Obama's War on Drugs

Yep, Obama's idea of "Change" in American War on Drugs seems to be the 1984 version: "War is Peace". Obama's war on drugs will continue: DEA/SWAT raids on non-violent medical marijuana users with the usual results of accidentally murdering people and dogs, and destruction of property, destroyed lives, perjured testimony by cops and prosecutors, billions of dollars for the War on Drugs that makes criminals rich and violent and funds a growing Police State ultra vires.

See the Video of SWAT Team Killing Dogs in Front of Child During Pot Raid. http://stopthedrugwar.org/chronicle/631/columbia_missouri_SWAT_raid_dog_killed_marijuana

Police in Columbia are reporting death threats as the video goes viral and Internet message boards grow bloated with angry, outraged comments. As of Friday morning, the YouTube video had been watched more than 500,000 times. A whopping 593 comments Thursday night, the vast majority critical of police, many downright hostile, and for good reason: Police abuse of authority in USA.

The SWAT team hit the home of Jonathan Whitworth, 25, with a search warrant alleging he was holding a major amount of marijuana and was a drug dealer. They found a pipe, a grinder, and a small amount of marijuana. Along the way, they shot their dogs, killing one of them, shouted profanities at the frightened family, and generally behaved as if they were raiding a murderous gang of illegal aliens.

Of course, the Police claimed they shot and killed a pit bull because it was "acting in an uncontrollably aggressive manner," but while the video shows barking, it shows no growling. No reason was given for shooting and wounding the second dog, a little Corgi. And, police said they were unaware that a child resided at the home. Between the bad intelligence indicating they had a major drug bust and the bad intelligence regarding who lived at the target residence, the police actions exemplify a fascist trend in its procedures and a local judiciary inclined to rubber stamp search warrant applications. [This is why the 2nd Amendment right to keep and bear arms was included in the Bill of Rights: shoot fascist INTRUDERS !]

Jonathan Whitworth was arrested on minor marijuana possession and drug paraphernalia charges. His wife and son are traumatized for life, his dogs are dead and maimed, his life ruined. Why?

Remember, back in 2004, Columbia voted to make adult marijuana law offenses the lowest law enforcement priority. Somebody should mention that to the Columbia police department and its out-of-control SWAT team.

In contrast, the Washington, D.C. city council approved legislation to allow medical marijuana use their city, though with very strict controls. And, International Marijuana Marches take place May 8, from Auckland to Austin and from Madison to Missoula, marijuana supporters call for legalization. Cures Not Wars activists in more than 320 cities across the planet take the local initiative in their own communities. In some places, particularly Canada and New Zealand, marchers come out in the thousands. Reports from Europe and Latin America are that most marches there will take place the following weekend, with large crowds expected in Buenos Aires and Mexico City.

Back in Obama's Police State Amerika, a leaked copy of Obama's new drug policy 2010 from the Office of National Drug Control Policy aka the drug czar's office, repeatedly stresses the importance of reducing supply of drugs into the United States through crop eradication and interdiction efforts, international collaboration, etc. The bottom line here is that Obama's 'non war on drugs' will still look and feel like a war on drugs under Barack Obama.

"There is no recognition that they aren't very effective and do more harm than good. Coming only a couple of weeks after the drug czar testified under oath that eradication had no impact on the availability of drugs in the US, to then put out a strategy embracing what he said was least effective is quite disturbing."

They took a gratuitous shot at marijuana reform. Its fraudulent and sickening Obama administration felt the need to bash marijuana use that half of Americans support and to do it in the way they did, listing a litany of false Reefer Madness allegations and connecting marijuana to virtually every problem in America.

May Day at Kualapuu

Friday, April 30, May Day at Kualapu'u celebrated "Aloha Kalaupapa" with song and dance by the students at the Charter School. The May Day court, King and Queen and their island princesses were regal as proud parents, family and friends watched. ho'kupu and song and dance offered by their fellow students. Pictured are the second graders with their "Holoholo Ka'a" around the island.

The lei contest featured creative and quality workmanship, earning some entrants prizes. One unique winning entry was Channon's "musubi lei" and a fishing lure lei.

Prince and Princess of Kahoolawe, Leonahe was adorned with hinahinaka-hakai.

Some keiki came with kukui lau and pua made in the traditional hili style.

Why doesn't the United States government take action to stamp out Israeli interference on American soil? The counterintelligence official suggests an answer: money. Congress has the oversight power to take on Israel's covert and overt activities. But as Senator J. William Fulbright once famously said, Congress is "Israeli-occupied territory."

"They own it lock, stock and barrel," says the former counterintelligence official. "You have all these people on Capitol Hill whose campaigns are funded by groups representing a foreign power. Well, the only purpose of AIPAC is to promote the welfare and the security of that foreign power."

He continues, "It's the money that's so corrupting. Where the system is being abused—where it starts to break down and fail to work the way the Framers intended—is when the two or three percent of the country, the pro-Israel people, outspends by a thousand-to-one any other lobby. When AIPAC says we want something, Congress salutes and says, 'How much and what color?' The American people need to know the truth about this."

The Bush Administration counterintelligence official even suggests, although the allegation has never been fully investigated, that Israel has illegally used U.S. foreign aid by laundering it back into this country as campaign contributions. If true, this would mean American interests are being subverted with its own money.

As former CIA officer Michael Scheuer writes: "Bravo, Israel!"

Akaka Tribe: 73% of Hawaiians NOT "Qualified" for membership

By Andrew Walden

You may be Hawaiian—but chances are you are not "Qualified" to become a member of the allegedly "Hawaiian" Indian Tribe proposed under Neil Abercrombie and Dan Akaka.

If created under US law, the Akaka Tribe will negotiate to take control of land and other assets in Hawaii which are supposedly the property of all native Hawaiian people—but the majority of native Hawaiians will be excluded from participating in the organization of the Native Hawaiian Interim Governing Council. They could remain excluded from the Tribe that the Interim Governing Council organizes.

On one hand, Section 4(a)(4) of the Senate Akaka Bill states: "Native Hawaiians have an inherent right to autonomy in their internal affairs (and) inherent right of self-determination and self-governance the right to reorganize a Native Hawaiian governing entity...."

But Section 8(a) recognizes only: "The right of the qualified Native Hawaiian constituents to reorganize the single Native Hawaiian governing entity...."

Who are allowed to become "Qualified Native Hawaiian Constituents" will be determined by a "commission" of nine members. FYI: There are exactly nine OHA Trustees.

"Qualified Native Hawaiian Constituents" is a brand new classification which has not been used in any previous version of the Akaka Bill. Only these so-called "Qualified Hawaiians" may participate in electing the Native Hawaiian Interim Governing Council. This Interim Council will propose rules for the Tribe as a whole, -- including rules about who may or may not become members. Since a smaller Tribe means more money for each individual member and easier control by political cronies a bias will exist in favor of keeping as many Hawaiians as possible out of the tribe. Many mainland Indian tribes have cut down their tribal rolls by changing the rules of membership in order to grab a larger share of gaming revenues for each of the remaining members.

The Interim Council is itself considered an Indian Tribe according to Section 10(c) and so it operates under the same Federal Indian Laws which have allowed several California gaming tribes to expel hundreds of members in a grab for gambling profits.

Under the conditions set forth in S1011, Section 3(12), for an Hawaiian to become a "Qualified Native Hawaiian Constituent" all five of the following conditions must be met:

(A) Must be direct lineal descendant of indigenous people living in Hawaii on or before January 1, 1893 or of a person eligible in 1921 for Hawaiian Homelands.

(B) Wishes to participate in the reorganization of the Native Hawaiian governing entity

(C) is 18 years of age or older;

(D) is a citizen of the United States; and

(E) maintains a significant cultural, social, or civic connection to the Native Hawaiian community, as evidenced by satisfying 2 or more of 10 criteria

Part (B) most likely means excluding all persons who do not sign up for Kau Inoa. The December, 2009 Kau Inoa News proudly announces: "Those who register in Kau Inoa will help shape the Hawaiian nation to come."

The 2000 US Census counted over 401,000 Hawaiians in the US. The Kau Inoa number is less than 27% of all Native Hawaiians, but it gets worse.

Rule (E) excludes many of the roughly 122,000 Hawaiians living outside of Hawaii. Exceptions are made for college students, military personnel, federal employees (such as Congressional staffers) and their dependents, Hawaiian Homelands beneficiaries, their children and grandchildren.

Qualification in Part (E) is membership in a Native Hawaiian Membership Organization, but does not contain a list of such organizations.

The last rule could "Qualify" people who have no Hawaiian ancestry: (x) If regarded as a Native Hawaiian and whose mother or father was regarded as a Native Hawaiian by the Native Hawaiian community, as evidenced by sworn affidavits from 2 or more qualified Native Hawaiian constituents certified by the Commission.....". These rules are allegedly designed to avoid creation of a Tribe whose membership is designated simply by race--without regard for any affirmative affiliation to the tribe.

The Akaka Tribe as proposed will be dominated by the corrupt political operators who looted Kamehameha Schools and much of Hawaii's corrupt political and business dealings.

The so-called Sovereignty movement has absolutely no continuity with the Hawaiian Kingdom whose political resistance ended with the disintegration of the Home Rule Party after Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole agreed in 1902 to represent the Territory of Hawaii as a Republican in the US Congress.

You cannot legislate the poor into prosperity by legislating the wealthy out of prosperity. What one person receives without working for, another person must work for without receiving. The Obama regime cannot give to anybody anything that the Obama regime does not first take from somebody else.

When half of the people get the idea that they do not have to work because the other half is going to take care of them, and when the other half gets the idea that it does no good to work because somebody else is going to get what they work for, that my dear friend, is the beginning of the end of any nation. If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. Black Patriot Loves His Guns, Hates Obama

Black United States Citizen Patriot Chris Broughton loves his guns and hates President Obama — so much, in fact, that he believes the president belongs in hell. He's not too fond of George W. Bush, either.

Broughton made headlines in August 2009 when he showed up outside an Obama rally in Phoenix with an AR-15 assault rifle slung over his shoulder and a pistol holstered on his waist, becoming a hero to many in the "Patriot" movement in the process. He said he carries his guns habitually.

Broughton, apparently assuming that the Obama Administration planned gun control measures, said he wanted to make a point about the right to own guns. "The overwhelming statement I was trying to make was whether you like it or not, my guns aren't going away," said the Phoenix machinist. "They're going to be here until you kill me and take them away."

He claims that some news broadcasters edited video footage of the scene to hide his race (he's black) when reporting on the racist backlash to Obama's election. Presumably, he felt that was part of an effort to paint Obama's critics as racist.

Broughton is a member of We the People, a Patriot tax protest group that has played a central role in the resurgence of the militia movement. He also belongs to the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe. That's the church where pastor Steven Anderson told the congregation in August 2009 he would pray that Obama dies and goes to hell. Broughton said he believes there is a hell, and that it was made for evil people – folks like Obama, both former Bush presidents, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and leaders of the Southern Poverty Law Center.

"Barack Obama is responsible for more death than my guns ever will be," Broughton said. "He could end so much suffering immediately, and instead he uses his power to force his agenda. I do hate him."

One of the more insidious and freedom hating gun prohibitionist groups in America has, for decades, been the "Southern Poverty Law Center". Obama's Homeland Security czareta Janet Napolitano ("Big Sis") drools over their every word. SPLC issued a sort of "enemies list" implying that if you own a gun, and are willing to defend yourself and your loved ones from either criminals, or a government-gone-bad, you are:

1. A "racist".
2. An "anti-Semite".
3. A "conspiracy theorist".
4. A "tax resistor".
5. Distrustful of the Federal Reserve.
6. An "anti government extremist".
7. An "anti immigration extremist".
8. A "religious fanatic".
9. A member of "The Militia".
10. Just plain filled with "hate".

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

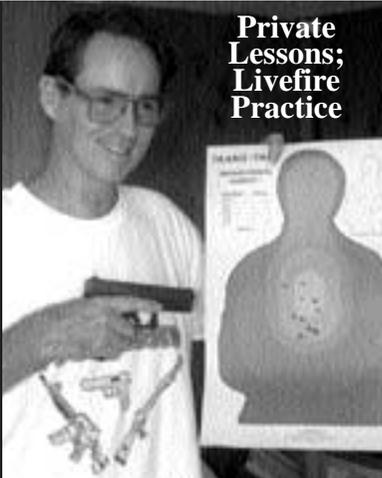

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Dear Editor: Clean House and Ship Out 60-M Illegal Aliens

This is what we say ... " every politician that says we can't deport 60 million invaders in our nation and Illegal Criminal Alien Invaders are doing work US citizens won't do and Illegal Criminal Alien Invaders should pay a fine and become citizens ... should be put out of office , ". Those that agree with us ; join us and vote the bums out ...

What in the world are you bitchin about .. we can't drive our car, ride our bikes, or walk the streets with out being prepared to answer the questions ... " show me your ID and are you on parole "

... so how are you going to justify that Illegal Criminal Alien Invaders don't have to be prepared to show their proper identification. You my friend are ridiculous , and if you have no intention of honoring reasonable behavior .. we accept your vote to apply vigilante justice and hang , lynch , round up and burn all and any invaders of our nation.

The 1986 Ronald Reagan amnesty was not to be the first of many amnesties, nor a kind of experimental plug in the flow of human beings from a poor country to a rich one. To the contrary, it was to be the "last amnesty."

Pushed by liberals in Congress like Teddy Kennedy, it was supposed to settle and legalize the illegals already in the United States, while controlling future immigration. It was to be the solution.

These people are NOT trying to be a part of us.

The year is 1907, one hundred years ago, but the speaker knew what he was talking about.

Theodore Roosevelt's ideas on Immigrants and being an AMERICAN in 1907: "In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin. But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American and nothing but an American. There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag. We have room for but one language here and that is the English language and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people." —Theodore Roosevelt 1907

For you , the citizens in the northern and eastern tiers of the nation (our cousins by blood and by marriage) to try and determine how we the citizens along the southern border of our nation (your cousins by blood and by marriage) should feel about Illegal Criminal Alien Invaders terrorizing our communities is like us along the southern border telling you how many snow plows you need. We have NO IDEA of what it takes to clear your streets of snow. Instead of waxing Holy ... you should take our advice.

And for you Fat Cat rich guys who can always find a reason why the little guy never needs a break .. how bout you march you fat money bags butt out with the Marines and fight and die to protect your far flung assets.

And as for crying about there not being enough money in government .. listen; dummy ... stop buying bombs. Take a year off from buying bombs and use that money in the economy. Who do we need to bomb anyway. And who do we have to bomb that will use up all the bombs we have. You say .. mexico

New CD Release Keola Beamer & Raiatea

Alone, Keola Beamer and Raiatea are superstars in the Hawaiian music lexicon.

Together, they have collaborated in the creation of a work of art. Moving, personal and exciting, the two met in mid-2008. Through a talent coordinator for an event at Ala Moana Beach Park who suggested to Raiatea to collaborate with Keola Beamer. Amazed that "the legend" Keola Beamer would want to work with her, Raiatea agreed. That event where they sang "Iesu no ke Kahu Hipa and "Ina, Imagine." They decided to collaborate in this CD.

Keola's voice, slack key and guitar and Raiatea's voice with her ukulele artistry compliment each other. It is a musical union of two musical families resulting in a Na Hoku Hanohano award-winning performance.

Between John Lennon's "Imagine" and "Kimo Hula" written by Keola's grandmother, Helen Desha Beamer, there are nine other well-chosen songs. The CD was produced by Starscape Music and Raiatea Helm Records and is distributed by Mountain Apple Company.
