Celebrate July 4, the Unanimous Declaration of Independence

It is time to remind ourselves and those who call themselves public servants that We The People are sovereign individuals of this Republic united States of America. We must perpetuate our philosophy in "self-evident truths" and our God given rights to Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness. We must celebrate the fact that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these rights, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it by voting, by petition, even by REVOLUTION--when "resistance was absolutely necessary in order to preserve the nation from slavery, misery, and ruin, and to to rescue ourselves from the most violent and illegal oppressions. Today, USA is very close to that situation.

The Unanimous Declaration is a CRIMINAL INDICTMENT against the King of England, and the conclusion that REVOLUTION is justified. It reflects a moral drama in which a patiently suffering people courageously defend their God-given liberty against a cruel and vicious tyrant, and asking for the People of the World to act with them in their heroic quest for freedom, a Revolution to which the 56 signers pledged their lives and their sacred Honor.

The united States of America became a separate and sovereign Republic.

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.--Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

[The Criminal INDICTMENT]

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harrass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

[Justification and Moral Position as a Separate People from the British]

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

[CONCLUSIONS AND DECLARATION of INDEPENDENCE]

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

[56 signatures of united States of America in Congress]

BOOM BOX Automobiles Noise not Pono! Boom Box cars are anti-Hawaii-nei!

Noises from Vehicles' boombox base speakers is not pono, disturbs the peace of Molokai creating a West LA slum "hood" atmosphere. Molokai is not a boom box hood, but the boomboomdaadaa-boom subwoofer noise from these vehicles violates the whole concept of pono Hawaiian values and malama aina. It is also illegal if the audio noise can be heard more than fifty feet away, and usually this disturbing and unnecessary noise pollution can be heard for a 1/4 mile away. Boombox drivers who want to act pono can turn off their base speakers or get ear phones to keep their noise to themselves. Boombox noise not pono = hearing lost, and conflicts with the law.

Stop boombox noise pollution and disturbing the peace!

To those who have become self governing and stopped their boom box noise by keeping the base speaker off or keeping it personal by playing the boombox only into a head phones set instead of public broadcasting the noise, the whole Molokai community says Mahalo nui! May the sovereignty be with you forever!

Celebrating the American Race July 4

"I believe we are witnessing the beginning of a new race of men"

(Anonymous British Officer after the Battle of Saratoga, 1777)

This soldier at the time, could not have predicted the mass immigration to American shores that has taken place over the succeeding centuries. Little could he have realized the beacon of hope and promise that America has represented to people from all four corners of the world. Little could he have realized how many different races, creeds, and colors would come to America.

They came to escape oppression of all forms; political, economic, religious. They came to seek better opportunities.

As they arrived, they maintained their cultures, initially, and then absorbed the dominant Anglo-Saxon culture. Nevertheless, these cultures intermingled. These cultures borrowed from one another, they amalgamated, to form a distinctly, unique American culture.

American art, our language, our music, and our literature evidence it. After all, what is rock 'n' roll but a hybrid of African, and Scotch-Irish music. American English borrows freely from Yiddish, Italian, Spanish, and other languages. Our movie and literary heroes reflect the self-reliance of the Native Americans and the industry of Eastern Europeans, as well as the virtues of many other groups.

American values, beliefs and attitudes are those of a people who value freedom, who have experienced oppression, and eschew a monarchy, the glorified Hawaiian monarchy that was overthrown by subjects of the Queen Liliuokalani.

America has a unique culture, the result of over two hundred years of the blending of the different immigrant groups. It is the result of the "melting pot," the fusion of different cultures and assimilation of individuals. It is the concept in the motto E Pluribus Unum in the seal for the United States of America.

Yet, there are those that do not want this. They deride the concept of the melting pot. They disdain E Pluribus Unum. Indeed, Democrat presidential candidate, Illinois Sen. Barack Obama's campaign has already redesigned the presidential seal to remove the words E Pluribus Unum.

These people believe in the hyphenation of America, an America that is multicultural. They envision an America that is not a melting pot where everyone comes out American. They envision an America where everyone maintains their individual ethnic identity.

This is the current dogma of the liberal intelligentsia. The notion that we are separate but equal was disavowed a generation ago. For some to maintain that we must retain our ethnic identities is absurd. Such a philosophy will only lead to the balkanization of America, and its underway now.

America was created by Anglo Saxon, Protestant males, and, in the context of the period, at that time in world history, those men created the greatest government in human history designed to protect "self-evident truths" and our God given rights to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

America is a race united by the idea of freedom: freedom to condemn or praise the government; freedom to pursue your fortune; freedom to worship as you please, or to not worship at all; freedom from government interference or tyranny; freedom from fear of foreign and domestic enemies.

There is - and should be - only one race in America, the American race.

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."
 (Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

IMPEACH BUSH & LINGLE

The charges are too serious to ignore. There is credible evidence that President Bush and Lingle Lingle have abused the power of their offices, bringing us into an unnecessary war and violating the civil liberties and privacy of American citizens, violating Hawaii Environmental laws with Superferry, and many other crimes for which they must be prosecuted and removed from office.

It is the constitutional duty of Congress and the Hawaii Legislators to hold impeachment hearings.

When injustice becomes law, then resistance becomes duty. 20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!
 Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !
 "A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

Drug War: Just A Bad SHOW

Former DEA agent: "Drug war all a show" that gets violent, deadly by Paul Kirk, Staff Reporter

"The drug war's a sham," said former Drug Enforcement Agent Mike Levine at the Holmes Student Center. Levine hinted that those in the DEA who come too close to the political reality of the drug war sometimes mysteriously lose their lives. He recalled the time a former agent, Sandy Barrio, was accused by the DEA of drug smuggling. He died of strychnine poisoning while awaiting trial, but Barrio's death certificate was fixed to read that he died of asphyxiation on a peanut butter sandwich.

"I threw my life to the winds believing in the war against drugs. If I died, I believed I was dying for a just cause," Levine said. "Later, I realized the reality of what I was doing never quite matched what the public was seeing."

Levine cited a mission which he followed into Asia during the Vietnam War. The bodies of dead U.S. soldiers were being used for containers to ship heroin back to the United States. Levine investigated the deal all the way to the production line where he was stopped by his superiors.

Levine said he experienced such evasion techniques by his superiors throughout his career. "DEA was designed to put itself out of business [by stopping drugs] but that doesn't happen. The opposite happens. It's always 'we need more funding,'" he said.

"The drug war programs are ill-conceived. All media and politicians are just parrots. It's all a show. 'We need more money. We're going to get these guys,'" Levine said, mimicking the politicians. "The U.S. drug war is the laughing stock of South America."

Levine said the United States needs to direct the money designated for the drug war toward domestic problems which breed the drug problem. He said he believes family and church involvement at a social level is the key, instead of federal dollars and violent police tactics.
