What's Bugging Molokai Bees?

photos & report by Brenda Kaneshiro

On May 1, 2011 Molokai beekeeper Elijah Kaneshiro discovered the first Small Hive Beetle to be seen on the island of Molokai. Just five days after state apiary specialist Danielle Downey and her assistant inspected the apiary of Molokai Meli finding no Varroa Mite or Small Hive Beetle, Kaneshiro opened a hive to split it into two hives. In examining each frame to make sure the queen wasn't transferred to the new hive, he discovered what looked like the beetle Downey had been looking for days before. The beetle was captured and sent to the Honolulu office of the State of Hawaii Department of Agriculture where it was positively identified. How the beetle arrived on Molokai is still a mystery.

The news was quickly passed to Oahu, Molokai, and Lanai beekeeper John Dalire of All Hawaiian Honey who immediately contacted the Kaneshiros and got them in touch with Dr. Ethel Villalobos from UH-Manoa Honeybee Project. She was on the phone with the Kaneshiros educating them about the lifecycle and potential destruction of the beetle as well as instructing them to immediately set traps. No traps were available on Molokai or quickly through other channels, so she sent out enough traps for every hive in the Molokai Meli apiary (free of charge) with instructions how to install them. The traps arrived the next day and were installed immediately. The following week the Kaneshiros visited the UH Honeybee Lab to meet Ethel and her graduate student Scott Nikaido where they received even more education on the Small Hive Beetle and what it has done to devastate honeybees on the Big Island and Oahu. Because of the quick action taken by all concerned parties, the beetle count has remained low.

Dr. Ethel Villalobos and Scott Nikaido made their first visit to Molokai last Thursday and Friday. They spent the day Thursday inspecting the hives at the Molokai Meli apiary. In the evening they were hosted by Glenn Teves at the Hoolehua CTAHR classroom where they spoke to a group of beginning farmers. On Friday they inspected other hives on Molokai including those owned by John Dalire of All Hawaiian Honey.

They were encouraged at what they saw at the Molokai Meli apiary as the beetle count is still considered very low and not increasing much. They will continue to work with the Kaneshiros to monitor the Small Hive Beetle activity on Molokai and share information to determine the best way to save the bees from the destruction of the beetle.

The meeting with the farmers was enlightening to say the least. Ethel spoke about the cross pollination benefits of bee-dependant crops like higher yield, increased weight, and reduced misshapen fruits. She also focused on Honeybee health by discussing honeybee diseases and parasites, the dangers of the use of in-hive chemicals, agricultural pesticides and their effects on honeybees, and the possibility of working with organic treatments. She informed the group of the latest honeybee pests to hit our state, the Varroa Mite and Small Hive Beetle. She shared details about the Small Hive Beetle including its flight range, incubation period, reproduction capabilities and honeybee hive devastation potential. She ended her talk with encouraging words to the group by informing them that they have an advantage over the Big Island and Oahu as they have not been hit with Varroa yet, and the beetle is not yet widespread on the island of Molokai. Her advice was to start taking care of the honeybees now before all feral hives are wiped out like the other two islands.

Pay National Debt = Freedom

Obama-debt $14.5 Trillion is danger to our Republic!

Stop crooked politicians' games of debt limits & deal distractions. Pay off the Debt immediately using Constitutional authority granted to the Office of President and Secretary of the Treasury. That will get our economy and each of us free again from economic oppression caused by Fed printing money out of thin air for benefit of big banks and wall street.

Thereafter, re-establish sound gold standard real money system, bring the Troops home now, impeach Obama, abolish TSA, HS, IRS, DEA, BATF, secure our Borders, enforce the Bill of Rights, and control the federal government by the Constitution for the United States of America.

Here is how we can Pay the Debt, and restore our Republic:

In accordance with the established Lincoln-Kennedy Doctrine extending to police powers President Barack Obama will faithfully execute the order to the United States Treasury to produce legal tender $15,000,000,000,000 securities of the United States of America and such seignorage to accomplish the commission for payment and discharge of all debts public and private to be issued under the instructions of the executive division of the United States administrative agencies.

Under the executive authority amounts of these securities will be dispursed as full payment of debts to any party claiming to hold United States Debt as full discharge of such debt and thereafter be currency of the United States of America unless destroyed. After that is done, takes about 7-days, re-establish the economy on Gold Standard, bring the Troops home now, impeach Obama, abolish TSA, HS, IRS, DEA, BATF, DOH, secure our Borders, stop foreign aid to Israel and all other terrorist nations, prosecute Clinton and Bushes and Obama for TREASON and War Crimes against Humanity, enforce the Bill of Rights, abolish all gun control laws, and thus bring our servant federal government into republican form, i.e., back under control of We The People as our Constitutional Republic.

Dr. Ethel M. Villalobos, UH-Manoa Honeybee Project

What's Bugging Molokai Bees?

Scott gave the group statistical information on the loss of hives on Oahu and the Big Island as well as reduction in crops. Farmers were having to get up well before dawn to hand pollinate their crops due to the absence of honeybees. He said it took about two years from the discovery of these pests on Oahu before the feral hives disappeared. He explained how the use of pesticides can destroy beehives and gave some alternative ideas to the farmers including a change in their pesticide application schedule. He explained that applying pesticides at the end of the day would be much less harmful for the bees as their toxicity levels to honeybees often only last for eight hours, and the bees do not pollinate at night. He gave other ideas as to alternatives and suggested that the farmers become educated to keep bees themselves to increase their own farm production and protect the bees here by properly maintaining their own hives. He said the general recommendation is two or three bee hives per acre of crop.

The farmers came away from the class with an understanding of how important the honeybees are to them, a desire to learn how to maintain their crops in a way that is more honeybee friendly, and interest in keeping their own bees and learning how to maintain them. Glenn Teves said he would coordinate with Ethel to provide this education in the future.

Dr. Ethel was encouraged by the interest in the Molokai farmers to protect the bees and learn how to help them and keep them. She said sometimes we have to have something bad like the arrival of the Small Hive Beetle in order for us to wake up and look around us. Because our climate is favorable to the bees and because we're somewhat isolated we have not seen the devastation of the honeybees that has occurred in other places. This often causes us to take honeybees for granted. She is hopeful that Molokai will take a proactive approach before it's too late.

Buzzing Bees Defence from Elephants

Previous research into natural deterrents showed that elephants avoided African honey bees. Elephants produce a rumbling alarm call that warns of the threat of nearby bees, scientists have found. The researchers also discovered that the elephants retreated when a recording of the call was played.

Despite their immense size and thick hides, elephants are afraid of bees. Adults can be stung around their eyes or inside their trunks, and calves with thin skin could be killed by a swarm of stinging bees.

As agriculture expands in Kenya, elephants are forced into smaller and smaller ranges, and the animals often enter the farms that are now in areas where they once roamed and foraged for their food.

"Farmers will do anything to keep their crops and families safe from damage, and unfortunately records of shootings, spearings and poisonings of elephants are on the increase," Ms King wrote on the University of Oxford's website.

"Our project work is trying to come up with a low-tech deterrent method that will not only keep elephants away from farmers' fields of crops, but will also enhance the income of farmers through the sale of bee products."

In 2009, experts from the University of Oxford, UK, and the charity Save the Elephants set up a trial project to test whether beehives could prevent conflict on farmland boundaries.

After two years of observations, the full results of the trial have now been published in the African Journal of Ecology.

"Finding a way to use live beehives was the next logical step in finding a socially and ecologically sensitive way of taking advantage of elephants' natural avoidance behaviour to bees to protect farmers' crops," said Dr Lucy King, the University of Oxford biologist who led the study.

The beehives were suspended on wires between posts with a flat thatched roof above to protect from the sun. The team created a boundaries for 17 farms, incorporating 170 beehives into 1,700m of fencing.

In 32 attempted raids by elephants over three crop seasons, only one bull elephant was not deterred by the bees and penetrated the novel beehive defences.

"The interlinked beehive fences not only stopped most elephants from raiding our study farms but the farmers profited from selling honey to supplement their low incomes," Dr King explained.

Home Gardening is a CRIME ?

Lock your doors and pull down the shades. Local government agents are out of control, again, and, for our own safety, they must be stopped.

Steve Miller in Atlanta, Georgia, County officials had labeled him a law-breaker and were determined to see his crime against society properly punished.

And what was his crime? Why growing vegetables, of course!

That's right, Miller was blatantly growing organic vegetables in his yard. Not only that, but he was apparently growing entirely too many of them, since he even had extras to give away to neighbors and take to a local farmers' market from time to time. County officials declared that the madness just had to be arrested.

But now that same madness seems to have spread jumping four states to the north to Michigan where local government officials in Oak Park, have a similar danger to society lurking in their midst, and it may just be a matter of time before you, too, have a veggie-wielding scofflaw in your hometown!

Julie Bass, planted a vegetable garden in her own yard. In fact, just one glance at the Bass home clearly reveals this deliberate crime against society...one sees four neatly planted vegetable beds teeming with healthy organic vegetables. Pretty green-pepper plants and baby jalapenos are right there on public display.

According to Oak Park City Planner Kevin Rulkowski, "That's not what we want to see in a front yard." He says Bass needs to opt for "suitable" plantings, such as green lawn and flowers and shrubs deemed acceptable by the city.

Julie now faces a criminal sentence of up to 93 days in jail.

In America, we lost the right to grow a garden on your own property?

Legislator Attacked in Home Defends with gun

Rep. Leonard Boswell (D-Iowa) and his family were victims of a home invasion at their rural farm house over the weekend. An intruder entered the home Saturday night through the front door and physically assaulted Boswell's daughter and demanded money at gunpoint.

Hearing his daughter's screams, the 77-year-old Boswell, who served two terms in Vietnam attacked the intruder to try and yank the weapon from him.

Boswell's grandson grabbed a gun from another room and pointed it at the intruder who then exited running into the woods.

Other than a few scrapes and bruises, the eight-term congressman and his family were saved by their gun, unharmed, said Jane Slusark, the office said.

Local, state and federal authorities are investigating the incident.

Now there is a Legislator who KNOWS that guns save lives!

HOWEVER, Barack Obama's ghetto mentality has tied illegal immigration to his fascist gun control policies. While the U.S. Supreme Court routinely upholds the Second Amendment, that hasn't curtailed Obama's drive to take guns away from U.S. citizens.

In the midst of a growing scandal in Obama administration -- especially within the Justice Department and the office of Attorney General Eric Holder -- regarding an Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives operation that turned into a fiasco, President Barack Obama is threatening to violate U.S. citizen's Fourth Amendment rights to own firearms for self-defense and sport.

Obama is expected to issue an <http://www.theblaze.com/stories/obama-executive-orders-impose-new-gun-rules/> executive order making it more difficult for citizens living in states such as Texas, Arizona and New Mexico to legally buy firearms.

"Monday's announcement follows months of controversy over the ATF's Fast and Furious program that allowed guns to be trafficked into Mexico without any way of preventing the guns from being used for illegal activity. One of the guns was used in the shooting death of U.S. Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry. It is the height of hypocrisy for the Obama administration to restrict the gun rights of border state citizens, when the administration itself knowingly and intentionally allowed guns to be trafficked into Mexico," said Rep. Smith.

Limiting the Second Amendment rights of Americans is not going to solve the problem of guns being trafficked illegally into Mexico by Obama's BATF. An additional reporting requirement imposed on Americans won't stop Mexican drug cartels from getting weapons. This rule unfairly punishes citizens in Border States who have the right to purchase firearms to protect themselves and their families from dangerous drug traffickers and human smugglers.

Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. ### Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

video: Blood of Patriots: Learning From History...The Sedition Act

President John Adam was considered a significant Founding Fathert, having fought for our freedoms and participated in the forming of our new nation. But like Obama today, after taking office he offended all liberty loving Americans.

Video Blood of Patriots, documents that in 1798, just seven years after the ratification of the Bill of Rights, Adams signed into law the egregious Alien and Sedition Acts to prevent people from opposing the new government. The "Act for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States," prohibited speaking out, in any form, "with intent to defame," to bring the US government, the President and/or either house of Congress "into contempt or disrepute" OR to cause the population to hate or to "stir up sedition" for opposing or resisting any law of the United States...any act of the President...or to resist, oppose or defeat any such law or act..." It seems hardly possible after the debates about the vital role of freedom of speech and press.

Thomas Jefferson, who defeated the one-term Adams for the presidency in 1800, said the Sedition Act violated not only the 1st Amendment, but the 10th Amendment, as well, making the Sedition Act, "altogether void." The laws prompted Jefferson to draft the Kentucky Resolution and aided James Madison in the writing of the Virginia Resolution. Simply put, Jefferson's Kentucky Resolution states that "the several states...are not united on the principle of unlimited submission to their general government" and that the states had every right, as individual governing bodies, to abstain from following "undelegated powers" by the central government if they were not found in the Constitution.

"Thomas Jefferson understood the Constitution and acted promptly to call out Adams on his deplorable behavior," says filmmaker William Lewis. This early example of the attempt to usurp protected freedoms of the new population and the determination of the men dedicated to preserving our liberties is a clear sign that We-the-People must stay vigilant to protect our rights and freedoms. # Obama's Socialist Government has run out of Taxpayer's money for his Socialist Police State gulag? Print $$ !

Why doesn't Obama Just Order the National Debt Paid?

If Obama orders the mints to print up or stamp out fifteen trillion dollars counted in "legal tender for all debts public and private" backed by nothing that we all today use as money, then he would only be doing exactly what the Federal Reserve has been doing for a hundred years except that he would be redeeming these "bonds with all interest due and payable" and the "debt" would become ZERO. And, the Constitution gives him and Secretary of Treasury the power!

SEE : "The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby designated and empowered to perform the following-described functions of the President without the approval, ratification, or other action of the President..."

'(j) The authority vested in the President by paragraph (b) of section 43 of the Act of May 12, 1933, as amended (31 U.S.C. 821(b)), to issue silver certificates against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury not then held for redemption of an outstanding silver certificates, to prescribe the denominations of such silver certificates, and to coin standard silver dollars and subsidiary silver currency for their redemption,' and (b) By revoking subparagraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph 2 thereof.

Something very similar to this was done by Abraham Lincoln to fight the War of the States [Civil War North vs South] so he had his head blown off by agents of the bankers showing everybody that they meant business and for decades, no other president since has had the courage to challenge them.

Apparently, President John F. Kennedy caught on that the Treasury was his to do with what he wanted and that he could stamp out all the money he needed on the credit of the United States under Executive Order 11110. Kennedy got his head blown off just like Lincoln. WHAT A COINCIDENCE ?

Obama works for the the multi-billionaires that own the bonds, and if he had guts to do what Lincoln and Kennedy did to save the Nation's economy from the Banksters and the Federal Reserve, they would have boxcars full of green backs good for toilet tissue and the people that had no bonds and no debts would be free.

Of course, that would be the end of Obama's Socialist Police State run by the elite wealthy, and We The People would have to govern the country ourselves as the Founding Fathers intended to preserve our independence from tyrant government, from taxations, and from crooked attorney-judges who monopolize our justice system to control people who want Freedom and object to tyranny.

Do it Obama! Then, your legacy would be an honorable one.

Obama Lies about Debt effect on Social Security and Vet

Barack Obama's ghetto mentality statement that he could not guarantee the government could pay out Social Security checks and veterans' benefits after Aug. 3 if Congress does not agree to lift the limit on the national debt is a lie. Official Treasury Department accounting documents for the month of June indicate that tax revenues for the month were almost 350% above what the government needed to cover all Social Security benefits and veterans' programs.

The Daily Treasury Statement for June 30—which any American, including the president, can look up on the U.S. Treasury Department's website—says the government took in $200 billion in revenue during the month.

The same statement says that the government paid out total of $57.876 billion for Social Security benefits, veterans' benefits and other veterans programs during June equaled 29.4 percent of federal revenue for the month.

In fact, federal revenues for June could have paid all Social Security benefits and all veterans' benefits and Veterans Affairs programs almost three-and-a-half times over.

Indeed, the $200 billion in tax revenues for June was more than enough to pay not only all Social Security benefits and veterans benefits and programs for the month, but also, on top of that, the interest on the federal debt, Medicare, Medicaid, the Indian Health Service, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, all federal workers' salaries, federal workers' insurance benefits, Justice Department programs, and Defense Department vendors.

The combined costs of these federal expenditures in June was $195.5 billion.

So, Obama, pay the bills, cut spending, bring the Troops home, secure the Mexican borders, shut down BATF and TSA, stop illegal aliens DREAM Act, and show us your real birth certificate and records. Then, get outta here pronto!

Water Rates to Increase

The Maui Department of Water Supply has announced new increases in water rates effective July 1, 2011. The increase is approximately 5.5%, and should generate about $2.9 million which will be used to offset increases in water pumping electrical expenses, debt service, operations and maintenance, and capital improvements to the infrastructure. The rate increases were approved by the Maui County Council for the 2012 fiscal budget.

NEW RATES per 1,000 gallons: 0-5,000 $1.75; 5,000-15,000 $3.20; over 15,000 $4.60; Agriculture and non-potable rates for less than 15,000 $1.05.

Obama's Guns to Mexico via BATF is TREASON and Impeacheable Crime !

Acting ATF Director Ken Melson testified for hours before representatives of the Grassley/Issa congressional committees. Personal counsel in tow, Melson made a number of allegations concerning the Department of Justice and two agencies under DOJ control—the FBI and the DEA. According to his testimony, not only did the DOJ refuse his repeated requests that the ATF be permitted to provide information demanded by the congressional committees, the Department also arranged for tax dollars from the FBI and DEA to help finance Fast and Furious straw buyers. And as Fast and Furious supplied weapons were found at the murder scenes of both ICE agent Jaime Zapata and Border Patrol agent Brian Terry, it means that both killings were financed by American taxpayers. Equally disturbing to Grassley and Issa is the fact that the DOJ tried to "...conceal from congress the possible involvement of other agencies...". Wake up America to TREASON !

Obama BC Forgery PROOF

The forensic analysis of the Obama BC letters is just frosting on the cake. When judging if the document is a forgery one needs to look no further than the man who released it, Obama himself. Everything about him is fake and exists only to destroy the US. Where is there a legislator or judge who has the courage to expose this traitorous fraud. Now traitor may be to harsh a word since he would have to be an American to be a traitor and he is more and more showing every day that he's not. An illegal immigrant usurper is I guess the better term to describe Obama. That means he just belongs in jail, preferably Gitmo with all the rest of his Muslim brothers. --Richard Halavais

Irrefutable proof of Obama birth-certificate forgery.

Unless the typewriter used to type Barack Obama's purported Hawaiian "Certificate of Live Birth" in 1961 was magically capable of producing different size and shaped images with the exact same key, the document released by the ObamaWhite House April 27 is a forgery, says a professional typographer with 50 years experience. # Obama's Proposed Healthcare Federal Law is Dangerous to Americans' Health & Freedoms

Defendant Obama is named as "de facto president of the United States."

Letter from SteeveArlen@aol.com wrote: Senator Bayh,US Congress

As a practicing physician I have major concerns with the health care bill before Congress. I actually have read the bill and am shocked by the brazenness of the government's proposed involvement in the patient-physician relationship. The very idea that the government will dictate and ration patient care is DANGEROUS and certainly not helpful in designing a health care system that works for all. Every physician I work with agrees that we need to fix our health care system, but the proposed bills currently making their way through congress WILL BE A DISASTER IF PASSED.

I ask you respectfully and as a patriotic American to look at the following troubling lines that I have read in the bill. You cannot possibly believe that these proposals are in the best interests of the country and our fellow citizens...Senator, I guarantee that I personally will do everything possible to inform patients and my fellow physicians about the dangers of the proposed bills you and your colleagues are planning to impose upon us, without our consent.

FBI- tracking Your cell phone ~!

Obama's FBI and other police agencies don't need to obtain a search warrant to learn the locations of Americans' cell phones, says Obama's Department of Justice attorneys who told that to a federal appeals court.

Obama's DOJ attorney Mark Eckenwiler said There "is no constitutional bar" to acquiring "routine business records held by a communications service provider." He added, "The government is not required to use a warrant when it uses a tracking device."

This is the first federal appeals court to address warrantless location tracking, which raises issues of government surveillance and whether Americans have a reasonable expectation of privacy and their location.

Location data can reveal whether people "have been at a protest, or at a meeting, or at a political meeting" and that rogue governments could misuse that information to arrest people.

Police are tapping into the locations of mobile phones thousands of times a year, but the legal ground rules remain unclear—that is if they ignore the 4th Amendment on privacy.

When the government acquires historical cell location information, it effectively commandeers our cell phones and turns them into electronic trackers that report, without our knowledge or consent, where we have been and how long we have spent there.

Cellphone tracking! Armed Drone planes to kill suspects.....makaala!!!

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives is asking the court for an order divulging historical (meaning stored, not future) phone location information because a set of suspects "use their wireless telephones to arrange meetings and transactions in furtherance of their drug trafficking activities." It's unclear how detailed this stored information is; there's some evidence that the FBI can use it to narrow down the location to a city block but perhaps not an individual house.

The Obama regime argues that no search warrant is necessary; it says what's needed is only a court order, which requires law enforcement to show that the records are "relevant and material to an ongoing criminal investigation." Because that standard is easier to meet than that of a search warrant, it is less privacy-protective.

Cell phone tracking comes in two forms: police obtaining retrospective historical data kept by mobile providers for their own billing purposes that is typically not very detailed, or prospective tracking--that reveals the minute-by-minute location of a handset or mobile device.

Tracking cell phones can be useful for law enforcement. Agents from the Drug Enforcement Administration in Arizona tracked a tractor trailer with a drug shipment through a GPS-equipped Nextel phone owned by the suspect. Texas DEA agents have used cell site information in real time to locate a Chrysler 300M driving from Rio Grande City to a ranch about 50 miles away. Verizon Wireless and T-Mobile logs showing the location of mobile phones at the time calls were placed became evidence in a Los Angeles murder trial.

Three Unanswered Questions:

Was Barack Obama Born in Kenya?

Is He Really a Citizen of Indonesia?

Does the Constitution still Matter?

We the People

OBAMA IS A USURPER!

U.S. Constitution, Article II, Section 1, Clause 5 . . .

No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

DEFINITION

The natives, or natural-born citizens, are those born in the country, of parents [both] who are citizens.

Emer de Vattel, "The Law of Nations and Principles of Natural Law," Vol. 1, Chap. 19, Sec. 212

"Citizen" of the U.S. if he was physically born in Hawaii, not born elsewhere and falsely registered as born there after the fact.

At birth, Barack Obama acquired dual citizenship through his British non-U.S. citizen father. Our Founders excluded dual citizens from eligibility to the Presidency for national security reasons.

Every military order Barack Obama gives as Commander-in-Chief, every bill he signs into law, and every executive decision he makes while unconstitutionally seated in the Office of President, are unconstitutional, and hence illegal. Obama is NOT a "natural born Citizen" of the USA.

The U.S. Courts and Congress MUST address the merits of the charges for this constitutional issue, and constitutionally remove Barack Obama in order to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States. This is their sworn Oath to the Constitution and to the American people.
