Obama as the Joker posters showing up all over Los Angeles

Radio talk show host and Fox News contributor Tammy Bruce first broke the story. The photos mocking Barack Obama portrayed as the evil Joker in Batman series have suddenly appeared in traffic tunnels, and under overpasses all over L.A. She has the photos of the posters at various locations, up on her site. But no group has yet to claim credit.

Perhaps Obama's prospects of a return to the draft for Ameri-corps, AG Holder cracking down on marijuana users contrary to Obama's promises to end medical marijuana persecution, enforced government indoctrination of socialism at public schools and universities, and mandatory cradle to the grave socialist health care, has finally motivated some Americans to start Obamacide.

Maybe someone found out that Barry Obama's studies at Columbia University was mostly about the Cloward-Piven Strategy of Manufactured Crisis in Political Science classes at Columbia University.

What is that about? [Think about what Obama is doing now as President!]

The Cloward-Piven Strategy is to overcommit government, growing it past the point of sustainability by causing crises. This, while developing an organized proletariat of dependent classes and applying them to disrupt society and revolt against American freedoms. All, to ring in the new "egalitarian" (neo-Marxist) state.

Maybe some people are angry because Obama kept Bush's military machine intact, has yet to close Guantanamo, may not close other black site locations, and has even gone beyond Bush by advocating for the indefinite detention of innocent prisoners now held at Guantanamo and elsewhere.

Lobbyists swarm around Congress and Obama as never before, another abandonment of "Change." He has yet to swat those flies. As an example, here is another troubling appointee. Obama could have chosen someone else, someone who is not a powerful lobbyist, but he didn't: WILLIAM LYNN was appointed by Obama to be Deputy Defense Secretary under Robert Gates. Previously, William Lynn was the Pentagon Comptroller between 1997 and 2001 during the Clinton Administration when the Defense Department reported 2.3 trillion dollars missing. In Fiscal Year 2000 the Defense Department reported 1.1 trillion dollars missing. This is a total of 3.4 trillion dollars for two years in "missing" taxpayer money. Lynn was the Department of Defense's Chief Financial Officer responsible for all budgetary administration and reporting. This led to Sen. Charles Grassley to object to Lynn's confirmation on the basis of "very questionable accounting practices."

Those socialist media [Dispatch socialists] that got Obama into the White House are still active. Now they have morphed into campaigns to support the president's policies. Supposedly they are two-way streets, the defining characteristic of social media. But the information going back up the chain is altered so as to make it appear that Obama's policies are supported. For example, although Citizens opposed to Obama socialist health care spoke up for single-payer health care system at a Hawaii Democratic Party meeting on health care reform, our words were omitted from the report that went back "up the line" to the Obama Administration. And, Brian Schatz's editorial, [he is chairman of the Democratic Party of Hawaii] similarly omitted that both doctors and ordinary citizens favor single-payer and instead asked that we support Obama's health reform plan, which by design preserves the toxic profits of health insurance companies.

Obama appointed Goldman Sachs people to positions where they could save Sachs (now enjoying its highest profits in history and about to pay out bonuses averaging $700,000 per employee); AND, they disappeared Sach's competitor Lehman Bros. Obama's fiscal team re-established the Wall St./Banksters regime that brought the economy crashing to its knees while driving the ordinary citizen to fear or experience joblessness, houselessness, and loss of medical care.

Obama's "economic rescue team" actually set back economic recovery by dramatically increasing the money base by printing more paper dollars, but Obama gave it to the banks and Wall St. big shots. If you're a rich banker, your recovery is of course accomplished already, even as foreclosures continue and accelerate.

When large numbers of people believe they were actually suckered by Obama and the media, Obama et al will be in big trouble.

Y.B. Freight Rate Increased

HONOLULU-Young Brothers, Limited on July 28, 2009 received approval from the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) for an increase in rates for its regulated inter-island (intrastate) cargo services. The average over-all increase will be 13.46 percent, with the newly approved rates including a 9.66 percent increase for containerized cargo, a 9.22 percent increase for automobiles and "roll-on/roll-off" cargo, and a 21.26 percent increase for LCL or less-than-container-load cargo (except for Molokai and Lanai, for which the LCL increase is 12 percent). The increases become effective for cargo booked on barges sailing on August 1, 2009 (revised tariff sheets have been submitted to the PUC for approval).

Young Brothers originally submitted to the PUC in December 2008 a request for an average rate increase of 17.9 percent, including a 15 percent increase for containerized cargo, a 10 percent increase for automobiles and "roll-on/roll-off" cargo, and a 25 percent increase for LCL or less-than-container-load cargo. In June 2009, Young Brothers and the Consumer Advocate entered into a settlement agreement, agreeing upon an average over-all increase of 14.61 percent, with a 10.5 percent increase for containerized cargo, a 10 percent increase for automobiles and "roll-on/roll-off" cargo, and a 23 percent increase for LCL or less-than-container-load cargo (except for Molokai and Lanai, which was set at 12 percent for LCL cargo). The PUC further reduced these percentages in its July 28, 2009 decision as noted above.

"We recognize that our Neighbor Island customers depend upon reliable and frequent service, and we have taken the steps to ensure such service. We also recognize that customers share the same burdens with the economic recession. To respond to current economic conditions, we have taken measures to control and reduce costs, with all of the savings being passed on to our customers," said Glenn Hong, President of Young Brothers.

"The revenue from this rate case is needed to finance new investments in vessels and other cargo equipment and to pay for costs associated with maintaining reliability of service and the same number of sailings despite falling cargo volumes," added Roy Catalani, Young Brothers' Vice President of Strategic Planning and Government Affairs.

Young Brothers has been replacing older vessels "to meet both current and long-term needs for reliable and frequent Neighbor Island cargo, putting into place its next generation of water transportation equipment and infrastructure, and developing a more efficient system to meet future demand," Catalani continued. He said that since 2006, Young Brothers made capital expenditures of over $95 million to deliver four new, large flat-deck barges (with the fourth and last new barge arriving in 2009), a roll-on/roll-off barge, new cargo-handling equipment, a new computer system, and a statewide telephone system.

With respect to cargo volumes, Young Brothers experienced a 9.6 percent decrease in inter-island cargo volumes in 2008 and projects an additional 11 percent decrease in 2009. However, in order to meet its customers' demand for frequent service, driven largely by the lack of Neighbor Island storage capacity and the "just-in-time" manner of inventory management, Young Brothers has maintained twelve regularly scheduled weekly sailings to the Neighbor Islands.

As an example of measures to control and reduce costs, Young Brothers obtained community input on and PUC approval of certain Maui County sailing schedule changes earlier this year. Young Brothers was able to reduce its intrastate costs by over $900,000, with all of the savings passed on to its customers in three specific ways:

-Reduce the rate increase for all categories.

-Limit the LCL rate increase for Molokai and Lanai to 12 percent. These islands do not have well-developed consolidation or on-island distribution systems and have cargo requirements on a smaller scale, making containerization difficult;

-Increase the "island product" discount for local agricultural products from 30 percent to 35 percent for containerized cargo (not for LCL). For farmers and ranchers, these savings allow Young Brothers to increase the discount it currently provides on cargo rates for containerized local agricultural products.

Young Brothers has also taken other measures to reduce costs. For example, the design and size of its new barges, as well as upgrades to its tugs, allow Young Brothers to deliver cargo more efficiently in fewer barge sailings, resulting in fuel and other operational cost savings. Increased fuel efficiency, along with decreased average fuel costs over the March 2009 to April 2009 period, allowed Young Brothers to provide its customers 1.01 percent fuel price adjustment (FPA) credit on freight charges in June and July. The FPA will return to zero on August 1, 2009, as part of the recently concluded rate case. The successful performance of Young Brothers' new barges has also resulted in Young Brothers taking older vessels out of service, thereby reducing the high maintenance costs of older vessels.

The 21.26 percent increase in LCL rates will add about 8 to 9 cents to the cost of shipping a 24-package case of saimin (shipped on a pallet of 90 cases) or a case of 24 cans of juice or soda (shipped on a pallet of 110 cases). For Molokai and Lanai, the increases will be about half of these amounts. Alternatively, shipments made in a 20-foot container load (9.66 percent rate increase) would add about 2 cents per case.

State Lawmakers Expand Scope of Practice for Naturopathic Physicians
The Hawaii Legislature overrode Governor Linda Lingle's veto of SB 420, which expands the scope of practice for naturopathic physicians in Hawaii. The bill ensures that people in Hawaii can use a range of health care options and receive the right care at the right time.

Effective January 2010, the bill allows the naturopathic licensing board to establish a formulary and to adopt administrative rules establishing requirements for parenteral therapy (administering injections), minor surgical procedures, standards of practice, care and ethics. The new law also clarifies that naturopathic physicians in Hawaii have equal rights with other physicians in all matters of public health. This legislation brings the scope of practice for naturopathic physicians in Hawaii up to the standards in which it is taught in naturopathic medical schools, as well as to the standards of other state laws, while providing adequate protections for consumer health and safety.

"Sugar" Shane Mosley, the reigning world welterweight champion, is a fierce opponent in the ring, but when it comes to dogs, he's just as sweet as his nickname.

Shane took time out from KOs at his training camp in Big Bear, California, to star in anti-dogfighting public service announcements (PSAs) for PETA. In the ads, Shane gives dogfighting the one-two punch, reminding his fans that dogfighting is a loser's game and that only cowards participate in it.

Carry a BIG Gun for Protection, and be able and ready to deliver a cranio-ocular shot to save your life

What is the best handgun cartridge and bullet design for self defense? My standard response to this question is to carry the largest caliber, with the heaviest bullet, loaded as hot as you can handle it in order to deliver two, quick center of mass shots... and have the skills to be able to follow up with a precise shot to the cranio-ocular cavity (between the eyebrows and mouth] when the first two thoracic cavity hits don't stop an extremely dedicated opponent.

The terminal ballistics of various handgun cartridges are demonstrated when shot into ballistic gelatin. Note that every cartridge tested penetrates over 12 inches, but the wound channels are much larger for bigger bullets.

The bigger the wound channel, the more damage and the more likely you are to adversely affect bones, joints, the nervous system and circulatory hydraulics – all of which lead to incapacitating your opponent so he stops fighting. Clearly the larger calibers perform best.

Who would chose a 9mm over the larger, more powerful calibers? Our military servicemen have been asking that question every since the government switched from the proven, battle tested 1911 in .45ACP to the Beretta 9mm.

However, in a real gunfight, you can throw all of the theory and ballistic gelatin testing out the window, because MINDSET and TRAINING trumps equipment every time. And I'm referring to the mindset and training of both YOU and YOUR OPPONENT.

On the street, he who hits first with the most, wins. Shot placement is EVERYTHING. A disciplined and dedicated fighter with any weapon is superior to Joe Average Citizen who does not have the mindset or ability to finish the fight.

A case in point, police confronted a man with a 45 ACP handgun at a range of 20 feet. Officers used M4s with 55 grain and 75 grain .223 ammunition and Glock 22's with Speer 180 grain Gold Dot ammunition to shoot at him 107 times. But no head shots were delivered to the gunman who fired 26 shots and reloaded, then fought with officers before being subdued.

Lesson Learned: When you do not inflict immediate, incapacitating damage to your adversary, you often create a "Superman Effect" in your adversary from the normal physiologic response to significant, but non-life threatening injury.

The answer to such a dangerous opponent is the cranio-ocular shot. You must have the mindset and ability to slow down your response and deliver a dedicated shot to the area between your opponent's eyebrows and mouth to end the fight.

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

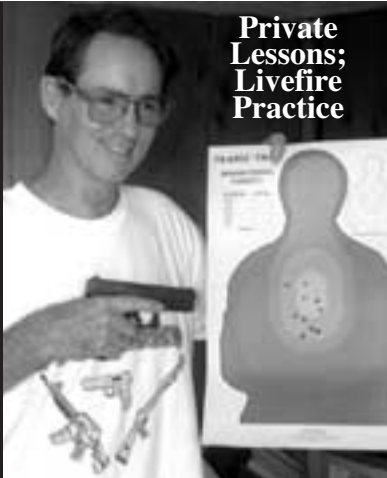

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

SCHOOL Starts & New Principals

At Kaunakakai Elementary, school renovations continue, but the school will be ready to accept students when it opens on Monday. Over the summer, major improvements were completed, including changing carpeting and lighting. There will be new faces at the helm of two other Molokai schools: Richard Stevens will be the new principal at Kilohana Elementary, and Denise Kelly will be temporarily principal assigned to Molokai High.

Lindsay Ball, the overall superintendent for Maui County schools, is also dealing with the possible closures of the Maunaloa Elementary School on Molokai. Public school officials are continuing to discuss and study the closures as possible cost-cutting measures. A meeting will be set soon on Molokai for a task force to examine the closure of Maunaloa, Ball said. Maunaloa is continuing its normal operations, he added.
