New Year Brings New Experience: Seahorses at Waialua Beach

The sun finally shone on a Sunday afternoon, the Galam family was enjoying the calmer, cleaner seashore after a storm week. Kamalu and Kaya Galam first spotted the two sea horses at the water's edge. The sharp, observant youngsters alerted adults who helped place them into a bucket of seawater with an aerator. The sea horses were about 6 inches from head to curled tail. One appeared to have an egg pouch, the other, smaller, but equally graceful. What a story for "show and tell" for the opio to share with classmates.! Thanks for sharing with the M.A.N.! photo by S. Stop War on Drugs 2009

Every day that goes by, 4,000 people are arrested for drug offenses, the vast majority of them minor, and half a million nonviolent drug offenders languish in the staggering number of prisons and jails the fascist Police State American government has very unwisely built.

It's time to stop this senseless tragedy and shocking injustice.

Stop the drug war -- visit <http://stopthedrugwar.org/donate> to donate to StoptheDrugWar.org today. Thank you!

What will Barack Hussein Obama do about What Happened on 9-11-01?

On September 11, 2001, we Americans were the victims of TREASON.

By September 12, we Americans all became the suspects watched by FBI.

Not one single U.S. citizen hijacked a plane, yet President Bush and DOJ, through powers seized and codified in the fascist USA PATRIOT Act, labeled 270 million of us for surveillance, for searches, for tracking, for prison without charges. Welcome to the New World Order! Police State USA!

So, what will Obama do to restor freedom if he is elected President?

Guantanamo 'a stain on US military'

The tribunals used for putting suspects on trial at Guantanamo Bay are a "stain on America's military", a former military prosecutor has told the BBC in his first interview since resigning.

For Lt Col Darrel Vandeveld, a devout Catholic, the twin responsibilities of religious faith and military duty led to a profound moral crisis.

His resignation has led to charges against six inmates being dropped, at least for now, and called into question the possibility of a fair legal process at Guantanamo.

"I know so many fighting men and women who are stained by the taint of Guantanamo, so I'm here to tell the truth about Guantanamo and how a few people have sullied the American military and the constitution," he told me during an interview in his home town of Erie, Pennsylvania.

A reservist, Darrel Vandeveld was called up as a military lawyer after 9/11 and served in Iraq, Bosnia and Africa.

In 2007, he became a prosecutor for the military commissions which tried terrorist suspects held at Guantanamo Bay, a role he took enthusiastically.

"I went down there on a mission and my mission was to convict as many of these detainees as possible and put them in prison for as long as I possibly could," he told the BBC.

"I had zero doubts. I was a true believer." But his zeal did not last long.

When he arrived, he says he found the prosecutor's office in chaos, with boxes scattered around the floor, files disorganised, evidence scattered in different places and no clear chain of command.

And more seriously, he soon discovered that defence lawyers were not receiving information which could help clear their clients, including evidence that suspects had been "mistreated" in order to secure confessions.

It was one case in particular, that of a young Afghan called Mohammed Jawad, which caused most concern. Col Vandeveld says that in a locker he found indisputable evidence that Mr Jawad had been mistreated.

After Mr Jawad had tried to commit suicide by banging his head against a wall at Guantanamo, Col Vandeveld says that psychologists who assisted interrogators advised taking advantage of Mr Jawad's vulnerability by subjecting him to specialist interrogation techniques known as "fear up". He was also placed, Col Vandeveld says, into what was known as the "frequent flyer" programme in which he was moved from cell to cell every few hours, with the aim of preventing him sleeping properly, and securing a confession.

Col Vandeveld found himself deeply troubled by what he discovered, and eventually he did resign and has chosen to speak out about what he saw.

"I never suffered such anguish in my life about anything," he says, looking back over the period. "It took me too long to recognise that we had abandoned our American values and defiled our constitution."

Col Vandeveld was forced to undergo a mental status evaluation after expressing his concerns and his military career is over. He has no regrets.

Col Vandeveld was prosecuting six cases, including that of Binyam Mohamed, the last British resident held at Guantanamo. After his resignation, charges in these cases were dropped but with the possibility they may be re-filed at any point.

Binyam Mohamed's lawyers say he was tortured as part of the CIA's extraordinary rendition programme and are hopeful that he may not be charged again, on the grounds that this might reveal too many details of the rendition programme.

A Pentagon spokesman said: "We dispute Darrel Vandeveld's assertions and maintain the military commission process provides full and fair trials to accused unlawful enemy combatants who are charged with a variety of war crimes."

President-elect Barack Obama has said he wants to shut Guantanamo, but a military Judge will deny Obama's request to suspend hearings there.

What will Obama decide to do about Guantanamo's so-called "military commissions" — the Bush Administration's controversial legal apparatus for judging accused terrorists. The Supreme Court and other federal courts have repeatedly found fault with the commissions, which critics say are show trials unworthy of American jurisprudence. And, the destruction by Central Intelligence Agency officials of videotapes showing the interrogation of suspected terrorists is the subject of "an ongoing criminal investigation" that is expected to conclude in the near future, according to a prosecution official.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Obama Appoints Anti-gun rights Attorney General !!!

Attorney General Nominee is an anti-gun activist

With the nomination of Eric Holder to be US Attorney General, President Barack Obama could not have picked a more anti-Second Amendment nominee for that powerful office. He is Eric Holder, and he has a long history of anti-Second Amendment activism, going back to the days when he was the Clinton administration's main gun control advocate.

Holder's record includes his support of a three day waiting period for handgun purchases, handgun rationing of one gun per month, renewing the semi-automatic gun ban, gun owner registration and licensing, and much more.

Gun Owners of America Opposes Obama's AG Nominee

Gun Owners of America E-Mail Alert: <http://www.gunowners.org>

"I have many serious questions about Mr. Holder's nomination. At the top of the list are his anti-2nd amendment right positions. He's clearly advocated near universal licensing and registration, and he joined and filed an amicus brief in the District of Columbia v. Heller U.S. Supreme Court case arguing that the 2nd amendment was NOT an individual right. That's deeply disturbing."

-- U.S. Sen. David Vitter (R-LA)

MAKAALA!!! The Senate Judiciary Committee passed the nomination of Eric Holder yesterday by a 17-2 vote.

Thankfully, there are some Senators who are lining up against Holder:

* Wyoming Senator John Barrasso: "Given Holder's career of attacks on the Second Amendment, his nomination continues to be of great concern to me.... Our nation's highest law enforcement officer must be committed to protecting and defending our individual rights to keep and bear arms. I intend to vote no on the nomination of Eric Holder."

* Senator David Vitter: "[Holder has] clearly advocated near universal licensing and registration, and he joined and filed an amicus brief in the District of Columbia v. Heller U.S. Supreme Court case arguing that the 2nd amendment was NOT an individual right. That's deeply disturbing."

Senator James DeMint: "Club friendships have become more important," than "where we're going as a country."

So what can we do? ACTION: Gun Owners Legislative Action Center at <http://www.gunowners.org/activism.htm> to send your Senators a pre-written e-mail message. NOTE: The pre-written letter will differ according to whether your Senator is a Republican or Democrat.

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

Hawai'i Supreme Court and Superferry Case

From: Lanny Sinkin <lanny.sinkin@gmail.com>
 To: EditorMolokai Advertiser-News

Certainly such [criminal] prosecution [of Lingle] is a possibility. If the Supreme Court states in any fashion that the operations of Superferry in August 2007 were illegal, an approach could be made to the FBI for a criminal investigation. The approach would be based on three elements: (1) with the Attorney General participating in the conspiracy, the State enforcement apparatus is compromised and federal enforcement is needed, (2) the actions of the Coast Guard, DLNR, Sheriffs, SWAT et al. in August 2007 represented violations of the civil rights of those falsely arrested, those who had their surf boards illegally seized, those assaulted by law enforcement, and (3) the Coast Guard (and quite likely the Office of Homeland Security) participated in the Governor's Unified Command, by adopting a security zone for Kaua'i Harbor and threatening anyone entering that zone with criminal prosecution on multiple counts (falls under terroristic threatening in state law as well).

As I say, we shall see whether the Supreme Court turns their light on that whole aspect of the Superferry episode.

Prosecuting Crooks in Federal Government? Rove et al?

Many of you have written asking about the likelihood of prosecuting Bush officials. Recently, Chairman Conyers and Speaker Pelosi have indicated support for a serious inquiry and to execute true accountability for the crimes of the Bush administration. It's not as if we don't know what has taken place: Cheney has openly acknowledged his role in key decisions.

There must also be accountability for those who have abused the Constitution and rejected the legitimate power of Congress during the past eight years.

With that in mind, I am very pleased that Chairman John Conyers has again subpoenaed Karl Rove to testify before Congress regarding his role in the firing of U.S. Attorneys by the Bush Administration. Rove's old claims of executive privilege should be rejected and I am hopeful we will finally unearth the truth.

Will Obama use the powers of the Office of President to exposed the truth about 9/11 and Bush et al? Get justice for masacure of 85 children at Waco? Ruby Ridge debachle? The TREASON of national and local police department officials. Stop the War on Drugs?

Hawaiian Coot's Toe Amputated

So, she will not be released yet.

It took five people: Sterling, the visiting veterinarian, Tessa, his assistant with the Molokai Humane Society, Beth Collings and Gerry Thomas, two retired dentists who live part-time here and have been helping me band birds, and myself. The Hawaiian Coot was injected to numb the site, The part of the toe that was dying was snipped off and then a scalpel was used to shave the dead end of the good bone off, and the top and bottom flap of the healthy webbing were stitched together. The bird is doing fine.
