Jews' Military Attack Is Terrorism, and Intentional Murder of Unarmed Passengers

An Arab member of the Israeli parliament who was on board the international air to Gaza flotilla that was attacked last week as it tried to take humanitarian aid to Gaza accused Israel yesterday of intending to kill peace activists as a way to deter future convoys.

Haneen Zoubi said Israeli naval vessels had surrounded the flotilla's flagship, the Mavi Marmara, and fired on it a few minutes before commandos abseiled from a helicopter directly above them.

Terrified passengers had been forced off the deck when water was sprayed at them. She said she was not aware of any provocation or resistance by the passengers, who were all unarmed.

She added that within minutes of the raid beginning, three bodies had been brought to the main room on the upper deck in which she and most other passengers were confined. Two had gunshot wounds to the head, in what she suggested had been executions.

Two other passengers slowly bled to death in the room after Israeli soldiers ignored messages in Hebrew she had held up at the window calling for medical help to save them. She said she saw seven other passengers seriously wounded.

"Israel had days to plan this military operation," she told a press conference in Nazareth. "They wanted many deaths to terrorise us and to send a message that no future aid convoys should try to break the siege of Gaza." "Plan Was to Kill Activists and Deter Future Convoys".

Turks shouted: "Murderous United States of America."

"No thanks to the Americans for supplying all arms to [the Israelis]," said Sakir Yildirim, who was also on the Mavi Marmara ship. He said he witnessed three or four deaths of activists within a few yards of him – one of the men shot in the forehead when the red light of a laser rifle sight alighted there. "All that stuff is American made."

Already, it is reported that the MV Rachel Corrie on its journey to Gaza, and world opinion is against Jewish blockade of humane supplies to Gaza.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu wants to continue their blockade per the San Remo Manual on International Law Applicable to Armed Conflicts at Sea, 12 June 1994.

But this known terrorist leading the Jewish assaults on Palestinians seems to have a very limited attention span, or he ignores this part of the law:

102. The declaration or establishment of a blockade is prohibited if:

(a) it has the sole purpose of starving the civilian population or denying it other objects essential for its survival; or

(b) the damage to the civilian population is, or may be expected to be, excessive in relation to the concrete and direct military advantage anticipated from the blockade.

103. If the civilian population of the blockaded territory is inadequately provided with food and other objects essential for its survival, the blockading party must provide for free passage of such foodstuffs and other essential supplies, subject to: (a) the right to prescribe the technical arrangements, including search, under which such passage is permitted; and (b) the condition that the distribution of such supplies shall be made under the local supervision of a Protecting Power or a humanitarian organization which offers guarantees of impartiality, such as the International Committee of the Red Cross.

104. The blockading belligerent shall allow the passage of medical supplies for the civilian population or for the wounded and sick members of armed forces, subject to the right to prescribe technical arrangements, including search, under which such passage is permitted.

Israel has been conducting collective punishment on the civilian population of Gaza, constituting an illegal blockade. The United Nations recognized that with resolution 1860, passed in January 2009.

Israel's deadly nighttime attack on this flotilla has at least focused the world's attention on the blockade and on the extent of the US government's unconditional support for Israel. They may also have inadvertently recognized the sovereignty of Gaza, since their interpretation of international law requires that Gaza be a belligerent nation.

Israeli Zionist Jews military have proven they are mad terrorists and a deadly threat to the World including USA. The truth is now obvious that the Israeli Nation is a morbid Jewish terrorist society that lost touch with humanity because this slaughter and war crimes were committed by the Jews' popular army that followed instructions given by the Jews' democratically elected government. Every Israeli Zionist Jew should be considered as a suspected war criminal, and no ally of USA, and all US military/financial aid stopped. [each bullet fired, each helicopter, and as this snip points out, each laser rifle sight were paid for with US tax dollars].

USA-Obama, who has sworn his steadfast support for the Zionist Jews' nation of Israel, likely will do nothing of substance to stop the Jews' terrorism and murder of American Citizens.

Obama HealthCare Scam: The Employers could collect billions by ditching insurance

ObamaCARE lies promised that his plan won't change a thing for people who already get health insurance through an employer... but it looks like someone forgot to tell the employers that, because corporate America is already planning to cut you loose so they can make some easy money thanks to ObamaCARE.

The new law gives most employers a choice: Fund health insurance for your workers, or pay a fine. Sounds great for the workers -- until you run the numbers.

Don't bother getting out your calculator, corporate America has already beaten you to the punch. It took them all of 12 seconds to figure out that it would be cheaper to kill their insurance plans and pay the fines.

Just look at AT&T. They might provide lousy phone service, but they're pretty good with math -- they've calculated that ditching health insurance for employees would cost them $600 million in ObamaCare fines, according to the Wall Street Journal. But since they paid $2.4 billion in health care costs last year, that's the quickest and easiest $1.8 billion they'll ever collect.

Thank you, Mr. OBAMA. Here's a free iPhone.

Caterpillar, John Deere and Verizon are all crunching their own numbers, according to the Journal... and I'll bet your employer is as well.

Remember, once they drop your insurance you will be required by law to buy your own -- and don't think for a moment that it'll be cheaper or better. Some of my middle-class friends will have to pay $1,000 a month or more for their "free" ObamaCare.

Meanwhile, the Congressional Budget Office said a few months ago that discretionary spending for the first decade of ObamaCare would be $55 billion. Now, they're saying it'll be $110 billion. In a few more months, who knows -- maybe it'll be a zillion dollars. Whatever it is, you know who'll be stuck with that bill.

YOU.

Lingle/Aiona Push WIND MILLS and UNDERSEA CABLE for MOLOKAI

Hawaii is planning to lay power cables along the ocean floor to connect yet-to-be-built wind farms on Molokai and Lanai to power-hungry Oahu.

Lt. Gov. Aiona announced Thursday that the state has selected Honolulu-based AECOM to study [cost $2.9 million] the route and potential environmental impacts of undersea cables that would transport electricity. Ku'iwalu and R.M Towill Corp. will work as subcontractors on the study.

The environmental study will evaluate how the cable could affect endangered species, aquatic ecology, water quality and the lives of neighbor island residents. The study is expected to be completed in 2012, and the $1 billion cable would be built by the end of 2014.

It would supply about 12 percent of the power on Oahu, which uses mostly oil and coal for power. The State spends $6 billion a year on oil, which supplies 75 percent of Hawaii's electricity.

"We estimate we're going to get about 1.4 million megawatt hours per year out of this project," said state Energy Facilitator Joshua Strickler. "That equates to roughly 12% of Oahu's needs."

But how will wind farms impact Molokai and Lanai ?

"What we're going to ask the people of Molokai and Lanai to do is give up a significant part of their islands for the benefit of Oahu," Strickler said. "So we need to figure out what is the right benefit for those islands."

Environmentalists said they will watch the project closely, but are glad the state is actively looking at alternatives to oil.

"When you look at what's happening in the Gulf today, thank goodness we don't have oil offshore," said Jeff Mikulina of the Blue Planet Foundation. "But we do have plenty of wind. And windspills aren't so bad."

The state is using $2.9 million dollars in Federal stimulus money to pay for the environmental impact statement, which is scheduled to be ready in April 2012. If approved, the entire project would cost anywhere from $800 million to $1 billion, with construction beginning in 2014 or 2015.

Amnesty International urges Obama to suspend military aid to Israel

Amnesty International has called for a global arms embargo to be placed on Israel following the recent Gaza conflict and murders at sea.

The human rights group said it found evidence that Israel and Hamas had both used weapons supplied from overseas to carry out attacks on civilians. AI accused Israel of using white phosphorous and other weapons from the US and said Barack Obama had a "particular obligation" to suspend military aid over their use.

Amnesty called for the UN Security Council to enact an arms embargo until mechanisms were put in place to ensure that equipment was not used to commit violations of international law. "Their attacks resulted in the death of hundreds of children and other civilians, and massive destruction of homes and infrastructure."

Amnesty said it had found fragments and components of artillery, tank shells, mortar fins and airborne missiles and bombs in school playgrounds, hospitals and homes in Gaza.

In southern Israel AI investigators found remains of rockets fired indiscriminately at civilian areas by Hamas and other Palestinian armed groups, and accused both sides of war crimes based on that evidence.

"We urge the UN Security Council to impose an immediate and comprehensive arms embargo on Israel, Hamas and other Palestinian armed groups until effective mechanisms are found to ensure that munitions and other military equipment are not used to commit serious violations of international law," said Malcolm Smart, Amnesty's Middle East director.

"In addition all states should suspend all transfers of military equipment, assistance and munitions to Israel, Hamas and other Palestinian armed groups until there is no longer a substantial risk of human rights violations.

"There must be no return to business as usual, with the predictably devastating consequences for civilians in Gaza and Israel."

The release of the report came as hundreds of travellers left blockaded Gaza for Egypt, in one of the sporadic openings that enable students, patients and others with Egyptian visas to cross the border.

Physical barriers policed by aggressive Jewish military control border points were matched with a ban on shipping approaching the Gaza coast. Jews say that, along with its security fence around the West Bank, the blockade is necessary to prevent Hamas obtaining supplies that it can use for terror, and to stop attackers, particularly suicide bombers, entering their territory.

To Palestinians and their supporters, it is a deliberate attempt to punish Gazans indiscriminately for their support of Hamas, turning the Gaza Strip into the biggest open prison in the world. Since it was put in place, Gaza's 1.5 million inhabitants have been given access to enough food to live, but little more.

Building materials are limited to designated, approved projects. Since the war in Gaza in 2008-9, this has meant leaving the thousands of homes hit by Israeli missiles as piles of rubble, their occupants homeless.

Jewish authorities do not publicly confirm what is and what is not allowed in, aid groups point to numerous absurdities: zaatar, an Arabic spice mix, is allowed, but cumin is banned. Salmon is allowed, but other fish are not. All exports are stopped.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Uzbeks have no Guns, Slaughtered

Here is another current ongoing Real World example of what happens when people are deprived of guns to protect themselves.

Uzbeks have no weapons. They are armed with sticks against a majority ethnic mob who use guns, machetes to slaughter them.

Daniyar, a local businessman, called for an international investigation into events in Osh. "We need international peace-keeping troops to come and restore order," he said. "We are asking for the United Nations to help us. We do not trust the local government," said one Uzbek teacher on the border on Sunday.

One man stood up, claiming to have witnessed horrific murders. "Women and children were dragged out of homes and chopped to death," he said. He was one of a crowd of several hundred people, all of them very emotional. Everybody there had a story to tell. The crowd collectively gasped in disbelief. Women started crying.

Kyrgyz make up nearly 70% of the population, Uzbeks account for about 15% and are concentrated in the Fergana Valley in the south Osh, the country's second city, is home to a large ethnic Uzbek community

There has been tension in the south between the two ethnic groups over land and housing.

Several cars brought more injured people to the border.

People are panicking reports a BBC journalist. They fear that more armed Kyrgyz are heading towards the border crossing to attack them before they can escape across to safety. Everybody is desperate for help - but it is not clear whether that will come any time soon, as Russian authorities have indicated they will not intervene in the ethnic violence.

There is a also a shortage of food in Osh. Shops and markets are closed. People who are stuck in their homes are running out of supplies.

Southern Kyrgyzstan is home to a large ethnic Uzbek minority of almost a million people and despite old tensions the two ethnic groups had been living peacefully for many years.

But since Kyrgyzstan's popular uprising in April in which former president Kurmanbek Bakiyev was ousted, security has deteriorated. The latest violence is the biggest challenge the new government has faced so far. It has called for Russian to intervene but Moscow was quick to turn down the request.

Without international assistance or guns to defend themselves, ethnic cleansing against the minority Race is spreading .

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.

3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.

17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

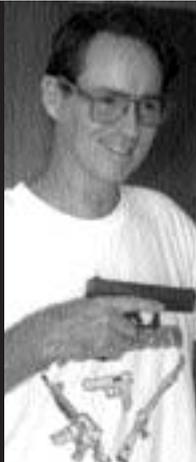

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Obama's CREED of "The ONE"

The And it came to pass in the Age of Insanity that the people of the land called America, having lost their morals, their initiative, and their will to defend their liberties, chose as their Supreme Leader that person known as "The One."

He emerged from the vapors with a message that had no meaning; but He hypnotized the people telling them, "I am sent to save you." My lack of experience, my questionable ethics, my monstrous ego, and my association with evil doers are of no consequence. I shall save you with hope and change. Go, therefore, and proclaim throughout the land that he who proceeded me is evil, that he has defiled the nation, and that all he has built must be destroyed. And the people rejoiced, for even though they knew not what "The One" would do, he had promised that it was good; and they believed. And "The One" said "We live in the greatest country in the world. Help me change everything about it!" And the people said, "Hallelujah! Change is good!" Then He said, "We are going to tax the rich fat-cats." And the people said "Sock it to them!" "And redistribute their wealth." And the people said, "Show us the money!" And the he said, "redistribution of wealth is good for everybody.."

And Joe the plumber asked, "Are you kidding me? You're going to steal my money and give it to the deadbeats??" And "The One" ridiculed and taunted him, and Joe's personal records were hacked and publicized.

One lone reporter asked, "Isn't that Marxist policy?" And she was banished from the kingdom Whitehouse.

Then a citizen asked, "With no foreign relations experience and having zero military experience or knowledge, how will you deal with radical terrorists?" And "The One" said, "Simple. I shall sit with them and talk with them and show them how nice we really are; and they will forget that they ever wanted to kill us all!" And the people said, "Hallelujah!! We are safe at last, and we can beat our weapons into free cars for the people!"

Then "The One" said "I shall give 95% of you lower taxes." And one, lone voice said, "But 40% of us don't pay ANY taxes." So "The One" said, "Then I shall give you some of the taxes the fat-cats pay!" And the people said, "Hallelujah! Show us the money!" Then "The One" said, "I shall tax your Capital Gains when you sell your homes!" And the people yawned and the slumping housing market collapsed. And He said, "I shall mandate employer-funded health care for every worker and raise the minimum wage. And I shall give every person unlimited healthcare and medicine and transportation to the clinics." And the people said, "Give me some of that!" Then he said, "I shall penalize employers who ship jobs overseas." And the people said, "Where's my rebate check?"

Then "The One" said, "I shall bankrupt the coal industry and electricity rates will skyrocket!" And the people said, "Coal is dirty, coal is evil, no more coal! But we don't care for that part about higher electric rates." So "The One" said, Not to worry. If your rebate isn't enough to cover your expenses, we shall bail you out. Just sign up with the ACORN and you troubles are over!"

Then He said, "Illegal immigrants feel scorned and slighted. Let's grant them amnesty, Social Security, free education, free lunches, free medical care, bi-lingual signs and guaranteed housing..." And the people said, "Hallelujah!" and they made him king!

And so it came to pass that employers, facing spiraling costs and ever-higher taxes, raised their prices and laid off workers, and dropped HealthCare. Others simply gave up and went out of business and the economy sank like unto a rock dropped from a cliff. The bank banking industry was destroyed. Manufacturing slowed to a crawl. And more of the people were without a means of support.

Then "The One" said, "I am the "the One"- The Messiah - and I'm here to save you! We shall just print more money so everyone will have enough!" But our foreign trading partners said unto Him, "Wait a minute. Your dollar is not worth a pile of camel dung! You will have to pay more... And "The One" said, "Wait a minute. That is unfair!!" And the world said, "Neither are these other idiotic programs you have embraced. Lo, you have become a Socialist state and a second-rate power. Now you shall play by our rules!"

And the people cried out, "Alas, alas!! What have we done?" But yea verily, it was too late. The people set upon The One and spat upon him and stoned him, and his name was dung. And the once mighty nation was no more; and the once proud people were without sustenance or shelter or hope. And the Change "The One" had given them was as like unto a poison that had destroyed them and like a whirlwind that consumed all that they had built.

And the people beat their chests in despair and cried out in anguish, "give us back our nation and our pride and our hope!!" But it was too late, and their homeland was no more.

You may think this a fairy tale, but it's not.

It's happening RIGHT NOW under the rule of Commissar Obamanation.
