States United vs Communism

The 56 men who signed our Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, knew the only way they ever would be successful in their audacious plan for independence from the King of England was if they stood together. As Benjamin Franklin said at the signing, "if we do not hang together, we shall surely hang separately."

Their names signed are the source of the political power of Individual Sovereigns, and made them targets for death for treason against the King, but they signed: "...And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor. signed by GEORGIA: Button Gwinnett, Lyman Hall, George Walton; NORTH CAROLINA: William Hooper, Joseph Hewes, John Penn; SOUTH CAROLINA: Edward Rutledge, Thomas Heyward, Jr., Thomas Lynch, Jr., Arthur Middleton; MARYLAND: Samuel Chase, William Paca, Thomas Stone, Charles Carroll of Carrollton; VIRGINIA: George Wythe, Richard Henry Lee, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Harrison, Thomas Nelson, Jr., Francis Lightfoot Lee, Carter Braxton; PENNSYLVANIA: Robert Morris, Benjamin Rush, Benjamin Franklin, John Morton, George Clymer, James Smith, George Taylor, James Wilson, George Ross; DELAWARE: Caesar Rodney, George Read, Thomas McKean; NEW YORK: William Floyd, Philip Livingston, Francis Lewis, Lewis Morris; NEW JERSEY: Richard Stockton, John Witherspoon, Francis Hopkinson, John Hart, Abraham Clark; NEW HAMPSHIRE: Josiah Bartlett, William Whipple, Matthew Thornton; MASS.: John Hancock, Samuel Adams, John Adams, Robert Treat Paine, Elbridge Gerry; RHODE ISLAND: Stephen Hopkins, William Ellery; CONNECTICUT: Roger Sherman, Samuel Huntington, William Williams, Oliver Wolcott.

These founders of our American Nation shared a unified vision, that unity of the 13 American States was necessary to uphold the sovereignty of the individual and the fundamental, unalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

To ensure the sovereignty of each individual American, our Founding Fathers knew the country would have to be unified on certain principles and values: a limited constitutional government, a free market, a respect for "the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God" and a strong national defense.

Sadly, we are in danger of squandering the precious gift of Individual Sovereignty and a Republic that those 56 rebels gave us 236 years ago.

We have become a nation of "special interests" instead of the freedoms of all American citizens.

We have politicians who would rather divide us based on income, gender or race than unite us as Americans. They want citizens to believe that "all men were created equal" really means "all men are entitled to an equal share" of the wealth created even if they did not share in the labor of creating the wealth.

Those same politicians build their careers and re-election on the promise to redress these differences and guarantee equality of achievement - an impossible task unless we are all reduced to mindless, computerized robots.

"Equality of achievement" is a seductive and dangerous promise that ultimately will lead to the destruction of our nation. As Alexis de Tocqueville repeatedly observed, "The majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship." [Say, Obama-Nation ?]

We cannot allow this to happen. We cannot continue to foment and cultivate the divisive rhetoric that threatens to rend the very fabric of our nation. We will not survive with leaders who parade before a cacophony of groups, submitting to their whims in return for their electoral support.

The freedom for individuals to live however they choose is fundamental to our nation. But the balkanization by gender, race, sexual orientation or income in these United States will lead us on a path to ruin.

America must have leadership that reflects her foundational principles. We need leaders who do not seek to divide, but rather unite all under the Constitution for which our founders so courageously fought, and for which the men and women of our military have taken an Oath to fight to this very day.

In 1955, social philosopher Will Herberg described the "American Way of Life" as "individualistic, dynamic, pragmatic. It affirms the supreme value and dignity of the individual; it stresses incessant activity on his part, for he is never to rest but is always to be striving to 'get ahead'; it defines an ethic of self-reliance, merit and character, and judges by achievement: 'deeds, not creeds' are what count. The American Way of Life is humanitarian, 'forward looking,' optimistic."

Herberg's description was as fitting in 1955 as it was when our founders inscribed their names on the Declaration of Independence in 1776. Will it be accurate beyond 2012? I hope so, for America cannot continue to exist unless we all live as Americans in "the American way."

Congress Votes to REPEAL Obamacare 244 to 185

Barack Obama boasted about Obamacare, "the law I passed is here to stay."

Despite today the House voted 244-185 to repeal Obama's Obama's obscene 2700 page socialist healthcare law that is projected to raise the cost of U.S. health care dramatically and incite doctors to quit, and hit all Americans with the largest tax increase in history, Obama says he will not sign the repeal bill if it gets past the Senate controlled by his Democrat supporters. Democrat Senator Harry Reid vowed he would not let the Repeal Bill get a Senate vote.

The Supreme Court ruling of last week, an Opinion written by justice Roberts and supported by anti-Constitution socialist justices Ginsberg, Bryer, and Obama appointees Kagan and Sotomayor, declared the law constitutional as a TAX.

Given, the repeal Obamacare effort will likely die in Obama's Democrat-controlled Senate; but, the Republican Senate-minority is working to force a vote on the record before the November elections, as evidenced by Senator Mitch McConnell's vow to push for a repeal vote against the "worst piece of legislation ... in modern times." House Speaker John Boehner added that the House vote to repeal gives the Senate another chance for repeal.

"For those who still support repealing this harmful healthcare law, we're giving our colleagues in the Senate another chance to heed the will of the American people," Boehner said. "And for those who did not support repeal the last time, it's a chance for our colleagues to reconsider."

The Senate voted on a repeal measure in February 2011. All Democratic senators supported keeping the law, while all Republicans voted to repeal it.

The Obama administration said on Monday that it would veto the bill if it somehow made it through the Senate.

"The administration strongly opposes House passage of H.R. 6079 because it would cost millions of hardworking middle-class families the security of affordable health coverage and care they deserve," the White House said in a statement. "It would increase the deficit and detract from the work the Congress needs to do to focus on the economy and create jobs."

Despite the June Supreme Court ruling upholding the law, the veto threat from Obama and Reid's vow to kill a repeal effort in the Senate, the House vote came down as expected.

The five Democrats who supported repeal were Reps. Dan Boren, Larry Kissell, Jim Matheson, Mike McIntyre and Mike Ross . Matheson voted against the original Obamacare bill.

In a statement after the vote, Matheson said he had voted against the healthcare bill "at every opportunity", and he cited statistics showing that healthcare costs are still projected to rise at a greater rate than the economy.

Barack Obama's so called Fundamental Change to America is socialist's dream coming true right now, unless We The People of this Republic put him to prison.

REPEAL Obamacare, Top 5 Reasons

Barack Obama boasted about Obamacare, "the law I passed is here to stay." However, Americans know the Top 5 Reasons to Repeal Obamacare:

1. It's a crooked tax scheme
 2. It's unconstitutional mandate; violates 2nd Amendment, too.
 3. It was originated by Senate Democrats
 4. It was passed behind closed doors
 5. It was 2700 pages, never read before voting for it, now 15,700 pages.
- Here is a longer version:

5. To stop adding to the U.S. deficit and debt.
Medicare and Medicaid is pushing the federal budget to the breaking point. Obamacare makes the problem much worse by adding to the entitlement crisis in the form of a massive Medicaid expansion and a new entitlement subsidy for households with incomes up to 400 percent of the federal poverty level. These two spending entitlement programs will add at least 35 million Americans to the government rolls at an expense of more than $200 billion annually by the end of the decade.

4. To help stop Taxmageddon.
In addition to being a massive federal power grab, Obamacare contains a massive tax increase on the American economy—at a time when job growth should be the nation's number one priority. In total, the Congressional Budget Office estimated the Obamacare tax hikes would raise about $800 billion in new revenue over a decade. Taxmageddon—the unprecedented, $494 billion tax hike scheduled to hit Americans on January 1, 2013 —includes just five of Obamacare's 18 new taxes.

3. To preserve freedom, including religious freedom, gun rights for Americans.
Obamacare tramples on individual freedom and religious liberty. One of the first examples is the especially controversial provision of the HHS preventive services mandate that takes effect in a few short weeks on August 1. After that, as employers renew their health plans in the coming year, they will have to comply with the HHS mandate's coercive requirement to cover abortion-related drugs, contraception and sterilization—regardless of religious or moral objections. This is one of the first chilling examples in Obamacare that shows how Americans will lose their individual liberties.

2. To keep health care decisions with patients and their doctors.
Obamacare is a massive intrusion in the doctor-patient relationship, micro-managing how health care should be delivered to patients. When the government is given this much authority and discretion, it does not result in higher-quality care for patients. Rather, it leads to price controls and one-size-fits-all regulations that misallocate resources and will lead to headaches for doctors and problems for patients trying to access health care.

1. To make way for real, patient-centered, market-based health care reform.
Health care reform that preserves American liberty is possible and is direly needed. The Heritage Foundation's Saving the American Dream provides such a plan and would put us on a course toward a truly consumer-based health care system. A starting point should be setting commonsense insurance rules for those who buy their own insurance—individuals and small businesses outside the large group market. Congress should combine sensible individual health insurance market reforms with appropriate tax and Medicaid reforms for a fair and fiscally sound strategy to expand coverage to the currently uninsured.

Thanks to ObamaCare you're going to be slapped with a tax if you choose not to carry health insurance—and it will be the largest tax in American history.

So guess who is going to police the health care tax delinquencies? None other than the I.R.S.—the most despised government agency in the land that already abuses its power—as well as other shocking entities no one knew anything about, including your local police force.

Worried? You should be considering his royal highness just gave police power to the I.R.S. for starters. These government enforcers can and will use and abuse their police power to collect taxes for Obama and to seize your assets—even levy civil or criminal penalties against you.

The failure of Obamacare is not only a matter of the public's continued opposition to it; the law is also a major policy failure. It is based on the false premise that more government, more regulations, and more mandates are the right solution to America's health care problems. Obamacare falls short of genuine reform because its alleged benefits increase not only government spending, but also the cost of private health insurance—on the backs of taxpayers.

It is truly frightening.
Obama has maliciously seized and now holds the full power of the I.R.S., Treasury Department, State Police forces, Federal Agencies—and in the event of civil unrest, the National Guard—in his bloody socialist police state hands.

This is nothing more than the forcible conversion of a Free Enterprise Republic to a dictatorship.

Congratulations America, Obama is making you a number filed with the state, under his boot.

A shocking look at who Obama can empower to enforce his ObamaTax:

Local Police Officers, State Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation, National Guard, Treasury Agents, Internal Revenue Service agents, All agents of the court, All authorized members of the Department of Justice, Special deputized members of ObamaTax Task Force, Homeland Security, TSA, DEA, ATF, FDA, FCC, etc.

While Obama continues to lie to the American people, pass-off fraudulent birth certificates, use multiple social security numbers and carry out a host of other bold-faced frauds and Constitutional violations, he is now creating an "Army of Muscle" to squeeze the taxes out of the American people. Pump them dry.

The I.R.S. Army is being built under the watchful eye of the 21st Century's most notorious criminal....Barrack Hussein Obama

The Obamites are calling ObamaTax an "Enlightened Care Package for the Poor" when it is nothing more than a rip-off of the American people.

Obama & Clinton Will Sign U.N. Arms Treaty July 27

THIS IS ALREADY UNDERWAY: 193 COUNTRIES ARE meeting at the U.N. creating an anti-2nd Amendment anti-U.S. Constitution TREATY TO BE SIGNED ON THE 27TH OF JULY. OBAMA WILL PUSH TO HAVE THIS PASSED BY THE Democrat controlled Senate before END OF THIS YEAR.

The U.N. Arms TREATY already includes the following, international gun registry base, international licensing requirements and international ban on all private sales. YOUR gun rights are toast after Obama-Senate votes for it, and Obama declares Martial Law to take guns from all American Citizens.

July 27, 2012. If you want a one world order or just don't care, sit back and do nothing. Obama gangsters will remove your guns.

If you're against them removing your right to bear arms, write, call, fax your Reps and tell them NO TO THE UN ARMS TRADE TREATY!

Where are our Congressional Republican patriots?? why aren't they doing everything they can to stop this action?? The treaty will be voted on by the lame duck senate in November, even if Obama is gone. TRAITORS in Senate will vote for it.

House lawmakers voted yesterday to repeal Obama's anti-gun rights health care law by a 244-185 vote -- with five Democrats crossing over to vote against Obama.

Obviously, there is much more to ObamaCare than a "back door" gun ban, but the experience of more than 150,000 military veterans teaches us that centralizing medical records will be used to strip constitutional rights from law-abiding Americans.

UNArms Trade Treaty (ATT) threatens gun rights says former UN ambassador John Bolton. He says there is no doubt that the real agenda is domestic firearms control."

The Treaty will create a U.N.-based Implementation Support Unit (ISU) which will become an engine of gun control around the world -- yes, the very same UN which helped disarm the Tutsi's in Rwanda, and then sat idly by while the Hutus subsequently massacred them in 1994.

The ATT requires countries to set up their own government agencies to track all guns. Considering the fact that our own federal government couldn't track the guns going south of the border as part of Obama/Holder/BATF Operation Fast & Furious, what makes anyone think that a UN agency can do any better? More importantly, we DON'T WANT the UN or the USA tracking our American guns!

Senator Jerry Moran (R-KS) is still seeking to get fellow Senators to sign on a letter he plans to send to President Obama and Hillary Clinton. While both of these recipients will probably ignore his letter, the key reason for sending it is to lock in the needed 34 votes to kill the Treaty in the Senate. Currently, he has 20 signatories.

Obama/Clinton and Congress should consider the plight of good people in countries like the Sudan, where it's impossible for a citizen to legally own a firearm for self-defense against heavily armed gangs of rapists, murders in tribal battles in which unarmed people, men, women, children, are being kidnapped, beaten, mutilated, raped, and sold into slavery, or murdered. Without guns they have no defense.

TAKE ACTION: Send a prewritten letter urging your Senator to cosign the Moran-ATT letter. <http://capwiz.com/gunowners/issues/alert/?alertid=61557936>

Please prepare to defend yourself !

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights! Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man. Wake up ! Obama's TSA Army Expanding it's Terrorism

In OBAMA-TSA will place undercover TSA agents and police officers on buses. They will perform bag searches, watch for "suspicious activity" and interrogate passengers in order to "curb crime and terrorism," according to a Metropolitan Transit Authority of Houston (METRO) press release.

Short of any meaningful political action on the part of the public and their supposed representatives, the government will continue to move its Constitution violating "suspicionless searches" and sexual molestation of women and children from the confines of airports to bus and train stations and every other mode of public and eventually private transportation.

The point is not to save us from phantom terrorists or even gang-bangers, but to condition us to accept the outward manifestations of Obama-tyranny.

Obama/Holder Against Voter I.D. law in Texas, but requires ID to attend NAACP meeting in Texas to hear Holder's speech

Earlier today, Attorney General Eric Holder addressed the NAACP Nation Convention at the George R. Brown Convention Center in Houston, Texas.

What did media need in order to attend? That's right, government issued photo identification (and a second form of identification too!), something both Holder and the NAACP stand firmly against when it comes to voting. Holder's DOJ is currently suing Texas for "discriminatory" voter ID laws. From the press release:

All media must present government-issued photo I.D. (such as a driver's license) as well as valid media credentials. Members of the media must RSVP to receive press credentials at <http://action.naACP.org/page/s/registration>. For security purposes, media check-in and equipment set up must be completed by 7:45 a.m. CDT for an 8:00 a.m. CDT security sweep. Once the security sweep is completed, additional media equipment will NOT be permitted to enter and swept equipment will NOT be permitted to exit.

Obama/Clinton's UN Gun Law

ATT proponents and the U.N. say the initiative will not affect domestic gun ownership, but Second Amendment advocacy groups are adamantly opposed to the treaty, which Gun Owners of America calls "a backdoor attempt by the Obama administration to impose radical gun control on America citizens."

National Rifle Association vice-president Wayne LaPierre accused Obama of working behind the scenes with the U.N. on a "treaty that could effectively ban or severely restrict civilian ownership of firearms worldwide."

"I've been around long enough to know that the U.N. has little regard for our Constitution and none at all for the Second Amendment," LaPierre said. "But I never thought I'd see the day when an American White House would tolerate a proposal that would literally gut one of our most fundamental freedoms in this country."

FORMER UH STUDENT ASKS NEW CHANCELLOR: RELEASE DIPLOMA

Dear Chancellor Apple:

Injustice looms large globally. We need look no further than our own backyard where capital punishment is administered discriminatorily and disproportionately against minorities and socially disadvantaged individuals. We all must do our part--no matter how small--to work for justice.

As the newly appointed chief executive officer of the University of Hawaii at Manoa campus, you are charged with the task of not merely managing the daily details of the university but also stewarding the spirit of the universitas. Occasionally, the operational spirit will transcend the literal letter of operations causing an antithetical tension which you as the senior administrator must reconcile--popular or unpopular.

For nearly two decades, the University of Hawaii at Manoa senior-level administration has unjustly withheld David A. Mihaila's college diploma. In 2000, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges made an official recommendation in favor of disgorging Mr. Mihaila's diploma. However, for personal and legal reasons, the University of Hawaii at Manoa executive administration refused to follow the accrediting association's recommendation.

Next month, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize winner and advocate for global justice, is scheduled to visit Hawaii. Would not it be the ideal time to find a synthesis to the above protracted conflict and let peace and justice ring in your chancellorship?

Yours sincerely, David A. Mihaila, J.D.

CITIES GOING BROKE NATIONALLY

The city of Central Falls, Rhode Island says they are so broke they had to give their retirees a dreaded ultimatum — give up 50% of your pension or risk losing it all. As the size of government across the nation continues to spiral out of control countries and states across the nation are finding it increasingly difficult to pay their bills Central Falls, Rhode Island has been forced into giving their retirees a dreaded ultimatum

According to a CNN report, Judge Robert Flanders who appointed by the state to work out a solution to keep the the city from going bankrupt said the choice is limited to the pensioners to either volunteer to a 50% pension cut or risk losing it all in bankruptcy court.

The ultimatum has been given as part of an overall restructuring plan for the city in which broad sweeping sacrifices and deep budget cuts are being made across the board in order to close the gap on the city's $80 million dollar budget shortfall.

Obama SS# Fraud Lawsuit Is About I.D. Criminal Fraud

An unequivocally falsified Social Security number may prove Obama's undoing as a presidential candidate within the next five months. According to Hawaii DOH authorities, Barack Obama II was born in Hawaii. So how did he get a SS# from Connecticut that belonged to a dead man in 1977?

With "042" as the prefix numbers for his SS#, Obama should have been a resident of Connecticut. He never lived in that state, which is the only way he could have gained that number on his Social Security card, but his grandmother worked at a Social Security office and the growing evidence shows that she "borrowed" a dad man's SS# because her grandson Barack also known as Barry Soetoro could not produce a valid birth certificate from the United States.

Recently Dr. Jack Cashill, an Emmy-award winning writer and producer wrote a book: Deconstructing Obama. He finds many trouble aspects to the identity of Barack Obama.

Cashill said, "If Barack Obama has an immediate eligibility problem, it is more likely to derive from the Social Security Number he has been using for the last 25 years than from his birth certificate. Ohio private investigator Susan Daniels has seen to that. On Monday, July 2, she filed suit in Geauga County (Ohio) Common Pleas Court demanding that Jon Husted, Ohio secretary of state, remove Obama's name from the ballot until Obama can prove the validity of his Social Security Number. Daniels has done her homework. In her filing, she thoroughly documents her contention "that Barack Obama has repeatedly, consistently, and with intent, misrepresented himself by using a fraudulently obtained Social Security Number."

At no time in American history has one man so blatantly distorted himself with a false social security number. It's not his, it's not legal, it's not original and it's not valid. Yet the main stream media chooses to ignore it. Most of the American public remains oblivious as to their own president's lack of eligibility for the office of president of the United States.

Since 2009, Daniels has questioned the "042" prefix in that it could not possibly belong to Obama because it belonged to a dead man. The fact remains that only a person living in Connecticut could register and be given that particular prefix from that state.

"When Daniels ran the numbers immediately flanking Obama's, she came to the firm conviction that Obama's number was issued in March 1977 in Connecticut," said Cashill. "By all accounts, as Daniels thoroughly documents, Obama was then a 15 year old living in Hawaii. There is no record of him even visiting Connecticut in or near this time frame. To have gotten a Social Security card at this time Obama would have had to show up for a "mandatory in-person interview.""

What concerns me stems from the fact that the mainstream media refuses to follow up on Obama's lack of eligibility to serve as a US president. No other person in the 21st century could escape such scrutiny.

Daniels has filed suit to gain access to more records. "Defendant Husted, through this filing," she argues, "has been made aware that the Democratic Candidate has been using a fraudulent Social Security Number, which would render Barack Obama ineligible under both the Ohio and U.S. Constitutions."

ObamaCARE; FIVE LAWLESS JUDGES; "TAXING CLAUSE,"

By Publius Huldah NewsWithViews.com

Our federal Constitution is one of enumerated powers only. This means that WE THE PEOPLE, who ordained and established the Constitution, listed therein every power We delegated to the federal government. If We didn't list a power, the federal government doesn't have it.[1]

Furthermore, we delegated only a very few powers to the federal government.

Accordingly, Congress has strictly limited legislative powers over the Country at large. These powers are listed primarily at Art. I, §8, clauses 3-16, and are restricted to war, international commerce & relations; and domestically, the creation of an uniform commercial system: weights & measures, patents & copyrights, a monetary system based on gold & silver, bankruptcy laws, mail delivery & roads. Several Amendments delegate to Congress some power over civil rights.

These enumerated powers are the only areas where the federal government has lawful authority over The States and The People in The States. In all other matters [except those listed at Art. I, §10] the States and The People retain supremacy, independence, and sovereignty. Go here for a complete list of all of Congress' Enumerated Powers.

Obamacare is altogether unconstitutional because it is outside the scope of the legislative powers We granted to Congress. Nothing in Our Constitution authorizes the federal government to control our medical care (or to exercise the other powers in the Act).

I challenge those five (5) lawless judges on the supreme Court [Roberts, Kagan, Sotomayor, Ginsberg, & Breyer], all other totalitarians, mushy liberals, gullible fools, and parasitic humans who support Obamacare, to point to that clause of The Constitution where We delegated to the federal government power to control our medical care.

Article I, §8, clauses 1-16: What it Really Means.

Those five (5) lawless judges on the supreme Court looked at Art. I, §8, cl.1, and found power in Congress and the Executive Branch to take over our medical care – even to decide whether we will receive medical treatment or be denied medical treatment.[2]

And how did The Lawless Five do this? I'll show you. But first, let's see what the Constitution really says. Article I, §8, clauses 1 & 2 read:

Clause 1: "The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common defense and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;" [boldface added]

Clause 2: "To borrow Money on the credit of the United States;"

Immediately after Clauses 1 & 2 follows the list of enumerated powers WE delegated to Congress:

- Clause 3: To regulate "commerce" [For the Truth about the "commerce clause", go here];
- Clause 4: To establish uniform laws on Naturalization and on Bankruptcies;
- Clause 5: To coin money & regulate its value, and fix the standard of weights & measures;
- Clause 6: To punish counterfeiting;
- Clause 7: To establish Post Offices and post Roads;
- Clause 8: To issue Patents and Copyrights;
- Clause 9: To set up federal courts "inferior" to the supreme Court [one may well ask how any court can be "inferior" to the supreme Court];
- Clause 10: To punish Piracies & Felonies on the high seas and offenses against the Law of Nations;
- Clause 11: To declare War, grant Letters of Marque & Reprisal, and make rules for Captures;
- Clause 12: To raise and support Armies;
- Clause 13: To provide and maintain a Navy;
- Clause 14: To make Rules for the land and naval Forces;
- Clause 15: To call forth the Militia; and
- Clause 16: To provide for organizing, arming, disciplining the Militia.

Add to this short list of enumerated powers; the "housekeeping powers" itemized in the paper linked here; the salaries authorized by Art. I, §6, cl. 1; Art. II, §1, next to last clause; Art. III, §1, cl. 1, and others on the civil list; together with the Amendments addressing civil rights; and you have the sole purposes for which Congress is authorized to levy and collect taxes, borrow money, and spend money for the Country at Large.

And this is precisely what James Madison, Father of Our Constitution, says in Federalist Paper No. 41 (last 4 paras). Madison addresses the objection that:

"...the power 'to lay and collect taxes, duties, impost, and excises, to pay the debts, and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States,' amounts to an unlimited commission to exercise every power which may be alleged to be necessary for the common defense or general welfare. (4th para from end).

Madison says one would be grasping at straws to stoop to such a silly "misconstruction":

"Had no other enumeration or definition of the powers of the Congress been found in the Constitution, than the general expressions just cited, the authors of the objection might have had some color for it; though it would have been difficult to find a reason for so awkward a form of describing an authority to legislate in all possible cases. A power to destroy the freedom of the press, the trial by jury, or even to regulate the course of descents, or the forms of conveyances, must be very singularly expressed by the terms "to raise money for the general welfare." (3rd para from end)

"But what color can the objection have, when a specification of the objects alluded to by these general terms immediately follows, and is not even separated by a longer pause than a semicolon? If the different parts of the same instrument ought to be so expounded, as to give meaning to every part which will bear it, shall one part of the same sentence be excluded altogether from a share in the meaning; and shall the more doubtful and indefinite terms be retained in their full extent, and the clear and precise expressions be denied any signification whatsoever? ... Nothing is more natural nor common than first to use a general phrase, and then to explain and qualify it by a recital of particulars. But the idea of an enumeration of particulars which neither explain nor qualify the general meaning ... is an absurdity..." (2nd para from end)

In the final paragraph, Madison says Art. I, §1, cl. 1 does not vest in Congress a power to legislate in all cases whatsoever: Clause 1 is merely a "general expression", the meaning of which is ascertained and limited by the clauses which immediately follow it.

To put Madison in modern English: Clauses 1 & 2 grant to Congress the power to raise money; clauses 3-16 enumerate the objects on which Congress may appropriate the money so raised, thus limiting clauses 1 & 2.

THAT is the Constitution We ratified.

What the Lawless Five Assert it Means:

See where it says in Clause 1, "To lay and collect Taxes"? The Lawless Five assert that this phrase authorizes Congress to lay & collect taxes for any purposes whatsoever.

They IGNORED the "specification of the objects [Clauses 3-16] alluded to by these general terms" [Clauses 1 & 2] - the "enumeration of particulars" which "explain and qualify" "the general phrase."

In effect, they repealed Clauses 3-16. In a nutshell, the Lawless Five asserted that Congress and the President may do whatever they want to us. Just call it a "tax."

What can WE Do?

First, we must disabuse ourselves of the monstrous lie that the federal government created by the Constitution is the exclusive and final judge of the extent of the powers delegated to it; and that the opinion of five judges, not the Constitution, is the sole measure of its powers.[3] This is an evil ideology antithetical to our Founding Documents and Principles. Once you understand that, our remedies are readily apparent:

1. Impeach Federal Judges who violate their Oaths of Office. The supreme Court is merely a creature of the Constitution and is completely subject to its terms; and when judges on that and lower federal courts – who serve during "good Behaviour" only (Art. III, §1, cl. 1) – usurp power, they must be removed from office. Alexander Hamilton writes in Federalist No. 81 (8th para) of:

"... the important constitutional check which the power of instituting impeachments in ... [the House] ... and of determining ... them in the ... [Senate] ... give[s] to ... [Congress] ... upon the members of the judicial department. This is alone a complete security. There never can be danger that the judges, by a series of deliberate usurpations on the authority of the legislature, would hazard the united resentment of the body intrusted with it, while this body was possessed of the means of punishing their presumption, by degrading them from their stations..."[4]

We must elect Representatives and Senators who will support our Constitution by impeaching & removing usurping federal judges. We must elect people who will rid of us The Lawless Five.

2. Elect Representatives and Senators who will also repeal Obamacare and dismantle everything which has been implemented so far.

3. Elect Ron Paul or Mitt Romney. They have promised to "repeal" Obamacare. His Oath of Office – which is "to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution" - requires him to refuse to implement Obamacare. By Executive Order, he must refuse to implement it, he must reverse all implementation in effect when he takes office, and he must rescind the unconstitutional rules [see, e.g., Art. I, §1] made by the baby-killing totalitarians who presently infect the Department of Health & Human Services.

4. States must nullify Obamacare. Here are model Nullification Resolutions for State Legislatures. These can be easily amended to specifically address Obamacare and the HHS rules. State officials, legislators, and judges all take The Oath to support the federal Constitution (Art. VI, cl. 3); and that Oath requires them to nullify Obamacare.

5. We the People must stop deceiving ourselves about the motives of people such as Obama and the Lawless Five. They are not 'basically decent people who just have different opinions'. They are determined to reduce us to abject slavery.
