Illegal Trash Fire Smoke Chokes Waialua Valley June 9

This year's brush fire season is under way as expected, according to Maui Fire Chief Jeff Murray. The choking billowing smoke from this out of control trash fire that originated at Theo Wainwright's residence in Waialua Valley in the afternoon of June 9 was an example of how easily dangers posed by illegal trash fires can become a real life problem, and expensive for Taxpayers who pay for the MFD helicopter that was called in to dump ocean water on the blaze that was inaccessible to MPD pumper trucks. "People need to be more responsible, whether it's cigarettes or open fires, campfires or cooking fires. They just need to be aware. With the dry conditions, if something gets started, it's going to go quickly," noted Murry.

Murray said residents also can help by calling 911 as soon as they see something suspicious. "We would rather be there early," he said. "In three to five minutes, that brush fire will be a lot bigger and a lot harder to control."

The importance of trimming overgrowth and clearing debris, especially near residents living on the edge of wildland areas are precautions of vital importance, and law. A minimum brush clearance of 30 feet is required around houses and other structures, although a larger area is called for in some situations. "If you are downwind or uphill of an area, the distances could be increased up to 100 feet," he said.

Nineteen citations have been issued so far this year for fire hazard violations. If a lot hasn't been cleared by the time of a follow-up inspection, a second letter is sent notifying the owner of the violation carrying fines of up to $1,000 a day.

Murray said Fire Department commanders have been working to respond quickly to brush fires, calling on the Fire Department's Air One helicopter, county bulldozers and other resources to stop the fires from spreading.

In the public interest, the people who are responsible for illegal fires should be required to pay for the expense of extinguishment.

Kamehameha Day Holiday June 11, 2008

The first Great Anexator of the Hawaiian Islands was King Kamehameha I (1740-1819). With the aid of two American sailors, John Young and Issac Davis, and the military methods and musket and cannon, mounted on the bow of his ocean going war canoes, Kamehameha I was able to spill the blood of thousands of Hawaiian warriors resisting on each island, and thus annexed each island into his Kingdom of Hawaii by the 1795. Only Kauai was not yet conquered.

Before Kamehameha, the eight major Hawaiian Islands of the mid 1700's, isolated by thousands of miles of open ocean, was home to approximately 1,000,000 Kanaka Maoli, the descendants of native Americans and Inca's adrift at sea, ancient seafarers from the southwest whose migrations eventually settle most of Polynesia, and an occasional shirwrecked European or Asian sailor. Each island a system of feudal states ruled by Ali'i (chiefs) and Kahuna (priests) bonded by blood thru polygamy, constantly battling for control. The bountiful 'aina (land) and wai (water) worked by maka'ainana (commoners) and kauwa (slaves) captured in war, farmed taro loi (fields) and loko i'a (fishponds). At the harvest time, the Makahiki, a celebration of games lasting from October to January mandated a cessation of all work and war. Human sacrifice was offered to the Gods, insuring success in war, good harvest and spiritual favor. Cannibalistic rites passed the mana (wisdom and power) from chiefs to chief.

Kamehameha I also tried to unite all of Polynesia via Tahiti though marriage, but that attempt failed. The end of his rule came on May 8, 1819.

Chief Kalaimoku expressed the feeling of those present that on this exceptional occasion in honor of our Great Chief. Kamehameha's bones were hidden in a cave in the hills behind Kona, inviolate to this day, having been gleaned and flesh consumed to insure mana as was the custom.

Molokai High School Graduates 2008

May 31, all 99 graduating members of the Molokai High School's Class of 2008 marched through the MHS Barn as official students for the last time.

The commencement exercises were highlighted with an address from Dr. Sonia Patel, a 1991 alumnus of MHS. Dr. Patel was the valedictorian of her class and earned the State of Hawaii, Board of Education, recognition diploma graduating summa cum laude (with highest honors). For her senior project, Dr. Patel started the Molokai Earth Preservation Organization. Today, most people have come to know this club as MEPO. The group remains very active in environmental preservation issues on Molokai.

Prior to Dr. Patel's address, senior Arian Blair, daughter of James, Jr. and Brigitte Blair, was recognized as the class salutatorian. Arian's high academic achievements earned her this honor and her comments thanked the many who had helped her over the years.

There were four students who were recognized and honored as class valedictorians, graduating at the top of their class. Kristan Forsberg (daughter of Tim and Susan Forsberg) Kelsy Takashima (daughter of Dana and Becky Takashima), Tierra Madani (daughter of Laurie Madani), and Ayla Bicoy (daughter of Dathan and Alicia Bicoy) each took their turns at the podium. Together, the quartet covered the gamut of their lives and touched upon what is yet to come.

As the names of 38 young men and 57 young ladies were read, each student went forward to receive his or her coveted diploma representing four years of hard work and a stepping stone to the future. Twenty-six graduates were recognized for academic achievements.

Receiving the BOE Recognition Diploma, Cum Laude (with honors) were: Whitney Apo, Alea Arce, Kulauokalani Chow, Jonathan Clemente, Quirino Espejo, Pulamalani Hanaoka, Cheyanne Kelihoomalua, Christine Keliikuli-Peters, Donovan Keliipuleole, Jaime Langer, K-Cel Pawn-Kalilikane, Daniel Pelekane-Tamashiro, James Puaa-Spencer, David Puaoi-Dawson, Nelson Rapanot, Jr., Ashley Sullivan, Kegal-Joe Tancayo, Jr., and Rusty Valdez. Three students earned the BOE Recognition Diploma, Magna Cum Laude (with higher honors): Tesia Hirose, Chelsea Kapuni, and Nicolette Montizor.

The BOE Recognition Diploma, Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors) was presented to: Ayla Bicoy, Arian Blair, Kristan Forsberg, Tierra Madani, and Kelsy Takashima.

The graduates who earned the BOE Recognition Diploma wore distinguishing blue and gold honor cords and tassels to signify their accomplishments. Additionally, Ayla, Kelsy, Kristan, Tierra, and Cheyanne were adorned with a light blue stole (banner) that identified them as members of the MHS National Honor Society. These students were selected to the NHS and had to maintain a 3.5 MPA every quarter since their initiation. Selection is based on scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

As the conclusion of the exercises drew near, the seniors held their breath as MHS Principal Linda Puleloa pronounced them as graduates of Molokai High School and issued her final instructions to them to, "Move your tassels."

The recession immediately drew parents, family, and friends to the parking lot in front of the school. As the graduates rushed out, they were greeted by huge wall of greeters to help celebrate the special day.

Molokai's Forum For Freedom Individual's Sovereignty vs Slavery

by George Peabody ph. 558-8253 email:

"We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God."—

COMMON LAWS

Hawaii Revised Statutes section 1-1 :

The common law of England, as ascertained by English and American decisions, is declared to be the common law of the State of Hawaii, in all cases, except as established by Hawaiian usage; provided that no person shall be subject to criminal proceedings except as provided by the written laws of the United States or the State of Hawaii.

The vast government bureaucracy consists of employees whose job duties can never be confused with legal duties. Since the United States district court judges obtain whatever authority they have pursuant to Article IV of the Constitution, they are accurately employees rather than officers of the United States. A close examination of the United States Code will reveal them to be the federal government employees around which most federal laws revolve.

The Constitution and all the laws enacted pursuant to the Constitution are laws for the agents employed by our government system, and are NOT for control of the people. The people have their own set of laws called the common law.

Most people have forgotten that all the "repeated Injuries and Usurpations" and "Oppressions" set forth in the Unanimous Declaration of Independence resulted in no criminal punishment for the British. However, history records that many of the 56 signers of that great document suffered grievously for their stand against the King.

The Unanimous Declaration of Independence provides all the reasons needed to alter or abolish existing government, and the Constitution provides the means to carry it out, that is, if attorney-politician hands can be taken from the necks of the people.

The lack of justice in America is the fault of the governments, but the problem will only be solved by enforcement of the law of the land by American Citizens against abusive public servants.

Impeach Linda Lingle from the Office of Governor of Hawaii, and take Lt. Gov. Duke Iona, Lingle's co-conspirator to prison, too.

Impeach President George Bush from Office of President and prosecute him for TREASON, WAR CRIMES, and FRAUD!

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment: "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke

"Those who make peaceful change impossible, make violent change inevitable." -- Robert F. Kennedy

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

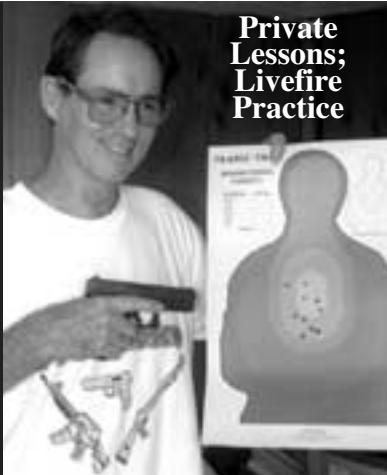

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
