Protecting Obama's Ohana? Uncle and Aunty Illegal Aliens

Barack Obama has played 75 rounds of golf vacations in the past 925 Days, and his illegal alien Ohana living the DREAM.

An illegal alien named Onyango Obama, who is an uncle of Barack Obama was arrested last week in Framingham, Massachusetts, for operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol, police Lt. Ronald Brandolini reported to CNN. He said that Onyango Obama was operating a sport utility vehicle that failed to stop at an intersection, arrested on August 24, failing a field sobriety test.

The arresting officer, Val Krishtal, said Obama had red and glassy eyes, slurred speech and appeared unsteady on his feet. Obama told Krishtal he had consumed two beers, but still he failed "several" field sobriety tests police reported. Obama was arrested for operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol, failure to yield and operating vehicle to endanger.

According to a federal law enforcement source to CNN, Onyango Obama was illegally in the United States and has been previously ordered removed from the country. His case is in Obama's new "Let the illegals stay" immigration process.

Barack H. Obama II can not deny from his White House perch that this drunken driver is his uncle, and had no comment beyond confirming the family relationship.

Barack H. Obama's aunty, Zeituni Onyango, displays the Obama entitlement mentality is strong with her declaration: "If I come as an immigrant, you have the obligation to make me a citizen." Those are the words from 58-year-old Zeituni Onyango of Kenya in a recent exclusive interview with WBZ-TV. Onyango is the aunt of President Barack Obama. she has been living illegally in the United States since 20002, most recently in a South Boston public housing development, paid for by US Taxpayers. In 2003, a judge ordered her to leave the country, and she lost on appeal. She tried again, but an immigration judge ordered her deported in October 2004.

In spite of her fugitive illegal alien status, she was seen partying in January 2009 when her nephew then Senator Barack H. Obama was being inaugurated to POTUS after the 2008 Election FRAUD on USA by DNC and RNC and media.

Obama's deportation evader aunt is still here. She's still appealing her deportation order. She's still living in public housing in Boston. Over and above whatever government subsidies she is receiving, someone else is paying her legal, living, and medical expenses. Who? President Obama's illegal alien aunt won't say.

The Associated Press reported that she is troubled that her immigration woes have made her a political liability to nephew, Barack Obama after her case became public.

The law for Asylum seekers is they must show that they fear persecution based on race, religion, nationality, political opinion, or membership in a social group. But with Barack Obama, II, a Kenya National Hero being recognized as the first Kenyan-born Muslim to Rule the USA, his aunt, a Kenyan native, cannot honestly claim such persecution.

"The case is unusual in American history because it's a relative of the president involved in immigration matters," said Mark Krikorian, executive director of the Washington-based Center for Immigration Studies. "It really does present the White House with an opportunity or a minefield. If [Obama] follows through on a decision that she should go home, that would actually raise the [Obama's] credibility enormously on immigration enforcement."

Barack H. Obama, II, has said that he has no involvement in the case and that it should run its ordinary course, reported White House spokesman Ben LaBolt said.

AP News reported in November, 2008, that Onyango was a deportation evader – one of an estimated 700,000 illegal aliens who have ignored orders from immigration judges to leave the country. But that little news did not penetrate the intense Obama Campaign's media control, and cover up. Additionally, Obama Campaign had immediate covert assistance from the Republicans! YES! You read that right....from Pres. GWBush!

President G.W. Bush's Homeland Security then ordered immigration authorities across the country to halt all deportation enforcement actions for 72 hours until after the election on Tuesday Nov. 2, 2008. "The ICE fugitive operations group throughout the U.S. was told to stand down until after the election from arresting or transporting anyone out of the U.S. This was done to avoid any mistakes of deporting or arresting anyone who could have a connection to the election, i.e., anyone from Kenya who could be a relative.

Asylum fraud is rampant in the deportation system. Democrat Rep. John Conyers called for an immediate investigation – not into the rank politicizing and fraud in deportation policies, but who leaked Onyango's deportation fugitive status to the AP press.

Onyango can take advantage of the longstanding congressional practice of creating "special relief" bills to help individual deportation fugitives escape punishment and acquire U.S. citizenship.

Barack H. Obama II aka Barry Soetoro, lied about his birth place to satisfy the requirements of the U.S constitution, which stipulates that the President must be a 'natural born' American citizen. That is a federal FELONY and TREASON. Enforcement, Please!

Apparently, it ain't over 'til the alien wins.

Gun Rights in Hawaii Supported by Federal Lawsuit filed in Honolulu Against Police Chiefs and State of Hawaii: HRS 134 Violates 2nd Amendment Right of The People to Keep and Bear Arms !

The Hawaii Defense Foundation's founding director and president, Christopher Baker, has filed a lawsuit against Honolulu Chief of Police Louis Kealoha, the Honolulu Police Department, the City and County of Honolulu, the State of Hawaii, and Governor Neil Abercrombie in connection with civil rights violations of the Second and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution for the United States of American that guarantees the Right to keep and bear arms to every law abiding sovereign American Citizen National, male and female.

The complaint filed in the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii by attorneys Richard Holcomb, Alan Beck, and Kevin O'Grady alleges that Hawaii's license to carry statute and various other firearm statutes and regulations are unconstitutional.

State law mandates that citizens may be provided licenses to carry only in "exceptional circumstance" or "where a need or urgency has been sufficiently indicated," all judgment criteria is left to the discretion of the Honolulu Chief of Police, Maui Chief of Police, Big Island Chief of Police, Kauai Chief of Police. And the problem is that they conspired to deny such permits to all but the most powerful and influential celebrities, political figures, judges, prosecutors in violation of the Constitutional rights of We The People.

The complaint asserts that the language of those statutes and police regulations violates the Second Amendment, which secures the right of all responsible, law-abiding citizens to bear arms for the purpose of self-defense. Additionally, the complaint also addresses the use of non-lethal tools for self-defense such as electric guns, which are banned by statute in Hawaii for civilian use, although police can and do use electric shock guns against civilians.

"The Second Amendment protects the right to self-defense. Everyday around the islands good people are robbed, assaulted, raped, or in the worst cases murdered. It's simply a matter of physics, the Police can't be everywhere to stop criminals from committing violent acts. We must be allowed to carry the tools that give us a chance to protect ourselves from harm," says Chris Baker.

"We want criminals to have to think about the consequences of attacking someone," he continued, "but right now, nothing serves as a deterrent to them – the odds are in their favor."

Hawaii Defense Foundation is a domestic not-for-profit corporation based in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Foundation serves the community by providing various services, such as: legal defense of civil rights, educational courses on firearm safety, self-defense training, and life saving techniques – such as first aid and CPR. The Foundation has many supporters and members across the State of Hawaii.

Pain of Vehicle taxes increased

State Increases in Vehicle Weight Tax, Registration Fee Taking Effect
Motorists will soon begin seeing an increase in their State motor vehicle registration charges as the result of a new State law.

The new law passed by the State Legislature this year increases State weight tax rates from .75 cents per pound to 1.75 cents per pound for vehicles that are 4,000 pounds or less.

For example, the State weight tax for a small pickup truck weighing 3,090 pounds will increase from $23.18 today to $54.08 with the increase.

Larger vehicles that weigh 4,001 pounds to 7,000 pounds will see a tax increase from 1 cent to 2 cents a pound; and vehicles that weigh 7,001 to 10,000 pounds will see an increase from 1.25 cents to 2.25 cents per pound.

Vehicles 10,001 pounds and over will be charged a flat rate of $300.00 per year in weight taxes.

The new state law also increases the annual State registration fee from $25.00 per vehicle to $45.00 per vehicle.

County weight taxes are not affected by the change in the State law.

Motorists will begin to see the new State charges when the Vehicle Registration Renewal Notices with October 31st due dates are mailed out in September.

Under State law, beginning November 1, the Vehicle Registration and Licensing Division's Motor Vehicle Registration Section will begin collecting the new State rates for ALL transactions, regardless of a vehicle's registration expiration date.

Molokai Brush Fires Knock Out 911 service, Restored

The Maui Fire Department says the brushfires which knocked out 911 service for the island of Molokai are under control.

Department officials said there were two fires in different locations, both reported at 1:34 p.m. The first fire was located along Maunaloa Highway, mile marker 3 and burned approximately 5,000 square feet.

The second fire was reported about a quarter of a mile past the first, heading in the airport direction, and burned an estimated 15 to 20 acres.

It was during these fires that Hawaiian Tel equipment was damaged and 911 services were lost for the island of Molokai. County fire fighters working alongside County public works and state highways got the fires contained at 3:30 p.m.

Emergency 911 services were rerouted and reported back on line at 3:20 p.m. The problem took place when fire damaged Hawaiian Tel equipment.

The Maui Fire Department says there may have been more than one brushfire burning at the same time today and they are still in the process of gathering all the details. Also please note that as a precaution the County has closed down its landfill on Molokai because one of the brushfires was extremely close to operations.

Maui Baldwin Park Restrooms Fall and Park Is Closed Due to Beach Erosion

[Hey, Fix Kakahaia Beach Park, Molokai]

WAILUKU, Maui, Hawaii – Baldwin Park remains closed at least until this weekend as work crews remove a collapsed restroom structure.

About half of the concrete restroom fell onto the beach after erosion cut into its foundation Wednesday afternoon.

Parks Director Glenn Correa made the call to close Baldwin Park Tuesday, thereby preventing any potential injuries. In order to reopen the park the concrete restroom structure must be removed so that workers can cap the sewer line to prevent any leakage.

Two trees that were also affected by the erosion must also be removed before the park can be reopened. Temporary restrooms will be provided for beach goers once the park reopens.

Yes, but Molokai Needs shoreline at Kakahaia Beach Park needs seawall protection and highway protection from erosion.....POSTE HASTE !!-The MAN

Obama's BATF Mexican Gun Runner Fast & Furious Fallout

A congressional investigation heard evidence that out of more than 2,000 weapons linked to illegal Fast and Furious, some 1,400 have not been recovered. The Mexican attorney general's office demanded U.S. authorities must hold accountable anyone who was responsible for the operation.

Obama's Justice Department announced the reassignment of the head of the BATF, and the resignation of a U.S. attorney whose office provided legal guidance for the illegal guns to Mexico program involving illegal weapons sales.

Kenneth Melson, who came under criticism for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives operation as the agency's acting director, will become a senior adviser on forensic issues, Obama's Justice Department said. The statement added that Todd Jones, a U.S. attorney from Minnesota, will become the acting ATF director.

Instead of being prosecuted as a criminal complicit in the illegal operation, U.S. Attorney for Arizona Dennis Burke resigned. Burke's office gave legal guidance to ATF for Operation Fast and Furious.

Accompanying statements by Obama's Attorney General Eric Holder, Melson, Jones and Burke avoided any mention of the illegal operation.

However, Melson's departure had been expected, and the timing of announcing both Melson's reassignment and Burke's resignation indicated a desire by the Obama Justice Department to distance itself from the operation.

Operation Fast and Furious allowed thousands of heavy-duty assault-type weapons to be illegally purchased, and sent to Mexico, some of which ended up in the hands of criminal drug cartels in Mexico.

The operation has come under intense criticism since the December killing of U.S. Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry in Arizona. Two weapons that were allowed to be sold under the Fast and Furious program were found at the crime scene.

Republican Sen. Charles Grassley of Iowa, a leading critic of Operation Fast and Furious, said the announcements amounted to "an admission by the Obama administration that serious mistakes were made."

Federal law enforcement officials familiar with the case said Melson was fighting to keep his job and was unwilling to be a "fall guy" for Operation Fast and Furious.

Operation Fast and Furious was "a colossal failure of leadership," Peter Forcelli, an ATF supervisor in Phoenix, has said. ATF agents were ordered to let the guns "walk" and wait for them to surface in Mexico, then blame gun in Mexico on American citizens to justify more restrictive gun laws on Americans.

The idea was a deadly miscalculation that resulted in preventable deaths, including that of agent Terry.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights! Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

Hot Potatoes

by Glenn I. Teves, County Extension Agent, UH College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources

Recent studies on Food Security in Hawaii indicate that we don't grow enough starches to feed ourselves, and carbohydrates are critical to our survival living in the middle of the Pacific. One overlooked crop is Irish potato. Not new to Hawaii, Irish potato was grown on Molokai during World War II, in the mid-1970s by Marvin Berry in the Ag Park, and more recently by Duane Craney in the old alfalfa field. And Molokai can surely grow them big. Some of Duane's lunkers were almost a foot long and looked like clubs. The potatoes were so large, they couldn't fit into the chipping machines and he lost the Frito-Lay contract.

Irish potato is like finding hidden treasure and the kids love to dig them out, even when they're not mature. A native of South America, and a member of the tomato family, growing potatoes takes seeds and timing. Buying seed potatoes can be costly if buying in small amounts, but there are many internet sources, and most are certified to be disease-free or even organic. I sometimes buy bags of potatoes and plant them, making sure they look healthy with no blemishes in and out, but I don't recommend it. There are many diseases that can be carried in the potato, including viruses, bacteria, and fungus, and can be introduced to your ground.

There are times of the year when minimal water is required to grow them, and they can also handle poor and acid soil, which makes them so versatile. Cold and wet weather over extended periods are ideal conditions for potato late blight, a devastating fungus that can melt the plant away and spoil the tubers as well. This disease caused the great potato famine in Ireland in the late 1840s, killing over 1 million and forcing many to emigrate to America and elsewhere. Ideal conditions for this disease occur from November to February. Two good times to start planting would be March and later, and also late summer in August so you can harvest before the bad weather.

Each seed piece should have at least one eye, but I like to go with two. These are planted in a furrow about 1 foot apart. One pound of seed is sufficient for about 10 feet of row. Fertilizing at planting or when the eyes start to sprout with fertilizers such as 10-30-10 or 10-20-20 seems to work well, and I also fertilize a little when I hill them, but if you're serious about planting potatoes, do a soil sample. The plant needs to be hilled when they start to send out little spears from the main stem. These are stolons where the potatoes will form on the tips, and will need to be covered in order to form potatoes.

Potatoes are classified as early, mid-, and late season. I usually grow the early and mid-season ones because I don't like to wait that long, but the later the variety, the greater the potential yield. There are many good varieties to grow, including whites, reds, russets, and yellows or even novelties such as purple, pink, red and two-tones. Some of my favorites include Red LaSoda, Dark Red Norland, Yukon Gold, Red Dale, and Chieftain, but it really comes down to what seed you can get your hands on. Keeping the small ones for seed next season is a good idea. To avoid build-up of soil-borne diseases, don't plant in the same area for a year. Eat them fast or store them in a cool place, otherwise they'll start to sprout from the heat. And nothing beats freshly grated Yukon Gold hash browns for breakfast.

Hawaii Police State Supported by More Federal Dollars: $13.9-Billion ? Is Martial Law Next?

Senators Daniel K. Akaka and Daniel K. Inouye announced that Hawaii will receive more than $13.9 million in preparedness grants distributed by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for Fiscal Year 2011.

"As we approach the tenth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, we should reflect on the tremendous toll that terrorism and natural disasters can exact, as well as the significant steps our nation has taken to strengthen our homeland defenses, [read the loss of your personal security and freedoms notwithstanding] DHS preparedness grants are critical to advancing our nation's [police state] resilience. Although I am disappointed with this year's reductions in funding, I will continue fighting to ensure that Hawaii receives the funding needed to protect our communities from acts of terrorism and major disasters [read unless perpetrated by Bush, Clinton, and Obama and DNC/RNC] ," said Senator Akaka, a senior member of the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs.

"I am very pleased that these much needed funds have been made available to Hawaii. With the APEC conference a few months away our law enforcement officials and first responders should not be worried about how to fund their activities. This money will help our police, fire fighters, and paramedics and keep our community safe [yes, safe inside their prison camps and cages! No anti-APEC demonstrations allowed, no free speech to alarm the population] ," said Senator Inouye, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Hawaii will receive funding from the following grant programs:

State Homeland Security Program – the State will receive $5,137,205 to support its homeland security strategies in planning, equipment, and training activities; Emergency Management Performance Grant Program – the State will receive $3,287,765 to enhance its emergency management capabilities;

Port Security Grant Program – the State will receive $2,763,021 to protect critical port infrastructure in the Honolulu port area; Regional Catastrophic Preparedness Grant Program – the State will receive $1,281,976 to enhance regional and community planning for emergency situations; Driver's License Security Grant Program – the State will receive $829,473 to improve the reliability of State issued personal identification documents; Metropolitan Medical Response System – the City and County of Honolulu will receive $281,693 to enhance local response efforts to mass casualty incidents; Transit Security Grant Program – the City and County of Honolulu will receive $254,000 to enhance security at critical transit infrastructure; and Citizen Corps Program – the State will receive $99,702 to coordinate emergency management.

It really leaves me wondering when people are going to put a stop to the tyranny and oppression coming at us .

Book Break Event July 27 Winners

At Molokai High and Middle Schools' Book Break on Wednesday, July 27, teachers and staff members were the first to browse and borrow new and highlighted library resources. Refreshments included specialty drinks and homemade muffins to provide a "Borders-like" setting for networking, collaboration, and lesson planning. High School principal, Stan Hao, enjoyed a Hawaiian ancient games book while new Middle School principal, Gary Davidson, found a book that captured his interest in sculpture. For a "Guess the Reader" library contest, teachers and staff members posed for pictures using their hands and a book as clues. Congratulations to Special Drawing winners: Laura Buller and Glenda Kahooanohano. Lucky Number contest winners were Lori Kaiama, Rodney Nelson & Berna Puhi.

The Scholastic Book Fair will be held from Tuesday, October 11 to 21 at Molokai High and Middle Schools' library. Students can purchase well-priced bestsellers, children and young adult series, journals, games, learning kits, how-to-do books, and ever-popular cookbooks from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Families are welcome from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. and on Tuesday October 11 and 18 from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m. Library work-study and business students will present Family Night on Tuesday, October 18 at 6:00 p.m. They will compete to convince eager readers to buy one of the students' favorite books. You can help us reach our goal of purchasing new titles for the school library. You won't want to miss Book Fair Family Night!

Democrats demand lesbians as what in school?

A band of six Democrats in the California state Senate voted today to advance a bill that has been described as "the worst school sexual indoctrination ever" and would require that school children be taught to admire "lesbian, gay, bisexual and transsexual" role models. Everyday Halogen Oven Cookbook

author: Sarah Flower

The Everyday Halogen Oven Cookbook is a practical, basic cookbook with all you want to know about cooking with this new tabletop oven. Unlike the now familiar microwave oven, the Halogen Oven uses any oven proof dish -- metal, silicon or Pyrex. Recipes for snacks, fish, meats, vegetarian and desserts included are basic, take most American cooks some adjusting to the different measurements, temperatures and cooking terminology. According to the book, Halogen Cookers are ideal for those who live alone; or for cooking quick, easy and nutritious family meals without the expense of heating up a conventional oven. Unlike a microwave, it can cook brown and crisp pastry dishes and jacket potatoes. The Everyday Halogen Oven Cookbook by nutritionist Sarah Flower is packed with delicious, healthy and simple meals as well as general advice on how to use and maintain your Halogen Cooker.

Slow Cook Fast Food

Also by nutritionist Sarah Flower offers advice for the busy family to literally take things slowly. Slow cooking is the easiest way to cook, plus it has the added advantage of being good for your health. AND you don't have to slave over a hot stove when you've finished work for the day to create your supper. Literally fill your slow cooker with your chosen ingredients and walk away for the day. Nothing could be simpler with a slow cooker!

Both books are published in the UK - hence the differences in terminology, measurements (get out your conversion tables) - but the recipes are both basic and new to this cook's repertoire. These books are distributed in the US by Parkwest Publications, www.parkwestpubs.com.

Ahumanu's CD No Ku'uipo

The Mountain Apple Company recently released a second CD by Ahumanu, Liz "Kopa'a Tita" Morales and Joni DeMello. The duo hit the mark again with this smart and joyful collection of island music. Seven new compositions highlight this collection, presented alongside lesser known classics from years past. The music is enhanced by appearances from Josh Kahula, guitar, Russ Ka'a'a, Hawaiian steel guitar, Jesse Smith, percussion, Kristine Snyder, harp.

Among the twelve tracks are "No Ku'uipo Nei Aloha" words by Ki'ope Raymond, music by Ahumanu; "I Whisper Gently to You" by Ka'upena Wong, "Hamo" by John Pi'ilani Watkins and original songs by the duo. As hosts of a daily radio show, Liz and Joni have new compositions that highlight this release. The colorful, elegant and simple six-panel CD wallet with graphics by Scott Johnson complete this quality offering.

New CD Aia I Hi'ialo by artist: Hi'ikua

"Let those of the past, carry us into the future." A I Hi'ialo is the long awaited debut CD by Hi'ikua, which features 6 original songs as well as traditional favorites. "Ka'ena Medley," "Tutu Aloha," "Pualeilani," "Noho Paipai," "Maunaloa Slack Key Live," and "Ku'u Hoa Hi'ikua" cement the eleven tracks.

In a culture that honors the legacies of the past, this Hawaiian trio of talented musicians pays homage to their roots while creating a unique and progressive sound that leaves their mark in contemporary Hawaiian music.

Kalehua Krug, Kamuela Kimokeo and Blake Leoki-Haili are Hi'ikua. The group's name derives from the Hawaiian word that literally means "to carry on one's back." Hi'ikua accepts this responsibility and intends with each song to achieve that goal: to speak of their history in words and music; to enjoy each moment of that expression, and in sharing this with you, to home that their message will find its way into the future.

The music on Aia I Hi'ialo reflects the fond memories of this group's parents and grandparents, the things that they taught, and the messages that they shared. The memories are often the source of inspiration for mele that are written to help remember important life lessons.

"Aia I Hi'ialo" is exclusively distributed by Mountain Apple Company.
