Hawaii Democratic Party Officials Should be Called to Testify re: Obama; and National Review Joins Call to Investigate Obama's Justice Department, and others

Information has come to light that the Democratic Party in Hawaii refused to certify that Obama is Eligible to be President and that Nancy Pelosi falsified the Forms sent to Hawaii to ensure Obama got on the ballot and his eligibility was therefore a Fraud, and thereby established that Obama is not eligible to be President. Nationwide there are calls to subpoena the whole Democratic Party Leadership from Hawaii to Testify before a Federal Grand Jury. However, a means needs to be found to by-pass the DOJ and Eric Holder, we all know where that will get us. [We The People are Sovereign, the final Enforcers of the Law of the Land, and we may need to use our guns to enforce the Law this time against Obama]

The flagship publication of the conservative movement has joined the call to investigate Barack Obama's Justice Department. In his his article on NRO entitled "Investigate Racism in the Obama Justice Department," Andrew C. McCarthy agrees the department's racially charged dismissal of the Black Panther case of Intimidation of White Voters represents a "crime" and Congress has the Constitutional obligation to end the "criminalization of the Justice Department."

Taking note of the Republican Party's new Pledge to America, McCarthy begins: If the Republican party is interested in making...a pledge that will resonate with the vast majority of the American people — here's a suggestion: Promise an unwavering commitment to the principle of equal protection of the law for every American citizen; and that Congress will investigate weighty allegations that the Obama Justice Department is engaged in racist law-enforcement practices, and that any executive-branch high official who has conspired to deny American citizens equal protection, or who has obstructed justice in an effort to cover up such a conspiracy, will be impeached and removed from office.

McCarthy has an unimpeachable background in the law and high-stakes investigations. A former federal prosecutor, his endorsement brings significant legal gravitas to the argument that Obama's officials, possibly up to and including Obama himself, have run afoul of the legal and constitutional functions of the Offices they hold and should face impeachment.

Last Friday, career Justice Department lawyer Christopher Coates, who once headed the Voting Rights division, testified the department retreated from a case it had already won after pressure from the president's political allies (especially the NAACP), and under the direction of Obama's political appointees.

In other words, the U.S. Justice Department is a racist institution dedicated to denying white people equal protection under the law. That, notes McCarthy, is a violation of every canon of American jurisprudence.

In addition to the racial discrimination, the Black Panther case may involve perjury and obstruction of justice. The third-ranking official in the Department of Justice, Thomas Perez, testified under oath that there had been no "political leadership involved in the decision not to pursue this particular case." However, new documents show Democratic Party lawyer and political appointees had been deeply involved, including deputy associate attorney general Sam Hirsch (a former Obama campaign operative who has pushed for the race-based Balkanization of Hawaii)." He favored the Akaka bill, a race-based bill to grant native Hawaiians tribal rule (and a large chunk of 1.8 million acres of federal land under dispute), having testified on its behalf in August 2009."

If Perez lied under oath, as it increasingly appears he did, that constitutes perjury and obstruction of justice. If he acted on orders from above, and he almost invariably did, his superiors should share the blame — and the witness stand.

McCarthy concludes such a violation of fundamental legal principle requires action: The Constitution guarantees all Americans equal protection under the law. The civil-rights laws, moreover, make it a crime for government officials to deprive "any person" — not any black or minority person, but any person, period — of "any rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or laws of the United States." It is a grave violation of law for the Justice Department to practice racial discrimination in deciding which cases it will bring, to determine that Americans of one race or class are not entitled to the same protection as all Americans.

That's not just politicization of the Justice Department. It is criminalization of the Justice Department. Under the Constitution, it is Congress's obligation to stop it. The current Congress obviously won't do its duty. Americans will strongly support congressional candidates who pledge to right that wrong.

Thus, one of the featured writers of conservatism's most prestigious magazine has endorsed the call for an investigation — and "impeachment" — of anyone involved in this travesty. Those proceedings should be among the first undertakings of any new Republican Congress elected in November.

Crime: Big Daddy's Restaurant Burglarized

Filipino Food Speciality Workers Vicitimized Again When Cash Register Stolen on 9-27 night

Night time on September 27 after Big Daddy's Store closed, someone entered the Filipino speciality foods restaurant and store by unknown method, then exited taking away the establishments' cash register, according to Molokai Police.

There was about $120 dollars in the cash register according to owner Mr. Ruiz, who along with his chief cook Alicia suffer the growing crime rate on Molokai, again. This is their hard work that earns their money to pay business expenses and buy equipment, like expensive cash register, needed to do business and serve their customers efficiently.

Even in the face of such loss of funding and essential equipment, Big Daddy's employees pulled together and produced their fine stylized cuisine from the Phillipines for lunch, ready to serve: pinakbet, mongo beans and pork, along with other local favorites katsu chicken, Koren chicken, sweet/sour pork, rice, and for a finish off of sweets, Big Daddy's famous coconut cascarons and banana lumpia. But how you going do business without a cash register? Today, Alicia and Mr. Ruiz were using a little metal box to hold the receipts and make change.

"Its sad," lamented Mr. Ruiz as he stood behind the counter on which the cash register used to sit. "They need money, they should work like we do to earn the money, not steal our hard earned money and equipment. I hope who ever took our cash register and our money will think first, do the right thing and return to us. But I reported this to police, and now police will try to find it."

Food Corruption by Congress?

S. 510, the FDA Food Safety and Modernization Act says: "In the interest of national security, the secretary of health and human services, in consultation with the secretary of Homeland security, may determine...." WTF! STOP IT !!

This allows for cover-ups and incompetence by allowing food-related government reports to be classified under the banner "national security".

And in section 306, part C, number 5, and in Section 404, the bill seeks to "harmonize" U.S. policy with the international Codex Alimentarius and the World Trade Organization - a backdoor means to world government.

"I urge you to oppose S. 510," urged Molokai resident Jade.

Tax the Congresscritters! H.R. 6145 and S.3790 are small but pivotal steps to stop corruption in the government introduced by Rep. Jason Chaffetz. The bills summary states: "To require Members of Congress to disclose delinquent tax liability, require an ethics inquiry, and garnish the wages of a Member with Federal tax liability." S. 3790, summary states: "A bill to amend title 5, United States Code, to provide that persons having seriously delinquent tax debts shall be ineligible for Federal employment." Ineligibility for federal employment applies to future and current employees, which means we can KEEP the bums out, and KICK some of them out too! These include Obama's Sec. Treasury, Timothy Geithner, Health and Human Services Secretary, Kathleen Sebelius, and 39 other Obama's Executive Office employees. All together they owe over $830,000 in taxes.

Military Pay for Retroactive Stop Loss Service Deadline Oct

WASHINGTON – Military members whose service was involuntarily extended, or whose retirement was suspended between September 11, 2001 and September 30, 2009, due to stop loss are entitled to retroactive payments of $500 for each month they were extended, according to Department of Defense officials. But the deadline to receive those benefits is rapidly drawing to a close. The deadline to apply for the benefits is October 21, 2010.

Only about 58,000 of the 145,000 eligible claims have been paid, leaving more than $300 million available to eligible veterans. The average payout for each veteran is close to $4,000. Survivors of a service member whose service was extended, are also eligible to apply for the retroactive payments.

The 2009 War Supplemental Appropriations Act established the Retroactive Stop Loss Special Pay and throughout the past year the services have been reaching out to eligible veterans, service members and their families through direct mail, veteran service organizations and the media. But by law there is no authorization to make payments on claims submitted after October 21, 2010.

Eligible people should print, complete and sign Department of Defense Form 2944, Claim for Retroactive Stop Loss Payment. They must then select the appropriate method for submitting their claim form based upon their service requirements. The information can be found on their service's stop loss web site, accessible from www.defense.gov/home/features/2010/0710\_stoploss/, or call: Army: (877) 736-5554; Navy: (901) 874-4427; Marine Corps: (877) 242-2830 and Air Force: (800) 525-0102. ## PUC says Molokai Ranch's Public Water Utilities need money, approve water rate increase 126%

Sep 23, 2010 The state Public Utilities Commission has approved an annual revenue increase of $548,682, or 126.5 percent, for Molokai Public Utilities Inc. The commission said Thursday that it recognizes the increase in MPU's water rates is large. But it says the increase is needed for MPU to continue essential water serve in the Kaluakoi area without interruption.

The company initially requested an increase of 201.5%, but subsequently amended its request to seek an increase of 126.8%.

U.S. Supreme Court Upholds

“...the right of the People to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

“Fundamental” Right to Guns

Gun ownership rights of the People as stated in the 2nd Amendment were upheld again in Monday's U.S. Supreme Court Ruling, and supporters of the Constitution for the United States of America have hailed the ruling as a victory. This is the first time the US Supreme Court has offered a clear definition of national significance of the 2nd Amendment's guarantee that right of the People to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed, and orders the lower federal appeals court to reconsider its ruling - leaving little doubt that the Chicago laws will eventually be overturned, and Hawaii's chapter 134 HRS challenged.

In McDonald, v. Chicago, (08-1521) the ruling makes it clear that this does not mean that all laws governing gun ownership in America are immediately void. But Justice Samuel A. Alito, Jr., in the Court's main opinion did make unmistakably clear to lower court judges that the right to have a gun for self-defense in the home is a "fundamental" constitutional right; and that the Second Amendment right of the People to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed applies equally against the federal government and against the states.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke

"Those who make peaceful change impossible, make violent change inevitable." -- Robert F. Kennedy

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

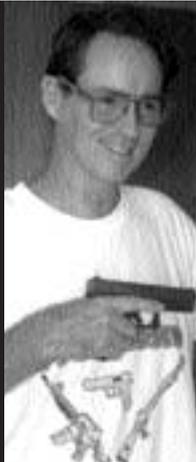

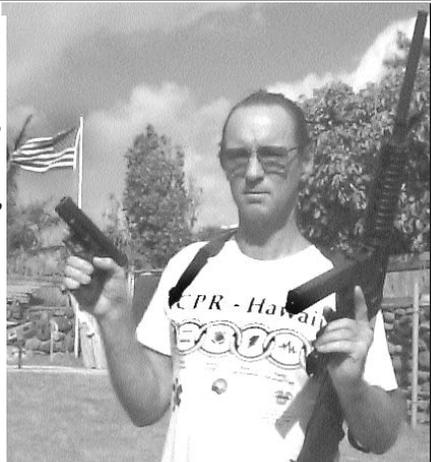

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

The Kioea: Unofficial Bird of Kaunakakai

Arleone Dibben-Young

The kioea (Bristle-thighed Curlew, Numenius tahitiensis) is a large shorebird that has been returning to Kaunakakai's coast every winter for centuries. Most of its days are spent at Ka la`i o kioea 'the tranquil spot of the kioea' - the Koheo wetland at the end of Seaside Place. In 1909, John F.G. Stokes of the Bishop Museum wrote "Here there were numerous plover and curlews. The curlews are said to have called to the canoes to go out to sea to fish. Hence, the saying, "Moloka`i i ke kioea ho`olale ka wa`a - Moloka`i where the kioea urge on the canoes." The kioea can also be observed at Duke Maliu Regional Park second base outfield, the Monsanto corn field to the east, and the Molokai Education Center lawn. The curlews are easily recognized by an 8" long decurved bill which is used to probe beneath stones and in soft soils. The species is the only shorebird known to use tools when foraging and will hammer prey such as crabs and eggs of other birds with a rock held in its bill.

Bristle-thighed Curlews are considered one of the rarest and most unique shorebirds in the world. It winters exclusively on islands of Oceania and its breeding grounds remained a mystery until 1948, when birds were discovered nesting in a remote area of the Alaskan tundra. A federally protected species, population estimates are fewer than 7,000 individuals. A bird banded in 1967 was accidentally killed during a scientific study in 1991 and holds the longevity record of 23 years and 10 months. Over the past several years a research project by the USGS Alaska Science Center utilized surgically implanted satellite transmitters to identify habitats and migration routes of curlews. View the USGS website for photos, satellite maps and more information on the kioea, Kaunakakai's extraordinary winter resident:

Real purpose of "Homeland Security": to protect politicians from Americans, especially veterans and other patriots who support the Constitution for the United States of America, the Law of the Land!

Obama's Department of Homeland Security is at it again. Their latest report: "Domestic terrorism is on the rise."

This is a rehash of last year's report which among other things said that returning veterans were a terrorist threat.....Which is a rehash of reports - and government staged events - going back to the 90s.

Remember all those new anti-Constitutional "laws" designed to protect us from terrorism? Now they're used by Obama gangsters to monitor American Citizens with "extremist" positions like having an opinion about health care ...immigration...the 2nd Amendment...the wars without end, crime.

See the video: <http://www.brasschecktv.com/page/940.html>

Make no mistake.

Obama's Department of Homeland Security was NOT designed to protect Americans from terrorists. It was designed to protect politicians from Americans.

Rep. Jim Clyburn, D-SC, is warning fellow Democrats that a new Republican Congress will investigate Barack Obama's birth certificate and eligibility. Lt. Col. Robert "Buzz" Patterson told NewsMax that Obama bundler Jodie Evans could (and should) be tried for treason. And Rep. James Sensenbrenner, R-WI, today considered keeping open a House select committee to investigate climategate. (Rep. Darrell Issa also pledged to investigate this and many other crimes in the new year.) At a minimum, this confluence of coverage demonstrates the gravity of the charges and abundance of the need for increased scrutiny and potential legal action.

Obama's Pro-Terrorists and Thuggish Elitists on Speed Dial

The investigation of the former SEIU president cuts particularly close to the Obama White House. Andrew Stern is a former New Leftist who spent $5 million of SEIU union dues to buy into George Soros' Democracy Alliance and later took a seat on the executive council of Americans Coming Together (ACT), Soros' get-out-the-vote organ. (Journalists recently learned that ACT, which allegedly closed its doors in 2005, is still open and paid $775,000 in "civil fees" after Ralph Nader filed a Federal Election Commission complaint of dirty tricks in the '04 election.) SEIU donated at least $27.8 million to Obama's 2008 presidential campaign, and in return Stern visited the White House more than any other person. Obama, in turn, appointed SEIU lawyer Craig Becker to head the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). Stern remains a member of Obama's deficit reduction commission.

Three Unanswered Questions:

Was Barack Obama Born in Kenya?

Is He Really a Citizen of Indonesia?

Does the Constitution still Matter?

OBAMA IS A USURPER!

U.S. Constitution, Article II, Section 1, Clause 5 . . .

No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States.

DEFINITION

The natives, or natural-born citizens, are those born in the country, of parents [both] who are citizens.

Emer de Vattel, "The Law of Nations and Principles of Natural Law," Vol. 1, Chap. 19, Sec. 212

"Citizen" of the U.S. if he was physically born in Hawaii, not born elsewhere and falsely registered as born there after the fact.

At birth, Barack Obama acquired dual citizenship through his British non-U.S. citizen father. Our Founders excluded dual citizens from eligibility to the Presidency for national security reasons. Every military order Barack Obama gives as Commander-in-Chief, every bill he signs into law, and every executive decision he makes while unconstitutionally seated in the Office of President, are unconstitutional, and hence illegal. Obama is NOT a "natural born Citizen" of the USA. The U.S. Courts and Congress MUST address the merits of the charges for this constitutional issue, and constitutionally remove Barack Obama in order to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States. This is their sworn Oath to the Constitution and to the American people.
