Kiele V Wreckage Drift to Molokai

Kiele V Wreck Drifts to Molokai

The diesel fuel tanks, cabins, fiberglass hull, and bar and galley of what was once a luxury sailing catamaran Kiele V drifted up on east Molokai shores early Monday morning last week. A helicopter was seen hovering over some of the wreckage on the edge of jungle near Moanui Beach.

Disaster struck when the 90 feet tall mast of the 55-foot sailing catamaran Kiele V, operated by the Hyatt Regency Maui Resort & Spa, broke and the vessel was reported to be in distress. The boat was about three miles at sea during a sunset cruise off Kahana last week Sunday with 47 passengers aboard, when the mast broke and killed one man and disabled the vessel.

Two boats in the area Gemini and Teralani III responded to assist taking the passengers to Kaanapali Beach. Three people were taken to Maui Memorial Hospital. One man was killed.

“It didn’t look like there was much damage to the boat,” said Jason Moore, a photographer who was aboard Teralani III. “The mast went underwater with the sail and created an anchor effect.”

Inexplicably, the Kiele V was abandoned, the Captain did not stay with the ship and the Coast Guard did not tow it to safety. It was so badly damaged by the time it drifted down the Pailolo Channel to land on Molokai reefs, it looked like it may have been hit by a barge or cruise ship during the night.

The MAN as asked the Coast Guard why the vessel was allowed to be abandoned, drifting as a hazard to navigation, and pollution on Molokai. The Coast Guard said they couldn’t release details about the agency’s continuing investigation. [photos by George Peabody

New Book Releases:

Molokai : Images of the Friendly Isle

The small coffee table format Molokai: Images of the Friendly Isle includes forty-six full color images of the idyllic beauty of Molokai. The little book is the latest addition to Mutual Publishing's popular "Images" series.

There are spectacular ariel photographs of Molokai's coastline and panoramic photos of historic sites. Special are vast views of Ho'olehua Sweet Potato fields, Kalawao Peninsula, Wailau Valley and Halawa with descriptive captions on each photo. The book is also a document of the island's changes -- some of the once familiar sights are no longer -- surfboards bordering a west end house and picturesque plantation homes, and the St. Sophia Church poinciana tree.

The photographers are Brian Kossen, Brett Uprichard and Douglas Peebles, all known for their photographs of Hawaii.

Considered "the most Hawaiian island of all the islands," the Aloha spirit endures, with much of the landscape untouched. Molokai: Images of the Friendly Isle is an affordable gift book and captures many "the Friendly Isle" vistas [ISBN-10 1-56647-814-6 & ISBN-13 978-1-56647-814-4 8 6.5 inches hardcover; $9.95].\

HAWAIIAN APARTHEID

Hawaiian Apartheid: Racial Separatism and Ethnic Nationalism in the Aloha State by Kenneth R. Conklin, Ph.D. has lived in Hawaii studying Hawaiian sovereignty full-time for 15 years, and speaks Hawaiian.

COST: $16.95 + shipping $5.95 to all 50 states phone: 1-877-613-2665

REGISTRATION: LCCN: 2007923618 ISBN: 978-1-59824-461-8

THIS BOOK is a wakeup call to all America, and especially Hawaii, regarding the growing menace of Hawaiian racial separatism and ethnic nationalism.

One chapter describes Hawaii's current racial separatism of over 160 racial-exclusionary federal programs, plus OHA, DHHL, Kamehameha School, charter schools, immersion schools; and a proposal for racial separatist government through the Akaka bill. Another chapter explores the secessionist independence movement, what it means for people with no native blood. Others examine some important historical falsehoods; victimhood claims; anti-Americanism; bogus claims to indigenous status; sovereignty frauds and scams.

Also, suggested is an agenda for future action to revive unity, equality, and aloha for all residents of Hawaii, regardless of Race.

Molokai's Forum For Freedom Individual's Sovereignty vs Slavery

by George Peabody ph. 558-8253 email:

"We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God."—

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor." (Decl. of Indep.)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

Man shot by intruder posing as FBI agent

"A south Fulton County homeowner was shot early Monday by a masked intruder claiming to be an FBI agent, police said. The suspect kicked in the back door of the home on Hidden Court, in a subdivision off Welcome All Road, about 4 a.m., setting off the home's burglar alarm, Fulton police Cpl. Gary Syblis said.

The 53-year-old victim told police he got out of bed and heard the suspect coming up the stairs, yelling, 'FBI, FBI, FBI,' Syblis said. Syblis said the homeowner confronted the suspect, who was wearing a ski mask and dark clothing.

The suspect fired four times, striking the victim once in the stomach. The victim returned fire, possibly wounding the "FBI" suspect, who fled the home.

Jury Nullification is Your Sovereignty over corrupt judges, attorney, laws.

"Exercising their judgement with discretion and honesty , jurors have a clear conviction that the charge of the court is WRONG."

Liberty exists only among reasoning people. Reasoning jurors defend liberty when they refuse to convict fellow citizens who are maliciously accused of crimes. Reasoning jurors stopped the Salem Witch Trials in 1692 and freed tax protesters during the Whiskey Rebellion of 1794. Juries refused to convict under the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850, during Prohibition 1920 - 30, Vietnam Objectors 1960-1970, Tax Protesters, Medical Marijuana Users, and others.

The defense of our liberties is first at the ballot box, then the soap box, then the jury box, failing all else, the cartridge box. [Got your gun, yet?]

Be Civilized: Carry a Gun

Human beings only have two ways to deal with one another: reason and force. If you want me to do something for you, you have a choice of either convincing me via argument, or force me to do your bidding under threat of force. Every human interaction falls into one of those two categories, without exception. Reason or force, that's it.

In a truly moral and civilized society, people exclusively interact through persuasion. Force has no place as a valid method of social interaction, and the only thing that removes force from the menu is the personal firearm, as paradoxical as it may sound to some.

When I carry a gun, you cannot deal with me by force. You have to use reason and try to persuade me, because I have a way to negate your threat or employment of force. The gun is the only personal weapon that puts a 100-pound woman on equal footing with a 220-pound mugger, a 75-year old retiree on equal footing with a 19-year old gangbanger, and a single gay guy on equal footing with a carload of drunk guys with baseball bats. The gun removes the disparity in physical strength, size, or numbers between attacker and a defender.

There are plenty of people who consider the gun as the source of bad force equations. These are the people who think that we'd be more civilized if all guns were removed from society, because a firearm makes it easier for a mugger to do his job. That, of course, is only true if the mugger's potential victims are mostly disarmed either by choice or by legislative fiat--it has no validity when most of a mugger's potential marks are armed. People who argue for the banning of arms ask for automatic rule by the young, the strong, and the many, and that's the exact opposite of a civilized society. A mugger, even an armed one, can only make a successful living in a society where the state has granted him a force monopoly.

Then there's the argument that the gun makes confrontations lethal that otherwise would only result in injury. This argument is fallacious in several ways. Without guns involved, confrontations are won by the physically superior party inflicting overwhelming injury on the loser. People who think that fists, bats, sticks, or stones don't constitute lethal force watch too much TV, where people take beatings and come out of it with a bloody lip at worst. The fact that the gun makes lethal force easier works solely in favor of the weaker defender, not the stronger attacker. If both are armed, the field is level. The gun is the only weapon that's as lethal in the hands of an octogenarian as it is in the hands of a weightlifter. It simply wouldn't work as well as a force equalizer if it wasn't both lethal and easily employable.

When I carry a gun, I don't do so because I am looking for a fight, but because I'm looking to be left alone. The gun at my side means that I cannot be forced, only persuaded. I don't carry it because I'm afraid, but because it enables me to be unafraid. It doesn't limit the actions of those who would interact with me through reason, only the actions of those who would do so by force. It removes force from the equation...and that's why carrying a gun is a civilized act.

The right of a citizen to bear arms, in lawful defense of himself or the State, is absolute. He does not derive it from the State government. It is one of the high powers" delegated directly to the citizen, and is excepted out of the general powers of government. A law cannot be passed to infringe upon or impair it, because it is above the law, and independent of the lawmaking power." [Cockrum v. State, 24 Tex. 394, at 401-402 (1859)]

Read the LAW: 2nd Amendment tells the government agents that "A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

You Can Protect Freedom: Question Authority!

"Where Rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them." Miranda v Arizona, (1966)

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
