IMPEACHABLE OFFENSES: Obama's War on Libya and his pattern of disregard of the Constitution for the United States of America, Rule of Law

On the day of the 8th anniversary of the unlawful Bush Iraq war with Tomahawk strikes, and in between rounds of golf and handicapping the NCAA basketball tournament, Zionist Obama-yomama has started a new unlawful war against Libya without consulting Congress. Obama ordered U.S. military bombing attacks on Libya when the United Nations Security Council and Obama's Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, conspiring with the National Security Council's Samantha Power, and Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice, were secretly calling for military action against Libya.

Obama chose not to consult Congress for a declaration of war. Instead, Obama sent a letter to Speaker John Boehner and Senator Daniel Inouye telling them of the bombing of Libya AFTER the initial attacks.

WTF! Libya is no threat to the United States. The Constitution does NOT give presidents nor usurper Obama authority to attack countries at will. Obama knows he cannot do this legally: Candidate Obama's own words "The President does not have power under the Constitution to unilaterally authorize a military attack in a situation that does not involve stopping an actual or imminent threat to the nation." Hillary Clinton and Obama opposed Pres. Bush's unilateral attack on Iraq and Afghanistan, but now they have the chutzph hubris and hegemony to do it anyway.

Also, Airforce military officers and pilots did not refuse Obama's unlawful orders as they should have, and as required by their Oath of Office. The constitutional requirement for Congressional approval before war is not some legalistic or technical barrier; it's vital. The Founders emphasized that war is the most serious matter upon which a nation can embark, that it is the citizenry who bear the risks and costs, and it is thus imperative that POTUS first obtain consent through representatives in Congress or, corrupt Presidents will engage in wars not sanctified by justice or the voice and interests of Sovereign People, and unnecessary wars that serve the political and ruling classes but not American Citizens.

Congressional leaders on both sides of the aisle agree Obama-yomama et al should have Congress' approval BEFORE any war action is taken. Rep. Dennis Kucinich called Obama's action "impeachable." Conservative and leftist leaders are appalled by this latest power grab on the part of the imperialist dictator usurping the White House named Barack Obama, an illegal alien whose Birth Certificate shows he was born in Kenya, is not even eligible for Office of President.

Barack Obama's subversion of our Constitution must be stopped! The House MUST vote to IMPEACH Obama, immediately, followed by criminal prosecution for all his criminal actions. We, the American People, must defend the Constitution for the United States of America, against Obama et al!

In my nearly three decades of work in the legal arena and in public policy, I have NEVER witnessed a more blatant and perpetual disregard for the Constitution! There is a distinct pattern to the Obama's attacks on the constitutionally prescribed checks and balances at the heart of our republican form of government by rule of Constitutional law of the land, and it transcends any particular issue. Simply put, the treasonous Obama plan is to increase the power and authority of the Executive Branch and extinguish the Constitution. Koheo Wetland Cleanup A Success

report by Arleone Dibben-Young

About a quarter acre of invasive saltmarsh fleabane (Pluchea) was cleared by students during last week's Koheo wetland cleanup, creating an area under a native milo tree for students on field trips to eat lunch. (Photo left to right) Michael Kikukawa, Noah Kikukawa, Sarah Jenkins, Lily Jenkins, Moriah Jenkins and Brian Leer (not pictured) hauled cut fleabane shrubs and stacked the green waste for pick-up by Monsanto employees.

Fleabane is a nonnative woody shrub that can overgrow wetlands and eliminate habitat for waterbirds.

Socialist Friedrich Engels Cited by Governor "I am not a socialist" Abercrombie in 100 days Speech

"The war of each against all, which has an iron grip on our country, is coming to an end in Hawaii"

Recognize that phrase? It is from "The Condition of the Working Class in England" by Friedrich Engels. This is how governor Neil "I am not a socialist" Abercrombie celebrates 100 days in office.

In his Message from Governor of Hawaii on the 100th day of his administration, Abercrombie is actually claiming to have reengineered human nature in 100 days as Hawaii Governor. But whenever "the war of each against all" has been abolished, it has been replaced with "the war of the State against all" or "the war of the Dictator against all" -- hence the increasing talk of a GE Tax hike--the pathetic force with which Neil "I am not a socialist" Abercrombie thinks he can remake YOU. BTW, where is Obama's birth records at DOH?

MolokaiMAN Demands WAIVER to ObamaCare Requirements

Molokai resident George Peabody is demanding a WAIVER for exclusion to ObamaCare expenses and penalties, delivered to Health Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius office on the one-year anniversary of Obama's unConstitutional socialist takeover of our health care system!

The states of Florida, Tennessee, Ohio and New Jersey and Maine have received ObamaCare waivers, while Kentucky, Nevada (home of ObamaCare supporter Harry Reid), and New Hampshire are awaiting exemption.

Obama's politically connected largest labor unions have already been waived out of the ObamaCare expense requirements including United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW), Service Employees International Union (SEIU), and the Teamsters!

It's only fair that natural born American citizens like George Peabody who opposed ObamaCare from the very beginning be granted WAIVERS as well.

Whereas ObamaCare is an unconstitutional infringement on my rights that are now being contested in federal courts, and Whereas Obamacare creates a personal economic hardship for my family and/or my employer.

Therefore, I am demanding confirmation from federal authorities of my personal WAIVER exempting me from ObamaCare. Demand your waiver today at:

Just Say NO on Obama!

Why are so many modest-income white voters rejecting the Obama Democrats' socialist policies of economic redistribution and instead embracing the small-government policies of the tea party movement?

It's not supposed to work out that way, say the political scientists and New Deal historians. Politics is supposed to be about who gets how much when, and people with modest incomes should be eager to take as much from the rich as they can get.

Moreover, as liberal economists and columnists point out, income levels for middle-class Americans remained stagnant for most of a decade during the George W. Bush presidency and then plunged in the recession. Housing values fell even more.

The conservative writer David Frum has made the same point and has said that Republicans must come up with policies that will raise ordinary people's incomes if they hope to win.

But the fact is that Republicans did pretty well among whites who did not graduate from college — the exit poll's best proxy for the white working class — even in the otherwise dismal year of 2008. John McCain carried non-college whites by a 58 percent to 41 percent margin, more than his 51 percent to 47 percent margin among college whites.

Barack Obama won because he carried all other voters 79 percent to 21 percent. But he carried non-college whites in only 14 states and the District of Columbia with 127 electoral votes.

Liberals are puzzled by this. Thomas Frank's book "What's the Matter With Kansas?" argued that modest-income whites were bamboozled by the moneyed elite to vote on cultural issues rather than in their direct economic interest.

But that's no more plausible than the notion that rich liberals from Park Avenue to Beverly Hills have been bamboozled to vote the opposite way on similar issues rather than for those who would extend the Bush tax cuts. People are entitled to base their vote on the things they think important. They don't always vote just to maximize their short-term income.

In any case, the cultural issues seemed to be eclipsed by economic issues in 2010, when Republicans carried non-college whites 63 percent to 33 percent in House elections. That was almost as large a percentage margin as the Democrats 74 percent to 24 percent among the smaller number of nonwhites.

My own assumption is that economic statistics have been painting an unduly bleak picture of modest-income America. When we measure real incomes we use inflation indexes, which over time inevitably overstate inflation, because they're based on static market baskets of goods.

The problem is if one item spikes in price, we quit buying it. In addition, inflation indexes cannot account for product innovation and quality increases.

Liberal writers look back to 1973 as a year when real wages supposedly peaked — just before a nasty bout of inflation. But back then, a pocket calculator cost $110. The smartphone you can buy today for $200 has a calculator and hundreds of other devices.

If you get out beyond the Beltway to Middle America, you find supermarkets with wonderful produce and big box stores with amazing variety, all at prices that are astonishingly low. You can eat well and dress stylishly at prices far below what elites in places like Washington and New York are accustomed to paying. In many ways, people with modest incomes have a significantly better standard of living than they did four decades ago.

The recoil in 2010 against the Obama Democrats' vast expansion of the size and scope of government seems to have a cultural or a moral dimension as well. It was a vote, as my Washington Examiner colleague Timothy P. Carney wrote last week, expressing "anger at those unfairly getting rich — at the taxpayer's expense."

Those include well-connected Wall Street firms like Goldman Sachs that got bailed out and giant corporations like General Electric that shape legislation so they can profit. They include the public employee unions who have bribed politicians to grant them pensions and benefits unavailable to most Americans.

A socialist government intertwined with the private sector like Obama has done with Bankster Bailouts etc, inevitably picks winners and losers. It allows well-positioned insiders to game the system for private gain. It bails out the improvident and sticks Citizens who made prudent decisions with the bill.

Paper Money Poisons Nation

"Paper money has had the effect in your state that it will ever have, to ruin commerce, oppress the honest, and open the door to every species of fraud and injustice." -GEORGE WASHINGTON, in letter to J. Bowen, Jan. 9, 1787

THE TWO-CENT DOLLAR

After almost a century of inflation, today's dollar has less than 2 cents of the purchasing power that it had in 1913 when the Federal Reserve Board was founded. The dollar in 1913 was backed by gold, as the Founders including Washington specified, in keeping with the Good Book's standard for money.

But that effectively changed in 1933 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt made ownership of gold bullion illegal in the U.S., and in 1971 when President Richard Nixon severed the last anchor of dollar convertibility into gold for foreign banks. Our dollar is back by debt, more and more debt.....worthless.

No longer constrained from printing all the easy money they wanted after 1971, the politicians started putting "In God We Trust" on paper dollars at about the same time they removed our currency's golden handcuffs that prohibited inflating the dollar.

Now the world is rapidly losing faith in our anchorless "faith-based," debased currency, and with good reason.

CONJURING MONEY out of Thin AIR

In the past two years our politicians have conjured $4 Trillion out of thin air. Fed Chair Ben Bernanke's Quantitative Easing 2 (QE2) is adding another $600 Billion — double the total number of physical paper dollars now circulating in the United States. The Congressional Budget Office days ago projected that 2011 Obama-spending will enlarge the deficit by another $1.48 Trillion.

And every one of these new paper fiat dollars steals value from the dollars you earn and save. Food cost inflation is already skyrocketing overseas, causing the riots that toppled a government in Tunisia and setting in motion falling dominos in Egypt and the Persian Gulf oil sheikdoms. Food prices will soon soar here, too.

Our politicians printing trillions of dollars is a major factor in global inflation and instability. Because economic strength and military might were the two legs on which America once stood tall, the fast-approaching crash of the dollar will end our prosperity at home and create a power vacuum that fanatics can fill in other countries such as nuclear-armed Pakistan.

How to Avoid U.S. Dollar's "Death of a Thousand Cuts"

"The U.S. Dollar is dying a death of a thousand cuts, largely because our politicians refuse to cut their spending and money-printing," says Craig R. Smith, author of Crashing the Dollar: How to Survive a Global Currency Collapse.

"Days ago the International Monetary Fund called for replacing the U.S. Dollar as the world's Reserve Currency," says Smith. "That would severely undermine our economy, send prices here through the roof, and greatly weaken America's worldwide power for a very very long time."

WHAT WOULD GEORGE WASHINGTON DO?

What can we do to honor and restore the values and great nation George Washington's day?

"Millions of Americans agree that the U.S. Dollar is going down," says Smith.

"Those fiat Federal Reserve Notes nicknamed 'Dead Presidents' for the faces on most of them are going to die when their value soon crashes to zero. But we can all help keep alive the values George Washington stood for and the nation he risked his life to create. We can help keep George Washington alive."

People are beginning to recognize that the soaring prices of gasoline and food is really the falling value of the paper U.S. Dollar, coupled with hidden taxation and out of control Obama spending for wars, whores, and Bankster bailouts.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. A Beauty Queen Shoots Intruder

In the United States of America, The Second Amendment is a Mainstream Value and a Fundamental Right that cannot be infringed, that is, if you use it to defend your life.

When a burly ex-convict forced his way into a posh Florida home last week, he had no idea what awaited him -- a 25-year-old beauty queen with a pink .38-caliber handgun.

Meghan Brown, a former Florida pageant queen, shot and killed 42-year-old Albert Franklin Hill during a home invasion March 12 at the house she shares with her fiance in Tierra Verde, Fla.

Hill barged into the home at around 3 a.m. after Brown responded to a knock at the front door, according to a police report. He allegedly grabbed the 110-pound Brown by her face and mouth and dragged her to an upstairs bedroom.

Brown's fiance, Robert Planthaber, said in an interview that he was quickly awakened by the altercation and ran to Brown's side.

"I attacked him and took a severe beating to the head," Planthaber told FoxNews.com. "But I got him off of her long enough for her to scramble to the room where she keeps her pink .38 special."

Brown, who reigned as the 2009 Miss Tierra Verde, snatched her gun from a nearby bedroom and shot the suspect several times -- hitting him in the chest, groin, thigh and back, her fiance said. Hill was pronounced dead at the scene.

Panthaber, a 42-year-old arborist, said he believes a pizza delivery man and possible accomplice staked out the home for three months before Hill attempted to burglarize it.

"We live in a very prominent area ...The pizza man noticed sometimes we needed change for a $100 bill when he came to deliver pizza."

Hill had a criminal record stretching back nearly three decades -- including arrests for burglary, battery, drug possession and grand theft. He reportedly served a 13-year prison term in 1987 and was released in September after serving a fourth term behind bars.

Detectives with the Pinellas County Sheriff's Robbery/Homicide Unit are still investigating the crime but believe the motive was robbery, according to local press reports.

Panthaber, meanwhile, said he and his fiancee are lucky to be alive. He said he purchased the pink handgun for Brown last Christmas and that the two had gone to target practice together.

"She was not a good shot at the range," he quipped.

As you may know, I work for the repeal of all gun laws. Servants come and go, but the people remain as the supreme authority. All gun laws - including having to show cause for a permit - is an affront to our authority over the very servants who issue the permits. Besides, its a RIGHT, and Rights don't need no stinkin permit. Got your guns, yet?

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

MOON was HUGE on Saturday night!

The moon looked a lot bigger and brighter this weekend, and scientists say there's a reason for that extra large look of our closest planet.

Saturday's full moon was a super "perigee moon" -- the biggest in almost 20 years. This celestial event is far rarer than the famed blue moon, which happens once about every two-and-a-half years.

"The last full moon so big and close to Earth occurred in March of 1993," said Geoff Chester with the U.S. Naval Observatory in Washington. "I'd say it's worth a look."

Full moons look different because of the elliptical shape of the moon's orbit. When it's at perigee, the moon is about 31,000 miles (50,000 km) closer to Earth than when it's at the farthest point of its orbit, also known as apogee.

"Nearby perigee moons are about 14% bigger and 30% brighter than lesser moons that occur on the apogee side of the moon's orbit," NASA website says.

This full moon rose in the east at sunset as usually, but it looked especially big at that time because of what's known as the "moon illusion."

"For reasons not fully understood by astronomers or psychologists, low-hanging moons look unnaturally large when they beam through trees, buildings and other foreground objects," according to NASA.

Even though it may have looked close enough to touch, Saturday's full moon was still a healthy distance -- some 211,600 miles (336,577 km) away.

Hope you saw it, or you'll have to wait until 2029 to see it.

Dollar is "I Owe you, Nothing!"

The U.S. Dollar used to be an "IOU gold," until 1971 when President Nixon abandoned the Gold Standard. Today's U.S. dollar has become an "IOU Nothing," in the words of John Exter, former economist at the Federal Reserve.

Today public confidence in the world's 200 paper (fiat) currencies is plummeting. Nearly 8 in 10 people say they don't trust government to solve America's ills.

"The world's monetary system is in the process of melting down. We have entered the endgame for the dollar as the dominant reserve currency, but most investors and policy makers are unaware," reports Bloomberg.

Our foreign creditors are voting with their feet by exiting U.S. Dollars and U.S. debt.

PIMCO, the world's largest fund holding of U.S. government securities, is in the process of dumping ALL of its U.S. government debt.

Today we can all see prices of gas and food rising, so why does the government exclude them from inflation indexes?

Because, and get this, the Obama Administration actually wants higher inflation and a weaker U.S. dollar! Why?

Rising inflation allows Obama et al to; redistribute wealth, and generate more tax revenue from Tax Slaves U.S.A.

Jews Have Total Control over White House and Congress, says Veteran Journalist

Veteran US Journalist Helen Thomas said that Jews have "total control" over the White House and US Congress, telling Playboy magazine in an interview for issue in April, "Everybody is in the pocket of the Israeli lobbies."

Thomas, who covered the White House for more than six decades, was forced to resign from her position at Hearst Corp. last year, after saying in an interview that Jews should "get the hell out of Palestine" and "go home to Poland, Germany and the United States."

Thomas appeared to show no regret for last year's comments, reiterating in the Playboy interview her belief that "Israelis have the right to exist-but where they were born."

"Why shouldn't I say it? I knew exactly what I was doing-I was going for broke. I had reached the point of no return. You finally get fed up," Thomas said.

Thomas denied claims that she was anti-Jewish. "I think they're wonderful people. They had to have the most depth. They were leaders in civil rights. They've always had the heart for others but not for Arabs, for some reason. I'm not anti-Jewish; I'm anti-Zionist."

She explained her comment that Jews should go back to Poland and Germany meant "they should stay where they are because they're not being persecuted-not since World War II...If they were, we sure would hear about it." Thomas added that Jews "carry on the victimization. American people do not know that the Israeli lobbyists have intimidated them into believing that every Jew is a persecuted victim forever-while they are victimizing Palestinians."

When asked whether she believed there was a secret Jewish conspiracy at work in the US, Thomas stated that it is "not a secret. It's very open...Everybody is in the pocket of the Israeli lobbies, which are funded by wealthy supporters, including those from Hollywood. Same thing with the financial markets. There's total control." <http://www.jpost.com/>© The Jerusalem Post.

Representative democracy in the United States has broken down.

Representative democracy in the United States has broken down. Our legislators do not represent those who elected them but rather the minority who finance their political campaigns and who control the organs of communication-the Tee Vee, the newspapers, the billboards, the radio-that have made politics a game for the rich only. Representative government in the USA represents money not people and therefore has forfeited our allegiance and moral support. We owe it nothing, and the taxation it extorts from us under threats of seizure of property, or prison are acts of War against Citizens of United States of America.
