US Debt Ceiling Raised !!?

KingObama signed the Increase in the Debt Ceiling his Congress-commies offered him on bended knee, and Obama added that taxes must also be raised on We The People. WTF !

It raises the debt limit by up to $2.4tn (£1.5tn) from $14.3tn, and proposes savings of at least $2.1tn in 10 years, but increasing the debt immediately. Economists have said that failure to pass the debt deal would shake markets around the globe.

Obama said more action was needed, saying it was impossible for the US to "close the deficit with just spending cuts", —taxes must be raised.

Some Democratic and Republican lawmakers have bitterly opposed the legislation in recent days, saying it offered too much of their opponents' agenda.

Democrats have been unhappy that the bill does not include tax increases for the wealthy, although Obama could still let Bush-era tax cuts for the top brackets expire in January 2013 if he is still usurping the Office of President.

Obama is happy the bill raises the debt ceiling into 2013 - meaning he will not face another congressional showdown on spending in the middle of his re-election campaign next year.

It will also establish a 12-member, bipartisan House-Senate SuperCongress charged with producing significant deficit cuts in ten years. Analysts have said the cuts will probably come from programmes like federal retirement benefits, farm subsidies, Medicare and Medicaid and Social Security. Makaala! The "Super Congress" is an unaccountable politburo legislature without debate or amendment.

Biggest Middle Class Tax Increase in History Will Come in Five Months

On July 11th Obama stated: I want to be crystal clear. Nobody has talked about increasing taxes now...cuts in FICA payroll taxes." It was another lie.

Taxes on payrolls are going up by 2% across the board January 2012. This will suck $10b a month out of consumer's pockets. Individuals/families average income of $37,000 will be hurt the hardest when the rates go back up. For a family with two average incomes the tax increase comes to $1,500 a year.

Hawaii Senators Inouye and Akaka voted for the Debt Increase, but long-time Congressman John Conyers is calling for people to march on the White House:

We've got to educate the American people at the same time we educate the President of the United States. The Republicans, Speaker Boehner or Majority Leader Cantor did not call for Social Security cuts in the budget deal. The President of the United States called for that. My response to him is to mass thousands of people in front of the White House to protest this, Conyers said.

Hawaii DOH Fuddy Subpoena Served Demanding Obama BC Exam Appointment Aug. 8

The The birth certificate please! The U.S. District Court Honolulu July 5, issued a Subpoena Ordering DOH and Hawaii AG to show Obama's 1961 B.C.

Computer scanning expert Doug Vogt and typesetting expert Paul Irey say they will accompany attorney Orly Taitz when she presents to the Hawaii Department of Health a subpoena that Orders her to examine Barack Obama's original 1961 typewritten birth certificate at DOH, August 8, at 10 a.m. in person.

"We will plan to hold a press conference late in the day of Aug. 8," Vogt said, "and if the document we see varies from the birth certificate documents the White House released, we plan to file criminal charges in Hawaii immediately."

Vogt has filed a 22 page Complaint against Obama with the FBI.

Fuddy did not file opposition to the court-issued subpoena, so the Hawaii DOH must comply by producing Obama's original birth certificate for Taitz's examination. Also, Taitz's July 27 letter to Fuddy got no reply.

To date, the Hawaii Department of Health has kept whatever record of Obama's birth that exists in its files in the agency's vault. The department refuses to grant any requests to show the original document to the public or to allow independent forensic examiners to authenticate it.

Will Obama obstruct justice yet again? COMMENT: William wrote My presumption is that Taitz and her two forensic experts will be stopped by physical force at the DoH. The DoH and the office of the HI Atty General believes that they themselves are above the law. IMO, the power of the federal courts to compel the production of evidence means nothing to these bureaucrats.

Richard Halavais: I'm betting on a huge fire just the night before Hawaii has to produce the real, official BC, after all it's the Chicago way. And with Hawaii having so many liberal/commies what else would we expect?

THREE FINALISTS SELECTED FOR KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS TRUSTEES

In March 2011, the Probate Court appointed a Trustee Screening Committee to nominate three candidates from whom the Court will select one Trustee for Kamehameha Schools.

For the past four months, the Screening Committee solicited applications from interested individuals, screened 74 candidates, reviewed each candidate's vision statement and goals for the Trust Estate and conducted lengthy personal interviews with semi-finalists.

After diligent review, the Screening Committee has determined that the following three finalists best meet the Court's requirements for a Kamehameha Schools Trustee. They possess a deep sense of commitment and the ability to ensure Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop's vision and legacy are perpetuated into the future.

Anton C. Krucky
Lance K. Wilhelm
T. Aulani Wilhelm

The Court required candidates to demonstrate expertise in one or more of the following areas: Business administration
 Finance and investment
 Strategic planning and policy setting
 General areas of interest including education, law or governance

As well as possess the following:

- A recognized reputation of integrity and good character
- The capacity to fulfill the responsibilities of a fiduciary under trust law
- Respect for and from the community
- Consistent and active leadership in the community with specific emphasis on issues impacting the well-being of the people of Hawaii
- A formal education
- Outstanding personal traits including Hawaiian values

The public is invited to submit written comment and/or expressions of support for the candidates before 4:00 p.m. on August 30, 2011 to the address below. All public comments will be submitted to the Court for its consideration in choosing one Kamehameha School Trustee.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Be Armed Against Socialist Violence

Don't settle for Preparedness Lite, that is, depending on government.

Police have no affirmative duty to protect individuals from the criminal acts of others. Remember that the Police are not the only agent of the law, the sovereign citizens being the ultimate law enforcement. Any person can keep the peace and enforce the law within reason, especially felonies, and self-defense is one of the better established doctrines which citizens have summoned for generations.

Guns: being armed for the security of the household and the neighborhood, is one of the ingredients missing from Preparedness Lite. One does not "Play Cop"; one realizes that cops derive their authority from us, but we do not give up our Right to Keep and Bear Arms just because cops are hired to help.

Personal preparedness means learning how to shoot, and taking training in personal defense. Thugs who are hungry and vicious are among the worst hazards. You will not talk them out of plundering you. Less-than-lethal doesn't work.

A handgun is essential for close quarter use and less conspicuous movement around the neighborhood. I will not say that all laws are suspended and encourage people to willy-nilly break laws, but in time of emergency, latitude and reasonableness under the circumstances reigns for neighborhood safety. Reasonableness is a superb guide under any circumstances.

At other times, a shotgun is better suited than a handgun. There are bazillions of reports where the sound of a well-oiled slide action of a shotgun with the subtle sound of a shell actually being chambered has saved more lives than some might think. Ownership of lethal force kept handy and battery-ready in preparedness is safer than an entire neighborhood being disarmed only to be at the mercy of thugs.

Understand why you are armed: you are alone and without anyone else to protect your family or the community. Be a community resource! Be armed with knowledge, authority, and the lethal force of guns. You are in control of all three.

You don't have to shoot as a knee-jerk reaction. Self-defense is not about reaction, it is about purposeful response. Often – often enough – this is adequate to discourage predators, but you can't do that without a gun and you certainly won't be taken seriously without one. The key is to resolve that you will be armed for the case when you need it to protect yourself and loved ones, and resolve that you will be fully prepared to shoot to stop a threat.

Hopefully, you will retain the ability to move and to help others. Being visibly armed, you may find, is common in time of emergency. You do not want your household to be one which is noticeably not armed. Being armed resonates with other armed families and builds cohesion, which is essential for neighborhood survival by having at least one less hazard. Being armed is not a hazard, it removes a hazard of not being armed and therefore likely prey. Being able to leave your family with security of arms so you can move about the community safely to aid others may make all the difference in their world, and your safety.

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Jewish Israeli Army Attacks Dutch Music Orchestra with Tear Gas

The Dutch street orchestra 'Fanfare van de Eerste Liefdesnacht' (the First Night of Love Brass Band) from Amsterdam was attacked with tear gas today by the Israeli army during their performance in the Palestinian village Kufr Qadum near Nablus, northern West Bank.

The bands tour of Palestine is designed to be interactive, working with children from a refugee camp in the east of Bethlehem and having them play along with the band and dancing in the streets together.

The musicians were confronted with tens of soldiers who shot tear gas canisters from behind their military jeeps during the musical performance. They then found themselves surrounded with snipers. Several members of the band were injured and suffered from tear gas inhalation.

Kufr Qadum is a village near Nablus that has suffered in recent years from radical jewish settlers who have attacked the villagers, cut down olive trees and set fire to fields. The roads that lead to the village are often blocked by Israeli military checkpoints.

The Dutch music orchestra has travelled around the West Bank for a duration of two weeks to perform in towns, villages and refugee camps. The band consists of 25 musicians with different musical instruments. They were invited by the town council of Kufr Qadum to perform in the village.

Congress Candidates Campaign for Weiner's Seat: "Israelier Than Thou" ?

According to New York Times report the major concern of the candidates who are seeking to fill the seat in Congress left vacant by the disgraced Anthony Weiner is " who can be be more pro Israel ". ("Weiner's Exit Sets Off a Race To Be Israel's Better Friend " NY Times 9/27/11). This is explained by the fact that the district is " heavily Jewish " although no statistics are given. Both the Times and the candidates apparently think that there is nothing wrong with ignoring the concerns of those constituents who are not jews and who might just be interested in such things as the taxes, the federal deficit, social security , medicare, education, two plus wars, cutting foreign aid to Israeli the Nuclear Terrorist State, etc.

Once again the jews are allowed to dictate the political agenda.

Even if every constituent in this district was a jew, this kind of political posturing would be an absolute disgrace...it is every bit as disgusting as the recent twenty nine standing ovations given by the United States Congress to Benjamin [The Butcher] Netanyahu. And jews still get upset by the charge that they have " dual loyalty ". Dual loyalty...that would seem to suggest that they have at least some loyalty to the United States? Remember the USS Liberty? 9-11 WTC etc?

Obama's F.D.A. Is Bad for Food Nullify FDA Law by Washing State Is the example Hawaii needs to follow!

A county assembly in Washington State has just passed a food freedom ordinance which would punish federal agents with up to ten years in prison and $20,000 fines.

On July 20th, the Stevens County Assembly finalized the ordinance. They are now in the process of collecting signatures from the residents of Stevens County – urging them to claim his/her natural right to grow, produce, purchase, and consume the foods of their choice. WHEREAS, We find the history of government regulators, even with hundreds of food regulations on the books, shows they are incapable of protecting citizens from exposure to food poisoning events from foods produced by corporate farming

Beyond that, the passed ordinance would make it unlawful for agents of either the State or Federal government to execute to interfere with the ordinance.

Four towns in Maine have passed similar measures, and Hawaii should, too. WHY, you ask?

Last year, Congress introduced the Food Safety Modernization Act (S. 510) which opponents say will lead to crushing regulations on local food production – at the benefit of the big corporate farming interests that backed passage of the law. Local food ordinances appear to be a direct response to the new regulations.

What exactly have the FDA regulations enforcement done? For example:

The year-long raw milk sting operation that resulted in a raid consisting of two US Marshals, two State Troopers and two FDA officials on a SWAT like assault on an Amish farm in Pennsylvania at 5 a.m. see <<http://www.tenthamentcenter.com/2011/07/22/push-back-against-fda-growing/>> –In the first half of 2008, there was an epidemic of human salmonella poisoning that afflicted 1,294 people in 43 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. The FDA immediately sprang into action and after a hasty investigation they proclaimed that tainted tomatoes may be the source of the epidemic. Several varieties of tomatoes were withdrawn from markets and restaurants across the country. Several weeks later, the FDA proclaimed that it may indeed be jalapeno peppers and cilantro that could be contributing to the outbreak. All of these ingredients are commonly used to make salsa which is a staple when eating Mexican food. Surprise! Finally the FDA pinpointed the peppers and cilantro that were imported from Mexico because it had traced contaminated irrigation water. The American tomato industry lost millions of dollars because of these errant recalls.

–Last year, FDA “Investigators” entered an organic grocery store in Venice, California – warrant and guns in hand. As reported by the LA Times, they “ordered the hemp-clad workers to put down their buckets of mashed coconut cream and to step away from the nuts. Then, guns drawn, four officers fanned out across Rawesome Foods in Venice. Skirting past the arugula and peering under crates of zucchini, they found the raid’s target inside a walk-in refrigerator: unmarked jugs of raw milk.

These are but a few of the seemingly endless examples of how the FDA and its increasing regulatory and police power have been keeping you “safe.” Some people, as shown by the five towns taking matters into their own hands, have decided that “enough is enough.”

LOCALS SPEAK OUT

Sedgwick, Maine resident Mia Strong told Natural News: “Tears of joy welled in my eyes as my town voted to adopt this ordinance. I am so proud of my community. They made a stand for local food and our fundamental rights as American citizens to choose that food.” see <http://www.naturalnews.com/031667_food_freedom_Maine.html>

“I still can’t believe they took our yogurt,” Rawesome volunteer Sea J. Jones told the LA Times a few days after the raid. “There’s a medical marijuana shop a couple miles away, and they’re raiding us because we’re selling raw dairy products?”

COMMUNITY FARMING, ORGANIC FOODS: Nullification 101

While the media would like to portray any and all actions that assert the Tenth Amendment as a “tea party” or “right wing” movement, support for food sovereignty ordinances, along with fifteen states passing medical marijuana laws, certainly proves that stereotype to be little more than media hype.

The ordinance from Stevens County makes this clear:

WHEREAS, We, the people of the State of Washington domiciled on Stevens county, declare:

1. The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States, states, “The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people”; and

2. That pursuant to Article 1, Section 8, of the Constitution for the United States, there is no power granted to the federal government to regulate local foods on Stevens county; and

3. The Ninth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States, states, “The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.”; and

4. That pursuant to the Ninth and Tenth Amendments to the Constitution for the United States, the power to regulate local foods on Stevens county is reserved to the State of Washington or the people of the State of Washington.

WARNING TO Obama FEDS

Like the four towns in Maine that have passed similar ordinances, Stevens County means business. They’ve also included an enforcement clause – telling the feds, in essence, to butt out.

ENFORCEMENT CLAUSE;

(A)(1) The people of the State of Washington domiciled on Stevens county, declare that any law enacted by the congress of the United States; any federal regulation, rule, or policy promulgated; any executive order issued by the president of the United States; and any court decision; that seeks, purports, or is otherwise intended to regulate, in any way, the unalienable and fundamental rights of the people on Stevens county to choose the local foods they produce; process or prepare; sell, purchase, or distribute; preserve and store for extended periods of time; and consume, for food or drink, for people or other life forms, is not authorized by the Constitution for the United States of America; and

(2) The people of the State of Washington domiciled on Stevens county, declare the federal laws, etc., referred to in subsection (A)(1):

- (a) Are invalid on Stevens county; and
- (b) Will not be recognized by Stevens county; and
- (c) Are specifically rejected by Stevens county; and
- (d) Are null and void, having no effect on Stevens county.

The ordinance continues

(D)(1) Public employees employed at the federal, state, or local levels, including, but not limited to, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Homeland Security, Food and Drug Administration, Washington state Patrol, sheriff’s departments, and municipal and county police will not enforce or attempt to enforce the federal laws, etc., referred to in (A) subsections (1) and (2); or treaties referred in (B) subsections (1) and (2); or Washington state laws, etc., referred in (C) subsections (1) and (2);

and

(2) A violation of subsection (D)(1) is a class B felony (as defined at RCW 9A.20.021(1)(b)) and is punishable by confinement in a state correctional institution for a term fixed by the court not to exceed ten (10) years, or by a fine in an amount fixed by the court not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both such confinement and fine; and

While the FDA has been getting increasingly aggressive – raiding raw milk activists, threatening walnut producers, and the like – these activists believe that they can push back and win by doing the same to DC. Will a local government ever attempt to arrest an FDA official? Only time will tell, and maybe they’ll never have to. With five local ordinances now passed, the “food sovereignty” movement is just in its infancy. But, if they learn from the efforts of those who defied DC on issues like medical marijuana and the real ID act, they’ll recognize that when enough people, towns, and even states – say NO to Washington DC, there’s not much the feds can do to stop them. Feds are NULLIFIED !

Its the 10th Amendment, STUPID ! Nullification of unlawful federal acts!

Nullify Obama’s TSA and VIPR squad

VIPR squad of TSA targeted 5,000 square miles bordering West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky. Four hundred agents representing 70 federal agencies appeared in Black Hawk helicopters, small planes and Coast Guard craft as a “training exercise.” TSA’s Michael Cleveland, “IT CAN BE A DETERRENT.”

But who is being deterred, intimidated and threatened by these unnecessary shows of force- certainly not terrorists.

“Uncontrolled search and seizure is one of the first and most effective weapons in the arsenal of every arbitrary government...Among deprivations of rights, none is so effective in cowering a population, crushing the spirit of the individual and putting terror in every heart”, said Justice Robert Jackson.

The American people are being systematically subjected to, and desensitized to, warrantless searches and the most egregious and unnecessary forms of personal humiliation by an organization whose raison d’etre is inscribed at the TSA Air Marshall Training Center: DOMINATE, INTIMIDATE, CONTROL. And the more often this is done, the more “reasonable” it will seem. Routine? New norm.” After all, it is for our own good! Oh, yeaah, riiight ! WTF ! NULLIFY
