Chuck Baldwin for President The Constitution Party's Candidate

Chuck Baldwin is a candidate for President of the United States on the Constitution Party ticket. His official campaign web site is located at: <http://www.baldwin08.com/>

Baldwin has a blueprint for America's survival as a free and independent republic that the Constitution for the united States of America was designed to perpetuate in order to insure the blessings of liberty to all American Citizens regardless of race or creed. [Everybody in our constitutional republic is an equal Citizen with authority to exercise the law, rather than just obey authorities. ALL CITIZENS are Civil Officers and a constituent element of the state having equal right to administration of affairs of government; Sovereign Citizens self-govern.]

Why haven't you heard of Presidential candidate Chuck Baldwin? The national media today are nothing more than lap dogs for both major parties, but especially for the Democratic Party. We have not seen a sincere effort by the major media to circumvent the machinations of the party in power (Democrat or Republican) since the days of the Watergate investigations. The sycophant media panders to D&R power centers, and won't mention Chuck Baldwin.

However, if you support the constitutional Republic of the united States of America, you CAN vote for US Presidential candidate Chuck Baldwin of the Constitution Party, the only real conservative running for the presidency. Baldwin understands and supports the limitations on the powers of government servants defined in the Constitution for the united States of America. Lets save the Republic from socialists and fascists and traitors.

Barack Obama is a committed socialist, and John McCain has never been, a true conservative. Barack Obama and John McCain hold and boast of several views that are the antithesis of our Constitution for the united States of America on issues like global warming, taxes, and illegal aliens, War, and economy, socialism, education, and against the right of American Citizens to keep and bear arms for protection of our families and our Republic and Constitutional limits on government servants. [VP candidate Sarah Palin is contrasted with Joe Biden in that she's young, pro-life, pro-gun, pro-energy and pro-tax cuts, i.e., she's republican.]

Are you concerned that granting amnesty to 12-38 million illegal aliens will destroy American language and culture as well as the US economy, education, health care, and reliance on the rule of law?

John McCain and Obama have both stated their support for such a devastating plan! A vote for Obama or McCain will guarantee the decay of America into a third world existence! The situation our country faces is even more dangerous with Hiliary Clinton likely to be Obama's secretary of state, if he is elected President. Both major parties' platforms and their candidates remain committed to militarism and reckless spending - with inflationary economy to fund it all.

Restore Republic is the first step in alerting our countrymen to these dangers, and spread the message of freedom as the only remedy. We must resist the false choices the two major parties are giving us: Vote Chuck Baldwin for President.

Economic TREASON by D.C. will make hard times in Hawaii

Congressional legislation, greed, and Clinton era arm twisting forced lending institutions to give subprime loans to people who otherwise did not qualify for mortgages, thus causing today's economic troubles and a proposed $700 Billion bailout burden on Taxpayers.

Since the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, Congress requires banks to offer loans to minorities in low-income areas, even if the clients can't make down payments, don't have good credit histories, or even employment histories. These high interest subprime loans frequently default.

Barack Obama and Democrats blame today's financial turmoil on a dysfunctional market, forgetting that more legislation by Democrats during the Clinton years are a prime reason for it. The Clinton administration, obsessed with multiculturalism, dictated [regulated with stiff penalties] where mortgage lenders could lend, and originally helped create the market for the high-risk subprime loans. The Community Redevelopment Act on steroids.

Yes, the market was fueled by greed and overleveraging in the secondary market for subprimes, mortgaged-backed securities traded on Wall Street. But the seed was planted in the '90s by Clinton and his social engineers. They were the political catalyst behind this slow-motion financial train wreck.

Clinton administration cronies mismanaged the quasi-governmental agencies that over the decades have come to manage the real estate market in America. Frank Raines took the helm at Fannie Mae in 1999, then used it as his personal piggy bank, looting it for a total of almost $100 million in compensation by the time he left in early 2005 under an ethical cloud, being accused of overstating earnings and shifting losses so he and other executives could earn big bonuses.

Other Clinton cronies, including Janet Reno aide Jamie Gorelick, padded their pockets to the tune of another $75 million.

At the same time, the Clinton administration was pushing Fannie and her brother Freddie Mac to buy more mortgages from low-income households. The Clinton-era corruption, combined with unprecedented catering to affordable-housing lobbyists, resulted in today's nationalization of both Fannie and Freddie, a move that is expected to cost taxpayers 700 billions of dollars.

And the worst is far from over. By the time it is, we'll all be paying for Clinton's social experiment, one that Obama hopes to trump with a whole new round of meddling in the housing and jobs markets. The social experiment Obama has planned is huge and expensive beyond dreams. The government-can-do-no-wrong crowd just doesn't get it. They won't acknowledge the law of unintended consequences from their misguided War on the Economy TREASONOUS acts.

Obama and Democrats in DC think even more regulation and more interference in the market will solve the problem their policies helped cause. For now, unarmed by the historic record, conventional wisdom is buying into their blame-business-first rhetoric and bigger-government solutions.

Market failure? Hardly, this crisis has government's fingerprints all over it.

MHS Library Gets Endowed

Molokai High School Library is the proud recipient of The National Endowment for the Humanities' new Picturing America initiative. Picturing America provides an innovative way for citizens of all ages to explore the history and character of America through some of our nation's great works of art.

As one of the over 26,000 schools and public libraries recently to receive the program, we have access to this high quality resource that we are using to engage our students with discussions of our nation's art, history, civics, literature!

The images of people, places, and events illustrating American history give our students a chance to better understand our country's past and its ideals. What better way to see the courage of a great leader than through Emanuel Leutze's Washington Crossing the Delaware? How better to appreciate the power of American democracy than through Norman Rockwell's Freedom of Speech? These masterpieces are opening our students' eyes to America's rich history and culture while providing an introduction to the broader world of the humanities.

For more information on the program, you can visit the Picturing America Web site at: www.PicturingAmerica.neh.gov. Feel free to peruse the site, and check out the images and the great links included. Sit down with your kids and start conversations about the beautiful masterpieces!

The NEH will offer Picturing America to more schools and libraries in 2009. Applications are currently being accepted. All eligible organizations in the U.S. and its territories that have not previously received Picturing America may apply for the program through Oct. 31, 2008 at PicturingAmerica.neh.gov

Chuck Baldwin for President

The American people do have a real choice for President and V.P. in the Constitution Party's nomination of Chuck Baldwin for President and his VP running mate Darrell Castle (a former Marine Corps officer and Vietnam veteran)

Ron Paul has endorsed this team, and asks his supporters to vote for them.

Chuck Baldwin, unlike Obama and McCain speaks of the Constitutional limits on powers of government agents: "I want to return America to constitutional government. "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people." (Amendment X) I believe that, and will govern the Executive branch of the federal government accordingly.

My sworn oath to the Tenth Amendment means I would dismantle the Patriot Act and restore law enforcement to the states and local governments, where it rightly belongs. Yes, this includes the so-called "war on drugs" and the so-called "war on terror." No more warrantless searches and seizures. No more eavesdropping on Americans' phone calls, or collecting Americans' emails, or spying on American citizens without court order and oversight. No more stripping Americans of their constitutional rights in the name of "national security." In addition, I would use every power and authority vested to my office to preserve and protect the right of the people to keep and bear arms. And, yes, I will immediately restore Posse Comitatus. As President, I want to protect America from Washington, D.C., as much I want to protect it from foreign powers.

I will also take the words of the Declaration of Independence seriously, where it states, "That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States." This means the day I am sworn in as President of the United States, the New World Order comes crashing down! The NAFTA super-highway is dead. The North American Union is dead. I will work to eliminate NAFTA, CAFTA, GATT, and the WTO. The FTAA is DOA. I will not expend tax dollars for the support of the United Nations.

Furthermore, I will take my oath to the Constitution seriously, when it states that one of the express purposes of the federal government is to "repel Invasions." This means we will secure America's borders, because the illegal immigration crisis is more than mere immigration: it is an invasion, and I will stop it! Even if I have to send the U.S. Army to the borders, we will put a stop to this invasion of illegal aliens. I will also aggressively prosecute those employers who knowingly hire illegals. And did I mention that my first day in office is Border Patrol Agents Ramos and Compean's last day in prison? I will personally open the prison doors and restore to these men their freedom. I will also give them their jobs back (with pay), if they want them. And one more item on this point: my first day of office is also U.S. Attorney Johnny Sutton's last day on the job.

I also share Ron Paul's concerns for the way the two major parties have allowed the United States to become a meddling, interventionist, nation-building empire for the sake of satisfying the greedy machinations of international bankers and power-hungry politicians. I will not only bring our troops home from Iraq and Afghanistan, but also from most of the other 130 nations that currently house U.S. forces. I will end foreign aid. The Book of Honu: Enjoying and Learning about Hawaii's Sea Turtles

Authors Peter Bennett & Ursula Keuper-Bennett

Avid sports divers Peter Bennett & Ursula Keuper-Bennett tell of their love of Hawaiian green sea turtles they have met and followed since their first in 1988 they named Clothahump, off Honokawai, Maui. They dedicate the book to Clothahump, their first honu friend, who they observed and bonded with until she died of tumors they saw developing until 1993, their last sighting of her.

Though they were not scientists, they learned from and shared with George H. Balazs, turtle expert and others. The Book of Honu: Enjoying and Learning about Hawaii's Sea Turtles is a landmark document of photographs of individuals, Honu habits and habitat. Over twenty years' collection of experiences of a special group of Honu is the story of respect, affection and survival of an ancient native population beginning to make a comeback. The authors tell of the highly successful conservation and research program and protection granted by the U.S. Endangered Species Act enabling encounters between sea turtles and humans in Hawai'i becoming more common.

The science of our vegetarian ocean friends, how best to see them and respect them, their nesting and life cycles, some of their distress issues are discussed in an easily read style. Detailed stories of encounters between Honu, at various sites, the use of updated scientific tagging, tracking and identification methods are told with respect and look to the future survival the special Hawaiian Green Sea Turtles, the Honu. Clear, colorful underwater photographs by the authors of individuals including Clothahump, Akebono, Tutu, Nui, and George enrich the story of the amazing Honu of Hawai'i and their relatives.

The Chapter 10 allegory of the classic The Little Prince is a thought-provoking conclusion to The Book of Honu: Enjoying and Learning about Hawai'i's Sea Turtles [University of Hawai'i Press, ISBN 978-0-8248-3127-1, softcover, $18.95]. SP

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Anti-gun Mayor is Convicted

Kwame Kilpatrick, the now-former black mayor of Detroit, and a member of New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg's "Mayors Against Illegal Guns," pled guilty to felony charges of lying under oath and obstruction of justice, and pled no-contest to the charge of assaulting a police officer, on September 4th.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge David Groner sentenced Kilpatrick to two concurrent terms of four months in jail and fined him $1 million. Kilpatrick, who refused to resign from the mayor's job before being sentenced, was also forced to resign. He also lost his law license and will serve a five-year probation, during which time he will be barred from running for office.

Last year, Sen. Barack Obama called Kilpatrick a "great mayor" and "friend," revered as a "leader . . . across the country" for doing an "outstanding job" of bringing about a "renaissance" in the Motor City. As Kilpatrick's legal fate seemed unavoidable, however, Obama called upon him to resign.

Presidential candidate Barack OBAMA SUPPORTS GUN BANs:

A Total Ban on Handguns

A Ban on Firearms Kept in the Home

A Ban on Right-to-Carry Permits

A Ban on the Sale or Transfer of All Semi-Auto Firearms

Obama supported a proposal to ban gun stores within 5 miles of a school or park, which would eliminate almost every gun store in America.

Obama has made it clear – he believes gun owners are dangerous and that guns should be banned. If he is elected President, he could name new Supreme Court Justices who will try to overturn the recent US Supreme Court decision in Heller case that 2nd Amendment is an individual right to keep and bear arms.

Obama's VP choice, Joe Biden, is also ANTI 2nd Am. Just like fellow Democrats Edward Kennedy, Charles Schumer and Dianne Feinstein, Biden has voted for, and actively pushed, major anti-gun bills:

- * Banning semi-automatic firearms;
- * Banning hunting, sporting and self-defense ammunition;
- * Banning magazines holding more than 10 rounds; and
- * Imposing a waiting period on handgun sales.

Biden also voted against the law that prohibits lawsuits designed to bankrupt law-abiding firearm manufacturers and dealers. And he voted against the confirmation of Supreme Court Justices who support the Second Amendment, and voted for the confirmation of Justices who do not.

The Brady Campaign sums it up in a straightforward fashion: "Senator Biden has been a consistent supporter of the Brady Campaign." Biden was a key player in the fight for the Clinton federal assault weapons ban that passed in 1994. During the Democratic Party's presidential nomination debates, Biden said, "I'm the guy who originally wrote the assault weapons ban."

When 300 members of Congress signed a legal brief supporting the Second Amendment and opposing D.C.'s handgun ban. Biden, like Obama, refused it.

It is fair to say that if Barack Obama is elected president, Joe Biden will be the most anti-gun vice president in American history.

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

Chuck Baldwin for U.S. Presidentcontinued from page 2

I will get the U.S. out of NATO. It is past time for the European states to defend themselves. It is time for us to stop sticking our nose in every other nation's business and start taking care of the United States. The Warfare State will kill us. Global empires are not sustainable. I repeat: global empires are not sustainable. History proves that fact.

Because I take my oath to the Constitution for the united States of America seriously, I would never send troops to invade and occupy a foreign country without a Declaration of War by Congress. In dealing with rogue terrorist organizations such as al Qaeda, I will seek letters of Marque and Reprisal from Congress, which would give me the authority to use whatever special and/or private forces are necessary to seek out and destroy those who desire our hurt.

I am absolutely dedicated to preserving religious liberty, via 1st Amendment.
 Religious tyranny is as evil as political or social tyranny. And, as I will be no man's slave, neither will I be any man's master.

I also share Dr. Ron Paul's commitment to the sanctity of life. When I become President, I will use the bully pulpit of the White House to press Congress to pass Dr. Paul's Sanctity of Life Act, which would overturn Roe v.
 Wade and end abortion-on-demand.

As President, I will enforce Constitution-based sound money policies. I would seek to eliminate the Internal Revenue Service, and disband the Federal Reserve. I would lead the charge to return America to sound money principles. I would seek to reduce federal spending to constitutional levels by eliminating the Departments of Education, Commerce, Energy. I would demand that Congress pass a balanced budget and that we stop deficit spending.

Neither John McCain nor Barack Obama will do any of the above.

Needless to say, I am both humbled and honored that Ron Paul endorsed me for President. I can think of no higher compliment to my candidacy., and now publicly thank him for this vote of confidence. I know my Vice Presidential running mate, Darrell Castle (a former Marine Corps officer and Vietnam veteran), joins me in inviting all of Dr. Paul's supporters to help us take the message of constitutional government into the general election on November 4.

Thank you.
