and invasions of privacy and even prison for those who refuse to purchase ObamaCARE health insurance, support BigPharma, now only lacks Obama's signature to become a federal mandate like the unconstitutional War on Drugs. Obama's hero, Communist Russian Jew Vladimir Lenin said: "Medicine is the keystone of the arch of socialism" and "The goal of socialism is communism."

MAKAALA: it is time to invoke the 10th Amendment sovereignty of our State of Hawaii to kill this bill at our State level, and the other socialist anti-freedom laws existing and many bills soon to follow. The Tenth Amendment "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Our American Founding Fathers must be ashamed of modern Americans who let this Obama fraud continue usurping Office of President. Thomas Jefferson said: "Whenever the General Government assumes undelegated powers, its acts are unauthoritative, void, and of no force". "When the people fear their government, there is tyranny; when the government fears the people, there is liberty." Supreme Court Marbury v Madison: "Any law repugnant to the constitution is null and void of Law."

Washington D.C. is ignoring American Citizens: Saturday, Obama referred to protesters as "astroturf", insinuation is we are under his boots.

Drug Prohibition Facilitates Corrupt Cops Using Evidence Storage as Drug Supply

from Drug War Chronicle, Issue #623, 3/12/10

Bad cops, bad cops, whatcha gonna do when they come for you?

The evidence room of opportunity for three Providence police officers who used it in a cocaine-dealing operation. Narcotics Detective Joseph Colanduono, Sergeant Steven Gonsalves, and Patrolman Robert Hamlin went down after a four-month investigation. Robert Hamlin, a school resource police officer at a Providence high school, is accused of helping his brother avoid arrest by giving him the names of narcotics detectives and descriptions of their cars. Hamlin is charged with conspiracy to possess cocaine, while Gonsalves is charged with soliciting another to commit a crime and Colanduono is charged with conspiracy to deal cocaine and compounding and concealing a felony.

In San Francisco, drug cases are being dismissed after a police department crime lab tech admitted stealing cocaine being tested there. Debbie Madden, 60, is accused of stealing small amounts of cocaine from evidence containers, but she has not been charged yet. San Francisco Police Chief George Gascon announced this week that the crime lab's drug testing was temporarily suspended pending an internal investigation and an outside audit of the lab. Twelve cases involving evidence tested or reviewed by Madden were dismissed Wednesday morning, and many more could follow. Local news reports Thursday night put the number of cases dismissed at "near 100." And many more are expected to be dismissed.

In Weston, Kansas, a former Weston police officer was charged March 3 with stealing drugs from the police department evidence room. Kyle Zumbrunn, 27, is accused of stealing a controlled substance. He's already behind bars, serving a 16-month sentence for selling drugs to a Kansas Bureau of Investigation undercover agent. The new charge came after an investigation into evidence handling procedures at the Weston police department. After Zumbrunn was originally arrested for selling pills, Weston police did an inventory of their evidence room and discovered 28 morphine tablets, 45 Oxycodone pills, and 37 morphine sulfate pills were missing. Zumbrunn faces up to seven more years in prison if convicted.

In Lubbock, Texas, a former Hockley County Sheriff's deputy was sentenced February 27 to 36 months in federal prison for his role in a massive motorcycle gang methamphetamine operation. Former Officer Jose Quintanilla admitted using his position to supply sensitive law enforcement information to the gang and to deter law enforcement efforts to investigate the ring.

Open LETTER to EDITOR: Obama Health Care Disagreeable

Dear Molokai Advertiser-News,

I just finished reading the President's proposal on health care reform and I will have to say, that I am not at all pleased with what I've read. Several things that I, and others that I know, strongly disagree with. The first one is the "requirement to purchase health insurance". Right there that is unconstitutional, no matter how you try to spin it. And it is based on what? The assumption that all people without insurance are frequenting the emergency rooms? Their are quite a number of hard working Americans that are in good health and rarely make a visit to the doctor, but when they do they pay the doctor bill. Why should they be penalized?

The second unpleasurable thing is the fact that there is absolutely no way that this thing is going to be affordable to Americans. It talks about middle-class tax cuts, and subsidies for low income Americans, and these government run options are going to cost money, lots and lots of it. So, what it ends up being is like a situation where a retailer hands you a coupon for several products, if you qualify, and then does a dramatic price markup on all merchandise in the store, so all buyers pay more, and some just get to pay a little less more. Good plan? It is if your store is running in the red and you are desperate to bring those debts down, if people don't catch on that is.

Another thing I take exception to has to do with the proposal of federal subsidies. I do not want to be placed in the position of accepting any subsidy at this time, or in the near future that is going to raise the taxes of another American so much as a single penny. I find such to be immoral, unethical, and just plain stupid when this country is economically struggling.

One thing that is not mentioned in the proposal, but that most assuredly will be in place and utilized, is a federal government computer data base, used for storage of individual personal health information. This data base is an abusive privacy violation that should never, ever be considered. This last one I will be sure to get the word out about, as no one wants to be heavily scrutinized by their government, and it should surely never take place here in America.

Personally, the one and only reform idea I like does not happen to be in the proposal. And that one being a cap on medical malpractice lawsuits. They are a chief cause of the high price of medical assistance. We put a cap in place and who knows, maybe we need not consider anything else?

Sincerely, Paul Swartzfager 503 810-4908

Editor's reply: I am pleased that you join me and most of MAN readers with your observation that the ObamaCare mandate that it is a "requirement to purchase health insurance" is unConstitutional. It begs the question about constitutional law professor Obama's perception of the limits imposed on government by the Law of the Land, the Constitution for the United States of America.

Economy Headed for Obama-FLATION

I am convinced that we're moving into a socialist age, and the Obama Administration is deliberately trying to create European socialism here in America. All of their objectives require creating money with the printing press. Until we have a new administration with a new philosophy—which isn't going to be printing all this money—I think inflation is in our future.

One of the problems is that many of the things that Obama's managing to ram through Congress are irreversible, regardless of Obama's treasonous usurping of the Office. Once you've voted in something like Obama's healthcare plan and people start depending on it, it's next to impossible to eliminate. Consequently, I'm very much worried that maybe we're facing an irreversible phenomenon. I am not saying that recovery is impossible, but, historically once you start building momentum of spending money and paying people to join government programs and get all kinds of gifts from Santa Claus in Washington, it is Socialism, and it is unlikely to be reversed until the economy collapses and lives are shattered.

As we move into an inflationary socialist environment, bear in mind that there's never been an example when the end result of socialism was not inflation. I remember being in Russia during the Gorbachev years, when using price controls to try to stamp out inflation merely created shortages. We were on a bus going to a museum, and all of a sudden we had to stop because people were blocking the road, rushing across the street. A rumor was out that a store had some goods, and everybody was carrying an empty gunny sack. They didn't know what they might find, but they wanted it. They knew that they could use it or trade it or sell it.

In today's inflationary economy, I think one of the most important things the average American household can do with its money is prepare for the day when inflation will be generalized. If the store sells any commodity that you buy on a regular basis, and you find it on sale, buy a case and store it. Stock up on commodities that you use and get a storage unit or make sure you have a storage room for important commodities.

And make a garden, now. I'd like to have about six months worth of whatever I need, and do everything you can to be self-sufficient. I think one day one of my prized possessions will be the garden in my backyard. It's not only a way to ensure you will have food to eat, but it's also a form of investment.

Another thing is to get out of debt. Even though it's theoretically a good idea to have debt and pay it off with a cheap inflated dollars later; that's just a theory, so makaala!

We're on course for hyperinflation in USA. Once inflation starts, sometimes it does not stop short of destruction of the currency. The world is littered with dead paper currencies. There is a possibility that we could destroy the paper dollar currency by increasing the amount of currency too much, which Obamanomics seems to be doing. By creating these trillions of dollars, Obama is beginning to show us what has happened in every major inflation since the invention of the printing press: inflation will get totally out of control.

Jewish Military Cancel EU Visit under Threat of ARREST for War Crimes

An Israeli military delegation and several politicians have canceled official visits to Britain, because of fears of war crimes prosecution. The threat of arrest forced a former Israeli general to hole up on an airplane at Heathrow Airport to avoid arrest, but Defense Minister Ehud Barak fended off an arrest attempt by successfully arguing he had diplomatic immunity.

In Britain, pro-Palestinian groups are taking advantage of Britain's "universal jurisdiction" law that allows prosecution of war criminals whose crimes have no direct connection with Britain. The War Crimes Law in Britain is invoked there now in the wake of war crimes allegations after Israel's devastating invasion of Palitine's residential area of Gaza a year ago killing scores of civilians, men, women, and children. The Zionist Jews kill everyone who gets in their way.

Michael Scheuer, the former director of a CIA unit assigned to track down Osama Bin-Laden, said that American soldiers are now dying in Iraq for the sake of Israelis. He further claimed that any debate against American support for Israel is squelched in the U.S. Zionist-owned major media.

U.S. Zionist-Jews like Wolfowitz and Feith and the other neo-cons - that Jewed us into Iraq via 9/11 - and now we're going to spend the next 60 years rehabilitating our soldiers, and we suffer uner TSA etc. I'm sick and tired of it.

Whether we want to be involved in fighting Israel's wars in the future is something that Americans should be able to talk about.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Guns for Protection from TYRANNY You Get ONLY 1-Chance: Be Prepared !

The Second Amendment is a doomsday provision. One designed for those exceptionally rare circumstances where all other rights have failed – where government refuses to stand for reelection and silences those who protest; where courts have lost the courage to oppose, or can find no one to enforce their decrees. However improbable these contingencies may seem today, facing them unprepared is a mistake a free people get to make only once.

A pro-gun rights Appeals Court Judge Alex Kosinski wrote his views on the Second Amendment and tyranny by government under color of law: “The simple truth – born of experience – is that tyranny thrives best where government need not fear the wrath of an armed people.”

Lessons from history

During the 20th Century, more than 70 million people, after first being disarmed, were slaughtered by their own governments,” he wrote. “This pattern appeared in Ottoman Turkey (1915-1917), the Soviet Union (1929-1945), Nazi Germany and occupied Europe (1933-1945), Nationalist China (1927-1949), Communist China (1949-1952, 1957-1960, and 1966-1970, Guatemala (1960-1981), Uganda (1971-1979), Cambodia (1975-1979), and Rwanda (1994), etc.

The Second Amendment was created as the final barricade against the unthinkable – the day when the rest of our Constitutional safeguards have failed us and we stand exposed to the brutal reality that so many in history have understood only too late.”

“The Second Amendment ... stands as the Founding Fathers’ clear and unmistakable legal statement that an armed citizenry is the bulwark of liberty and provides the fundamental basis for law-abiding Americans to defend themselves, their families, their communities, and their nation against all aggressors, including, ultimately, a tyrannical government,” wrote Daniel Schmutter in a friend of the court brief on behalf of Jews for the Preservation of Firearms Ownership.

"We are fast approaching the stage of the ultimate inversion: the stage where the government is free to do anything it pleases, while the citizens may act only by permission; which is the stage of the darkest periods of human history, the stage of rule by brute force." -- Ayn Rand, The Nature of Government

JUDICIARY OPPRESSIVE CRIMINALS in Black Robes !

Tom Jefferson quote: "The germ of destruction of our nation is in the power of the judiciary, an irresponsible body-working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall render powerless the checks of one branch over the other and will become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated." - (1821) Thomas Jefferson (1743-1826)

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

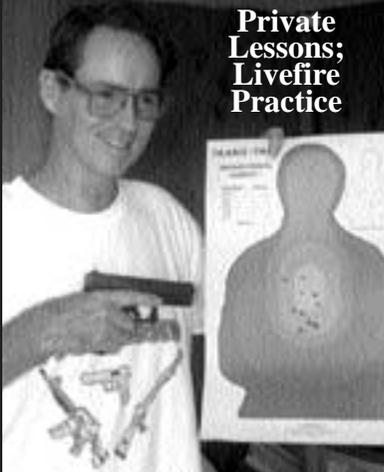

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

“A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.” Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
