Hawaii's State Sovereignty Can Be The Power to Nullify Obama's Socialism

The Tenth Amendment

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Federal Supremacy Clause Smackdown

by Brion McClanahan

Hawaii residents' healthcare will suffer the downsides of ObamaCARE socialism unless we nullify Obama's new federal law with our 10th Am sovereignty.

When Idaho Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter signed HO391 into law last week, he required the Idaho attorney general to sue the Obama Regime over insurance mandates that force Americans to buy ObamaCARE health insurance or face prosecution, fines, even prison. It's unConstitutional to force insurance on people.

The "national" news media circled the wagons and began another assault on State sovereignty. AP reporter John Miller, quoted constitutional "scholar" David Freeman Engstrom of Stanford Law School as stating that the Idaho law would be irrelevant because of the "supremacy clause" of the United States Constitution.

In his words, "That language is clear that federal law is supreme over state law, so it really doesn't matter what a state legislature says on this." He is wrong.

Now that Barack Obama has signed healthcare legislation into law, almost a dozen States have filed suit against the federal government, with Idaho in the lead. Unfortunately, the question of State sovereignty and the true meaning [page 2 ]

Hanamatsuri Celebrated At Molokai Biddhist Temple

Sunday, March 28, Molokai Buddhists celebrated Buddha Day, also called "Hanamatsuri" or "flower festival". The legend tells of the events at the time of Prince Siddhartha's birth now celebrated around the world on April 8. The Hanamido or miniature floral altar of bright flowers signifies the Lumbini Garden where the Buddha was born. The statue of the baby Buddha with one arm pointing to heaven and one to earth illustrates the merits of Buddha reaching out to all beings. The pouring of sweet tea on the statue represents the gentle rain that fell in Lumbini Garden and bathed the baby Buddha. For over 2,500 years, Buddhists around the world have celebrated the birth of Buddha who, guided by wisdom and vitalized by compassion continues to inspire to the ultimate meaning of life.

Reverend R. Kokuzo, from the Waipahu Soto Mussion first led everyone in the singing of "Happy Birthday, dear Buddha". He told the story of Hanamatsuri and also gave the message of Spring Ohigan, the changing of the seasons and the six Paramitas. The service was emceed by Trevor and Trenton Takata, sons of Guy and Lisa Takata. Refreshments were followed by Buddha Bingo!

Though celebrated early here, Hanamatsuri will be celebrated by all the Buddhist sects in Honolulu on April 4 at Honpa Hongwanji Betsuin at Pali Hwy.

In April, the Molokai Soto Mission will be on Sunday the 18th. Zazen, sitting meditation at 8:30am and service at 10am. All are welcome.

TRUSTEE KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS

State Sovereignty vs. Obama's Socialism Federal Supremacy Clause Smackdown

Idaho and the thirty seven other States considering similar legislation have a strong case based on the original intent of the powers of the federal government vis-à-vis the States.

The so-called "supremacy clause" of the Constitution, found in Article 6, states, "This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding."

The key, of course, is the federal laws trump state powers IF the federal laws are made in pursuance of the Constitution, or the law is clearly enumerated as a federal power. In other words, the federal government is supreme in all areas clearly listed in the Constitution for the United States of America.

A quick reading of the Constitution illustrates that national healthcare is not one of the enumerated powers of the federal government. DUH !!

The inclusion of such a clause in the Constitution was first debated at the Constitutional Convention on 31 May 1787. In order to avoid taking away the powers of the states... James Madison, the author of the Virginia Plan, wished the national legislature to be supreme in all cases. But he was not in the majority. To most of the assembled delegates, the national government was not the benign center of the political universe, more of a threat to freedom as was Britain, and the States retained their sovereignty. Hugh Williamson of North Carolina emphatically stated he "was against giving a power that might restrain the states from regulating their internal police."

Thus, the federal government was Constitutionally allowed to be supreme only in its enumerated powers defined there in, and it did not have a negative over State law. Federal Supremacy was given its limits. If Congress, under pretence of executing one power, should, in fact, usurp another, they will violate the Constitution and the new law will be void. [e.g., ObamaCARE; gun control, etc]

But many felt the Constitution still vested too much power in the central authority. The States demanded an amendment to the Constitution that expressly maintained the sovereignty of the States and placed limits on federal power. Even several moderate supporters of the Constitution embraced this idea.

Ultimately, the three most powerful States in the Union, New York, Massachusetts, and Virginia, demanded that a bill of rights be immediately added to the Constitution; near the top of those recommended amendments on every list, a State sovereignty resolution. These ultimately became the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution, which reads, "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Clearly the intent of this amendment was to mitigate any design the federal government had on enlarging its powers through the "supremacy clause." If the power was not enumerated in the Constitution and the States were not prohibited by the Constitution from exercising said power, then that power was reserved to the States or to The People United States Citizens.

Today, socialist Duke Law Professor Neil Siegel said, "Any talk of nullification [against ObamaCARE etc] bothers me because it's talk of lawlessness."

I guess Mr. Siegel has failed to consider that Idaho bill HO391 was passed by a legitimate legislative body elected by the people of the State. That would make it lawful. [And Hawaii should be expediting such nullification laws, too !]

The original intent of both the "supremacy clause" and the Tenth Amendment indicate that Idaho and the other States challenging Obamacare are justified and correct and that the legal professionals are either in the tank for the federal government, as usual, or have not read either the debates of the Constitutional Convention and/or the State ratifying debates. This should make people like Engstrom and Siegel, rather than legitimate State law directed at unconstitutional authority, irrelevant. [OBAMA: Huka wai i ke pili !]

Americans Need Ways To Defend Against Militarized Police State Ray-guns Developed for "Crowd Control"

video link: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XSQarX2bNtQ>

This military devise is used to attack individuals and/or crowds by shooting a beam of high frequency energy waves that burn the skin and feel intense pain to force them to disperse and give up their right to free speech and assembly. Targeted people are located using a low light video camera and a thermal imager at night. Like a micro-wave cooker, this assault weapon heats water molecules in your skin to 130 degrees, thus causing great pain, and need to escape.

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up! Enforce the Bill of Rights!

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
