Jews Demand Compensation from Palestinians ? !

Embattled and increasingly isolated after the murtherous attack on unarmed passengers of the Humanitarian Flotilla to Gaza by the Jews Military from Israel, a group of politicians are now proposing a bill that would outlaw boycotts against the Jewish State, and force oppressed and starving Palestinians to pay.

"The Land of Israel", a right-wing parliamentary lobby group committed to Jewish settlement of the West Bank, submitted the bill with the support of 25 politicians from right wing and centrist parties. If approved, it could force the Palestinian Authority (PA) to pay thousands of dollars in compensation to Jewish businesses affected by the Fayyad-led boycott campaign. The boycott calls for Palestinians to shun all products made in the Jewish settlements, most of which sit on expropriated Palestinian farmland and are regarded as illegal.

The move comes amid a growing global backlash against Israeli policies, which has intensified since Israel launched its bloody raid on a Turkish-led humanitarian convoy trying to breach the blockade of the Gaza Strip two weeks ago.

Even before the flotilla affair, a campaign to persuade artists and authors to protest what they describe as an illegal and oppressive military occupation of the Palestinian territories was gaining ground. "Merely having your name added to a concert may be interpreted as a political act... and it may be assumed that one has no mind for the suffering of the innocent," Costello said prior to the raid.

After last week's deadly raid on the flotilla, US rock band The Pixies cancelled their gig set up by the Jews. Several other bands have followed suit, prompting Israeli music promoter Shuki Weiss to complain that performers are waging a form of "cultural terrorism".

Human rights activists, meanwhile, decried efforts by politicians to alienate those critical of Israel with new legislation. "We have wild right-wing politicians presenting wild demagogic bills ... which create a very nasty public atmosphere," said Adam Keller, spokesman for Gush Shalom, an Israeli NGO that has joined calls for a boycott of Jewish settler-made goods. "If this is passed into law, it would mean a total breakdown between Israel and the PA."

Israel has condemned Mr Fayyad's boycott campaign as harmful to the fragile peace process, and Israeli settler leaders have urged the government to respond with harsh retaliatory measures against supporters.

Should the proposal gain traction in its current form, it would force boycotters to pay compensation to settlers who claim their business had suffered. It would also affect foreign citizens calling for a boycott of Israel, potentially barring them from Israel for 10 years.

But activists said attempts to muzzle peace activists would make the movement stronger. "No Knesset laws can stop this tide of non-violent, morally consistent struggle for justice, self determination, equality and freedom," political activist Omar Barghouti said in a statement.

Fayyad, an economist, has provided the boycott campaign with fresh impetus in recent weeks, putting it at the heart of a peaceful resistance movement aimed at winning over international support. The boycott calls for Palestinians to shun all products made in the Jewish settlements, most of which sit on expropriated Palestinian farmland and are regarded as illegal under international law.

The PA has also barred Palestinians from working in the settlements as of the end of this year, an unpopular move only slightly eased by the promise of a $50m "dignity" fund designed to help workers make the transition. The PA has threatened those who fail to comply with fines.

The Jewish settlements, which sit atop the West Bank hills, have long been a thorn in the side of the peace process. Palestinians have maintained that as long as Jews are grabbing Palestinian land in the West Bank, Israel cannot be committed to a two-state solution.

"If I were a Palestinian, I would certainly join the boycott that is being imposed on the settlements and their products," wrote Yossi Sarid, a commentator in liberal Israeli newspaper Ha'aretz. "After all, it would not be human to expect me to buy my tombstone from people who were determined to bury my hopes for a good life and independence."

Israeli Minister of Minority Affairs, Avishay Braverman, who is responsible for Israel's Arab population, said the boycott was a diversion from the pressing need for direct peace talks between the Israelis and Palestinians. US-sponsored efforts have brought both sides back to talks, but not in the same room.

"This boycott will have no real impact on Israel, but will harm Palestinian workers," said Mr Braverman, a former World Bank economist.

It may be hard to find Israel-made products in Hawaii to boycott. One obvious target, not here yet, will be one of the darling electric vehicle projects embraced by Zionist Linda Lingle and DBEDT. "Better Place" is an Israeli company that Lingle wants to manufacture electric vehicles and charging stations to be used in Hawaii. Jewish owned "Better Place" has installed charging stations at illegal settlements in the West Bank. Palestinians themselves are not allowed to use those roads. Highway 443, is a road used by thousands of Jewish commuters daily and through the occupied West Bank, but the Jews have banned Palestinians whose land and villages the road traverses from accessing it, reserving it effectively for Jews only. Prior to Israel's seizure of the road, it had been a main artery for Palestinian traffic south of Ramallah.

Shia's Princess Party

June 12 was a special day for Shia Bush, her family and many friends. Five years since her last chemotherapy treatment, Shia, now six years old, had spent most of her first year in Kapiolani Women's and Children's Hospital. The special celebration was planned by Shia's mother, Maile Silva with an outdoor party at the Kalae Pavilion. Shia and her older brother Channon and twin brothers along with many cousins enjoyed the balloon making skills of Auntie Kalae, face painting, cotton candy and shaved ice. Adults enjoyed the special Chinese lunch and band music. Jumping Castle, planned specially for Princess Shia and her friends was the big hit of this special milestone celebration.

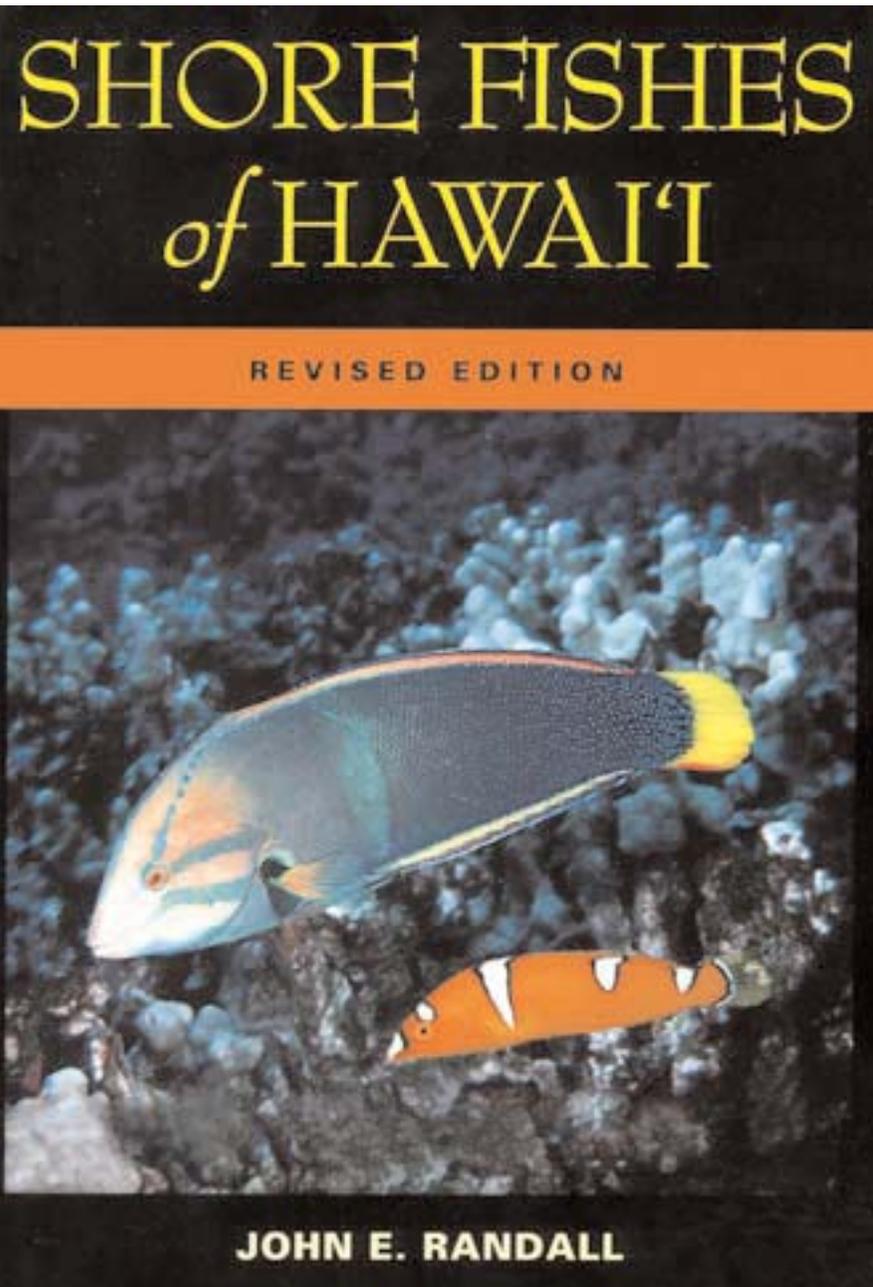

Earlier this year, Shia, her brothers and mother were treated to a special weekend by Maui's A Keiki's Dream. Shia's wish was to "be a Princess." The Keiki's Dream organization hosted shopping trips, visits to special places and a complete Princess wardrobe.

New Book Release

Shore Fishes of Hawai'i

Revised Edition

Author: John E. Randall

This new edition of Shore Fishes of Hawai'i updates our knowledge of Hawaiian fishes and has been expanded to include 372 species. All are illustrated by the author's 475 superb photographs. The most important characteristics to identify a fish are given as well as the size attained and its distribution. Each species account begins with the American common name, followed by the Hawaiian name (when known), and the scientific name in italics. Because it is necessary to use some scientific terminology when giving the principal diagnostic characteristics of families or species of fishes and what they eat, a handy glossary appears at the back of the book before the Index.

Sharks, rays, eels, bonefish, squirrel fish, gobies, wrasses, dragonets, blennies, butterfly fishes, sea chubs, goat fishes, angle fishes, surgeon fishes, barracudas, armorheads, knifejaws, parrot fishes, damsel fishes, flounders, Hawaii's fishes are some of the wide variety of forms, sizes. The foremost authority on tropical fishes, Dr. Randall has organized this scholarly text for ocean lovers, fishermen and outdoor explorers. This is a resource book for every home library. Jews force reporter Helen Thomas to Resign

The "grande dame" of the White House press corps -- the almost 90-year-old Helen Thomas of Hearst Newspapers -- was caught by Rabbi David Nesenoff on video stating Israelis should "get the hell out of Palestine" and "go home ... to Poland, Germany and America and everywhere else," in response to his request of her to offer her thoughts on Israel. Nesenoff labeled her words as "anti-Semitism tied into anti-Israel". She was then forced to retire from her job in the wake of the outcry from the Jewish lobby in D.C.

Obama's "We Love the Jews" White House Correspondents Association also released a statement condemning Thomas' remarks, and Obama's white house spokesman, also a Jew, Ari Fleischer of Bush administration, slammed Helen Thomas's honesty. And, former Clinton White House Counsel Lanny Davis was among those calling for Hearst to take action against Thomas. "Helen Thomas, who I used to consider a close friend and who I used to respect, has showed herself to be an anti-Semitic bigot," Davis said.

It is an outrage that we can condone people like Al Sharpton, Jerhimy Wright, and the like and make an icon of Journalistic History such as Helen Thomas resign over a politically incorrect statement that is true. I am embarrassed for our country.

You better not speak bad about them, you know them. Cannot say the name because you know they will demand my termination. They will point at me and say, see there is another hate monger. Align your views with the Jew's agenda or suffer. That is the new America! God help us.

Israel is a terrorist state. The Israeli government recently sent Israeli government agents into a foreign country to assassinate people. Doesn't that make Israel a terrorist state? Now the Israeli government sends government agents to board a ship in international waters, kill people aboard the ship, take hostages, and steal personal property from the hostages. Isn't that piracy? Doesn't that make Israel a terrorist state? As long as the US government continues to support Israel, doesn't that mean the US government is supporting terrorism?

For many years Israel has had absolute disregard for the lives and well being of journalists, several of whom have been murdered by the Israel Defense Forces while performing their job. Sadly, these crimes of Israel never rate even the smallest amount of criticism by the U.S. government.

The Helen Thomas event should not bother anybody who is "OK" with the fact that the U.S. major media, Banks, stock market and Military and Congress and President are now controlled by those who favor Israel.

To the rabbi and his Jews, she doesn't owe you an apology or anything else for that matter. This is America and she has the right to say what she wishes when she wishes regardless of how it makes you feel. It's called free speech and is one of the reason America is such a great country because you have the right to speak. And in this case, she was correctly stating the Jews are occupiers and oppressors in Palestinian lands and they should leave, go back to Germany & Poland. And a lot of Jews agree with Thomas, as thousands of Jews are leaving Israel.

Dealing with extreme Islam and Jews is not new for the US. Thomas Jefferson had to deal with the same problem, only back then they were called the Barbary Pirates and they ruled the Mediterranean. Even back then the belief that Islamic law and Jews believed they had the right to kill infidels and goime. It wasn't until the US (it's always got to be the US) sent the infant US Navy and US Marines to North Africa to end the problem did anything change.

Time is short, the Jews' military is annexing more and more of Jerusalem and there will come a time when it will be impossible for Jerusalem to be anything other than a Jewish capital! REPORTER Helen Thomas is correct: Israel should not exist - it is a religion-based state that was stolen from Palestinians.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Legislature Passes Law Prohibiting Gun Seizures When Emergency Powers are Declared by governor

A bill preventing the government from seizing legal firearms during an emergency has been passed by the Hawaii Legislature. The full Senate voted 21-0 to approve the measure after it already passed the House. The proposal prohibits the seizure of firearms or ammunition when the government invokes emergency powers during a disaster.

It gained momentum after February's tsunami warning, when lawmakers said their constituents asked if their weapons could be taken in an emergency situation.

Gun-rights activists have pursued this kind of law since Hurricane Katrina, when New Orleans police confiscated guns in an attempt to restore order.

The Tenth Amendment

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

REPUBLIC: (RES=thing; PUBLICA=public. The REPUBLIC or public thing is the CONSTITUTION for the United States of America. And, keeping it of the People, by the People, and for the People is the challenge and the reason our Right to Keep and Bear Arms is vital to our FREEDOM and Liberty. But Obama, Clinton et al want to take our guns. Why?

QUESTION: Why won't SPLC debate JPFO's stance on the deadly relationship between genocide by government and "gun control" confiscation and prohibition over the last one hundred years?

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !
